THE LOWELL DAILY SUN.

VOL. XXIV. NO. 52. LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1894. PRICE ONE CENT.

FIRST EDITION

For later telegraphic and local news see Second Edition.

UNCLE SAM'S HUSTLING P. M.

WHO IS GIVING LOWELL THE BEST OF MAIL SERVICE.

New Schedule Went Into Effect Today With Additional Deliveries and More Collections—New Routes Laid Out From the New Federal Building.

When Postmaster General Bissell once said that young men are the best fitted to make progressive postmasters he knew what he was saying, and right here in Lowell the truth of his statement is proven for Postmaster Pearson since his appointment to office has given evidence of being a capable and progressive head and has placed the Lowell office in a position far ahead of that occupied by most of the cities of her size.

With the department established in its new quarters, with the energetic postmaster in command, the Washington authorities will have a branch to be proud of.

While the office has been in good hands before, never in its history has so much towards meeting the demands of the public been accomplished as within the time that Mr. Pearson has had control. It was through his efforts that new carriers were added recently making it possible to have more deliveries and through him too, the pay of the employes was increased materially.

But the latest sign of the young postmaster's progressiveness was shown yesterday when a new program went into effect, whereby every resident of Lowell who does business with the post office department is considerably benefited.

Heretofore the deliveries have been three daily to business men and only one in the outskirts, while under the new operation the business men have four deliveries and the residents in the outskirts, two daily. Now not only have the number of deliveries been increased but the district in which the four deliveries will be made has been increased in size and will include besides the old district down town, East Merrimack, Church, Lawrence, to Greenwood Bros., Gorham from court house, to Davis' corner, Bridge to Seventh, Lakeview ave., Market to Dummer, and Middle streets, all the business sections about the Wamesit mills on upper Dutton street, to Mt. Vernon street, Broadway and Fletcher street. Where but four carriers were formerly needed seven are now put on.

The business trip carriers are Charles A. Holden, Frank G. Rundlett, William H. Wood, Daniel S. Crowley, John Ewing, Harry Pettengill and Charles A. Carey.

By the addition of all the substitutes to the regular force, Postmaster Pearson has to appointed a number of new substitutes. They are J. B. A. Le Brun, James Healey, Patrick F. Cahill, Leforest Beals, George F. Andrews and James William Maguire.

Thus it may be seen that a very large number of business places will have reason to thank Postmaster Pearson.

The system of collecting has been improved and besides the two mounted collectors, Messrs. Watson and Picard, Messrs. John Slack, William J. Lane and G. W. Bulmer have been appointed foot collectors and they will collect from the boxes in the city proper while the mounted men will take in the suburbs and letters will be sent more quickly than in the past. All routes have been laid from the new post office. To meet the demands made by the new appointments, seven improvised desks and as many pigeonholes have been erected in the old post office and work will go along without waiting for the more commodious quarters in the new building.

"Young Mr. Pearson" as some have facetiously called him is the right man in the right place and deserves the hearty congratulations of the public without respect to party for his great work at the the head of the local department, and it is only fair to add that he is assisted greatly in his work by a corps of hustling assistants in each department.

LOCAL NOTES.

The railroad tracks on Central street are being repaired.

Work on the extension of the Lamb street sewer is now in progress. The extension will be about 300 feet long.

Green is doing a big business in watch and jewelry repairing. Watches cleaned and main-springs replaced, $1.00. Warranted one year. Jewelry repaired as good and cheaper than any house in Lowell. Green's, 88 Merrimack street.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Aaron Fuller of this city is visiting in Natick.

Mrs. H. B. Bailey leaves this city tomorrow for San Mateo, Florida, her winter home. Mr. Bailey went in September. A little later a number of Lowell people will follow for San Mateo is a winter home for many of our townspeople.

Sent up to Manchester.

Fred Bushie who recently escaped from the Manchester jail was arrested in an empty tenement in Little Canada Tuesday and sent back to Manchester yesterday.

Reduction In

STEERAGE RATES

ONLY $10.

Boston to Queenstown, Liverpool, London, Belfast, Glasgow, Londonderry.

James F. O'Donnell,

Agent, Lowell, Mass.

Cor. of Worthen and Market Sts.

YOUR WATCH needs cleaning. Bring it to Power & Sparks, 285 Central Street. We will put it in order and do all that it requires for a year for $1.50. We take our chances; if the watch is smashed the charge will be $1.50 and no more. Watch loaned during repairs. INSURE YOUR WATCH.

BILLHEADS of every description printed at short notice at the SUN office.

POLITICAL JOTS

Knox Stultifies Himself On Tariff Issues.

THE A. P. A. LOSE A PROMINENT LEADER.

The Democratic Ranks Closing for Brady and Fifield.

The democrats of the city are moving forward with closed ranks for the election of Fifield and Brady. But a few who have been workers with the party lag behind or reconnoitre at the Foss headquarters. What they can be doing there it is difficult to say with any positive certainty but the average democrat may surmise.

The liquor dealers of the city were never more loyal to the democratic party than on this occasion. One or two men have grievances but it seems they are determined to overlook these and work for the success of the ticket.

The few malcontents who are gulled by promises of licenses will find their mistake later on. They are not now in the liquor business; but they want the opportunity to enter it. But these are of little importance compared with the support coming from the opposition for Fifield and Brady. Ward Four is not for Foss, and the republicans of that stronghold are fully justified in opposing the election of a man who imagines that his chief duty is to draw his salary and make his appearance when his vote is wanted by a monopoly.

The man who resigns after having been elected to an office must have a good deal of effrontery to ask a re-election.

The voters will say to him on election day "why did you not keep the office when you had it. If you did not think enough of the office to complete the term you should not ask a reelection. But you have lost your opportunity now; the people will elect Brady and Fifield."

Knox came to Lowell whining about the farmers on the Canadian border, about the lumber men of Maine and about the "outrage" of admitting cotton bands free while bands for binding hay are taxed. This he claims is in the interests of the south. Texas is the greatest wool growing state. Was wool put up on the free list to benefit that state?

Cotton hoops were put upon the free list because a combination took the duty imposed under the McKinley law out of the cotton planters and the bands that bind hay happen to be made in Worcester. Hay is bound by wire and very little American hay is shipped abroad.

William "Switchboard" Knox has made an ass of himself on the stump although he is spoken of as a man of great ability and intelligence.

Mr. Fifield is a man of business, a man who is in touch with the people, a man who has always been generous towards his employes. He never attempted to steal the invention of any of his workmen. Can this be said of William Switchboard Knox? Mr. Fifield wants no further tariff legislation. Mr. Knox wants the present tariff torn down and the McKinley duties restored.

***

There will be a ward rally in Ward Five Friday evening and Edward W. Rodgers will address the voters.

***

A big ward rally will be held in Ward Six Friday evening at which Thomas F. Hoban will preside. The speakers will be Ed Pierce and Philip J. Farley.

Rallies will be held on the same night in wards three and five and good speakers will be present.

***

The A. P. A. held forth in large numbers last night. It was an A. P. A. farewell to Rev. Mr. Raboteau and all the incompetent ministers of whom he spoke last Sunday were there. The leader of these and decidedly the most incompetent was Montgomery. He had to tell of the "rum-soaked crowd" that came from the republican rally on the previous evening. He knows he prevaricates when he makes such a statement. No more respectable gathering of working people could be found anywhere than that which was present in Huntington hall, Tuesday evening. The fact is that this Apaphobian leader is so much accustomed to vilifying and abusing the masses of the people in this city that he rarely can speak fairly of anybody. He exaggerates the good qualities of his followers and the bad of those he persecutes until he grossly misrepresents both. Verily, as Lincoln said, we are progressing rapidly in degeneracy. Rev. Dr. Court, D. D., degraded himself by appearing as the tail to Montgomery's kite. Exit Rev. Mr. Raboteau. Next,

***

Hon. George Fred Williams and Congressman Joseph O'Neil will wind up the democratic campaign in this city next Saturday night. It will be a great rally. Nathan D. Pratt will preside. The fallacies of republican speakers will be exposed by sound democratic arguments.

***

Thomas F. Saunders of Ward One, the well known blacksmith, is a candidate for the council. Tim Reynolds, another blacksmith, is a candidate for the council from Ward Three. Patrick H. Clifford and Patrick Barry are candidates for the council from Ward One.

***

The A. P. A. divines accuse the Catholic church of being in politics. Can they point out where a single Catholic clergyman in this city ever interfered in politics. Do they degrade their pulpits by making political stump speeches when expected to preach the gospel? Do they claim that in a short time they will have the city, the state and the nation? No! All the A. P. A. movement is a disguised movement for political office by men who are not now, never have been and never will be true Americans because they would deprive Catholics of their religious and political rights.

Resolutions To M. Mercier.

Le Cercle Canadian at its next meeting will take action on the death of ex-Premier Mercier of Quebec. The French republican club will take action on his death at its meeting on Sunday.

Eighteenth Street Sewer.

A gang of men will be set at work on the Eighteenth street sewer in a few days, the committee having instructed Supt. Crowley to commence work on its construction.

Why Not.

If you are economizing why not look over your printing bills and see if you are not paying too much for printing. Call at this office and get prices on your work, and see if we cannot save money for you.

When you need printing, remember THE SUN.

SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

Interest Begins Monthly.

Money deposited in the savings department of the Traders' National bank of this city, before 9 o'clock, p. m., Saturday November 3d, will draw interest from November 1st at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, compounding semi-annually. This bank is open continuously from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., Saturdays from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

MARSHALL--SCRIPTURE.

Marriage of a Lowell Lawyer to One of Rockport's Fair Daughters.

The marriage of William S. Marshall, Esq., of the law firm of Marshall, Burke and Marshall, to Miss Emma B. Scripture of Rockport, was a fashionable event last evening.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. Frank Scripture, manager of the Pigeon Hill granite company of Rockport.

The wedding took place at the bride's home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Israel Ainsworth of Rockport.

The bride was dressed in heavy white silk, cut en train, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were two little girls, Misses Blanche Davis and Helen Fisher of Gloucester, and each carried a basket of bride roses.

The best man was Mr. Edward Marshall, brother of the groom, and Messrs. Arthur B. Sewell, Harry Rogers and Geo. Rogers, all of Rockport, were the ushers. After a short wedding trip the bridal couple will reside in Lowell.

HURT BY AN ELEVATOR.

Bridget Nestor, a Scrubber, Had a Narrow Escape From Death Yesterday—Two Other Less Serious Accidents.

Bridget Nestor, a middle aged woman, employed as a scrubber in the Massachusetts mills, was so badly injured yesterday afternoon that her life was despaired of during the night at the corporation hospital whither she was taken in the ambulance. Her collar bone is badly broken and her head hurt which rendered her unconscious for six hours. She is reported comfortable and partially conscious this noon.

As far as can be learned the accident occurred at the elevator shaft where she was sweeping. She was known to be there, but in getting out of the way of the elevator her dress is thought to have caught in the rope preventing the stopping of the elevator. It is not clear whether she was hit by the elevator or the gate, but apparently she was first struck on the head. It would appear that she had a narrow escape from death.

John Stewart, an assistant oiler in the Merrimack print works bleach house, fell through a floor trap to the floor below, Monday, escaping with a bad shaking up and a cut finger.

An oiler in the same mill and same department was badly bruised in being caught in the shafting.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.

Large Congregations at the Catholic Churches in Attendance at Morning Mass.

The feast of All Saints is observed today and is a holyday of obligation in the Catholic churches. This evening vespers and vespers for the dead will be sung in the Catholic churches of the city. Tomorrow will be All Souls' day, a day of devotion.

At St. Patrick's church today mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Gleason, who also spoke briefly on the observance of the feast.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

KELLEY—The funeral of Sabina Kelley took place this afternoon from her late home, 26 Andover street, and was largely attended. The remains were taken to the Immaculate Conception church, where services were held. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Beef Contract Given Out.

The regular meeting of the overseers of the poor was held at the city farm yesterday afternoon. The principal business was the awarding of the contract to furnish fresh beef to the city institutions during the year.

There were three bidders, Jewett & Swift, the Public Market (S. P. Pike) and Daniel J. Donovan.

The bids were on chucks, flanks, shanks shins, rump and loin.

A Rainy Season

is promised from the New Hampshire oracle who prophesied so correctly last winter. Rubber Coats, Waterproof Canvas Coats, Macintoshes and Umbrellas will be in great demand, and we are amply prepared with a good stock such as we can confidentially recommend to our customers. Our Blanket Lined Coats in Brown Waterproof Canvas at $1.25 are splendid property for cold rainy weather. Sheepskin Fleece Lined goods are warmer. Umbrellas, Fast Black, 50c to $6.

-THE-

Merrimack Clo' Co.

OPPOSITE CITY HALL.

W. A. LEW. 49 John Street

Clothing, Cleansed, Dyed and Pressed

Orders received for cleaning dying and pressing promptly and neatly executed

AN A. P. A. MANTLE

Left to the Faithful by Rev. Claude Raboteau.

AN ELISHA WANTED WHO WILL REDEEM OUR CITY.

Remarkable A. P. A. Demonstration at a Farewell Reception.

It cannot be denied that Rev. Claude Raboteau has a host of friends in Lowell. This being so it would seem that his field of duty as a minister of the gospel was in Lowell.

It is not in the ordinary course of events to send a Lowell pastor into other fields by the medium of a mass meeting of citizens. The farewell meeting to Mr. Raboteau was something remarkable, last night.

Every available inch in Huntington hall was jammed with humanity, although the admission was by ticket. It was not denied at the time that the meeting was an A. P. A. farewell to the most ardent pulpit advocate of the order, and from the tenor of remarks made the impression was confirmed that it was a "patriotic" meeting.

Tribute by Other Pastors

Rev. H. W. O. Millington presided and in calling to order eulogized Mr. Raboteau's devotion to the principles of patriotism. Rev. C. J. Koevil of the Moore street P. M. church offered prayer and Rev. Mr. Morang sang.

Resolutions offered by Rev. Hugh Montgomery were adopted. They endorsed the retiring pastor, praised him for not lowering the dignity of the pulpit, the church or the state, for his work in behalf of religious liberty and the defence of patriotic principles, for his tolerance toward all creeds while fearlessly opposing a church or party claiming absolute control over children growing up under the stars and stripes, and in conclusion bidding him godspeed.

Rev. E. T. Curnick of the Worthen Street M. E. church seconded the resolution, saying that Mr. Raboteau's departure will be the city's loss.

The American orchestra played and then Rev. Dr. Robert Court spoke in eulogistic terms of the clergyman's "patriotic" work. He said: "Free discussion in this country is one of the recognized rights of American citizenship. As rational beings we have the right to reason. God gave man this faculty in order that we may arrive at the truth. There is no recognition in God's word of the maxim that "ignorance is the mother of devotion." In reference to Mr. Raboteau he said he was to be honored because he stood up for freedom of thought, first, last and always for American principles.

Rev. E. S. Wheeler of Boston, state representative of the A. P. A., hoped that the pastor would be restored to health for future service. He claimed that the A. P. A. is not the miserable travesty people make it out to be.

Rev. O. H. Denney claimed that the pastor's name should be inscribed with those of the nation's heroes on the roll of fame.

Letters of regret were read from Rev. A. Blackburn of Cambridge, Rev. Dr. St. John Chambre of this city, Rev. E. S. Bailey of Haverhill, Rev. G. H. Johnson, Rev. Dr. J. O. Campbell, Rev. J. A. Wigren and Rev. W. W. Harris of this city.

Rev. Mr. Hand of Keene, N. H., an intimate friend of Mr. Raboteau, paid a compliment to him and closed with a statement of the A. P. A. principles, not America for Americans but Americans for America.

A poem written by H. A. Dual was read by that gentleman. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Raboteau, next spoke. His heart was filled to overflowing, he said, and as he stood before the people for the last time to lead them to victory. He came here as a simple preacher and became identified with a movement which is so prominent. If he had acquired notoriety as an A. P. A lecturer it was not from his seeking; nor had he shirked from the duty of espousing his principles, although he knew that by so doing he was shaking a red rag to certain sections of this city. When he entered this contest against the Romish-politico machine he did not do it without mature and prayerful deliberation. It is a serious business to enter such an undertaking, and at times he was more than half inclined to reconsider his intention.

One evil in our city, he claimed, was the organized system of the Romish church to gain control of our municipality. "The one way to bring municipal reform is to throttle the Romish giant."

The democratic papers say the A. P. A. is a republican appendage. The speaker said he was a democrat and that more democrats were identified with the movement than the papers supposed.

"I love the A. P. A., and would die for it if need be," said Mr. Raboteau.

"Rome claims she has as much right as any other church; nobody ever denied it; they can have a church on every street if they want it, and will pay taxes on it. Who dares to say Rome has given up temporal power? Show me this and the A. P. A. will go out of business."

Mr. Raboteau dwelt on the importance of educating children in the public schools. "In our municipal affairs we want an American recognized as well as an Irishman and the A. P. A. will not giveup until this city is rescued from the hands of the enemy that is grabbing at its throat. We shall have the city yet, the state and the country and before the 20th century, a man will sit in the first place in the nation who has been identified with this great movement. (loud applause.)

In closing he delivered an eloquent farewell and the meeting closed at eleven o'clock. Afterwards half the audience went up and shook hands with Rev. Mr. Raboteau.

DEATHS.

BROWN—Daniel Brown, an old and life long resident of Tyngsboro, passed away at his home yesterday, aged 85 years.

McManmon, florist, Prescott & Merr'k sts

FISHER H. PEARSON, Room 44 P. O. Block, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JAMES A. CAWLEY, Moore Street

COAL.

Telephone for Summer Prices. All orders promptly delivered. (Late of firm of Cawley Bros

CHARLES H. FROST, 78 Central Street

Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry,

Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, Ammunition, Fire-arms, etc. Fine Watch Repairing.

2 O'CLOCK

IS CZAR DEAD?

Reports in London Indicate That He Is.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CZAREWITCH IS DISCOVERED.

Latest News by Wire From the Old World Capitals.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Daily News had a despatch from Livadia today, stating that the Czar is dead, but at 4.30 p. m. the Russian embassy had not had this report confirmed.

The London correspondents have been unable to obtain the least information.

The morning bulletin stated that the Czar had not slept all night and that the action of his heart has decreased. His majesty is suffering extreme torture.

A Conspiracy Found.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A special from St. Petersburg states that the police have discovered a conspiracy against the Czarewitch and are arresting Nihilists by the wholesale.

The Czar refused to go to Corfu, because he wanted to die in Russia.

A PROSPECTIVE BRIDE.

If the Old Saying About the Cake and the Ring Come to Pass.

A very pleasant Halloween party was held at the home of the Misses Kelley on Gorham street, last evening. There were vocal selections by Messrs Peter Clune and Owen Gilday; piano solos by Miss Coleman, Miss Annie and Miss Lizzie Kelley; recitations by Mr. James Coughlin, the well known elocutionist; songs by Mr. Henry Cuff and Miss Lizzie McLaughlin. All of the selections were well received, the special numbers being those of Mr. James Coughlin and the witticisms of Mr. Peter A. Clune and Owen Gilday.

Then there were two tables of whist, prizes won by Miss McLaughlin and Mr. Coughlin, and Mr. Clune and Miss Annie Kelley.

The supper tables were spread and were waited on by Misses Lizzie and Ella Kelley and Miss Coleman. Cutting the cake and the finding of the ring by Miss Annie Kelley was the feature at the supper. After supper the party played games and the evening closed in a duet from Messrs. Clune and Gilday. The party broke up at an early hour after spending a very pleasant halloween.

Fixing the Approaches.

Supt. Crowley will macadam at each end of the East Merrimack street bridge and the paving will be done in the spring. He fears that the paving blocks would sink during the winter were they laid now.

Mr. Crowley is anxious to have one side of the bridge ready for Sunday, for the convenience of those who take part in the Burke's memorial parade. If the bridge people and the water works rush their portion of the work he feels certain it can be done.

Close of October Devotions.

The October devotions in the Catholic churches closed last evening with the usual service. The attendance at the different churches during the month has been very large.

Laborers Take Warning.

We have reduced the price of coal for your benefit. Buy your coal of D. W. Horne & Son, 15 Central street.

Fall Footwear

FOR LADIES.

Better values every day in Ladies' Footwear; that tells the secret of our growing business.

Good shoes, like good deeds, need no trumpet; they need but to be seen to be appreciated.

Our celebrated line of Ladies' $3 00 Welt sole shoes, in lace and button, cannot be duplicated in this city; equal to many $4 00 lines in other stores.

At $2.00 to $2.50 we show the finest line of Ladies' heavy storm and school shoes ever offered, among these you will find heavy Vici Kid, wax calf, fine Goat, and Seal Cordavens.

A positive saving of from 10 to 30 per cent on Children's and Misses' shoes, some extraordinary values at 75c.

MEN'S SHOES.

Men's heavy 3 sole Calf shoes, Bal. and congress, equal to any $2.50 shoe in town—$1.97.

Men's elegant satin Calf, cork sole, lace and congress, equal to any $3 shoe sold,—$2.50.

Our superior Police shoe, hand sewed, railroad edge, full calf lined and waterproof, equal to $7 custom make;—our price $3.50.

J. L. CHALIFOUX

Central and Middle Streets.

LOTHROP & CUNNINGHAM. 182 Merrimack Street.

Photographers,

Crayons, Pastels and Water Colors specialty. All work Guaranteed.

LUNGS GIVING WAY.

Condition of the Czar Indicates That Death Is Near at Hand.

YALTA, Nov. 1.—The official bulletin issued last evening says: "The emperor has taken little nourishment. The congestion of the left lung continues. Breathing is difficult, and pulse is weak. The general weakness of the patient has greatly increased.

The czar suffers fits of suffocation. Yesterday he was unconscious for several hours. Early in the morning he tried to read state dispatches, but he was too weak. During his violent fits of coughing, particles of lung were brought away.

The bulletin issued Tuesday night was not published here until yesterday. It caused a feeling of intense apprehension. It was noticed that yesterday not one of the doctors in attendance upon the czar was seen here, though usually they are observed walking in the streets daily.

Grand Duke Alix Michaelovitch, cousin of the czar, who was disgraced and banished to Caucasus several years ago, arrived here recently, wishing to see the czar and ask his pardon before he died. The czar declined to see him, and the grand duke disappeared after seeing his other relatives.

The newspapers have been prohibited from mentioning the visit until the grand duke's father shall have ordered the censor to allow the fact to be published.

The czar's treatment by his physicians is unchanged. He takes digitalis and aconite and drinks a great deal of milk.

Seriously Stabbed.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 1.—Tom Malloy, a prominent politician, was crossing the bridge from Berkeley when he was met by Eugenio Gandeiri, who, without any warning, attacked him with a knife, cutting him severely in the right thigh and across the right side of the abdomen. Malloy became insensible, but before he could bleed to death he was discovered. Malloy's condition is serious. Gandeiri fled to this city and has not been captured.

Thieves Fired Two Shots.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—Thieves entered the general stores of Camplon & Caulkins and J. A. Rowland at Old Lyme. The safes were blown open and $110 was obtained at the first named place and $8 at Rowland's. S. P. Martin saw a light in Camplon & Caulkins' and rapped on the door, but he was ordered to throw up his hands and two shots were fired through the door. He ran for help, but the robbers escaped.

A Gratifying Announcement.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 1.—It is stated that a large part of the work of the General Electric company, which was taken from here and transferred to Schenectady, will be returned to this city. The railway work will also be increased.

Floor Fell at a Caucus.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—The Republican caucus at Portland was the largest ever held in the old town hall. During the balloting the floor gave way, precipitating the voters into the basement, and pandemonium reigned.

Steamer Wrecked.

SYDNEY, Nov. 1.—Steamer Wairarapa, plying between this port and Auckland, was wrecked on Great Barrier island Sunday night. A few of her passengers were saved, but 112 were drowned.

Falcon Given Up As Lost.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 1.—The Penry steamer Falcon, from Philadelphia for this port, which has been out four weeks, was yesterday officially given up by the owners as lost.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Crespo's speedy flight from Venezuela is predicted.

James B. Sutherland was suffocated by gas at Boston.

Three deaths were due to an open switch at Foster, Pa.

It is rumored that Crispi contemplates a raid on Tripoli.

About 50 sheep were killed by dogs at Watertown, Mass.

The Bettendorf wheel works at Davenport, Ia., were destroyed by fire.

S. P. Love was elected assistant manager of the Wesleyan baseball team.

Flour mills in St. Louis and the Northwest may shut down during December.

The will of Henry C. Hutchins of Boston gives $50,000 for charitable purposes.

During a gale the steamer Lowiston, coal laden, went ashore about a mile east of Oak Orchard, N. Y.

Michael Jennings, found dead at Boston, is thought to have been killed by taking an overdose of pills.

George R. Sargent was sentenced to 10 days in jail for disturbing a religious meeting on Boston common.

James Sullivan, the pitcher of last season's Providence nine, has signed with the Boston League management.

Employes of the Potomska mill at New Bedford, Mass., had a hard time putting out a fire in the picker room. Considerable loose cotton was destroyed.

Joseph McKay of Lawrence, Mass., 61 years old, made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide last night by taking paris green. He had been drinking heavily of late.

Gorham grange at Gorham, Me., celebrated its 20th anniversary. An address was made by L. B. Dennett of Portland, who instituted the grange 20 years ago.

Mark R. Leavenworth, one of the best-known Masons in Connecticut, grand senior warden of the grand lodge of Connecticut, lies at the point of death at his home in Bridgeport.

Rev. Charles E. McKinley was ordained and installed a pastor of the First Parish Congregational church at Yarmouth, Me. Rev. Mr. McKinley came from Iowa, and has just completed a course at Andover Theological seminary.

Reorganization Favored.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—At the office of the Finance company, depository of Reading securities under reorganization plan, it was said holders of $50,000 general mortgage bonds assented. President Earle confirms the report that holders of four million bonds in London agreed to assent.

Negroes Sail For Liberia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The New African Steamship company recently contracted for six steamships, and the first sailed from here today. This company proposes to carry negroes from the United States to Liberia to form a big colony there.

A Cutdown Expected.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 1.—A rumor is current that the New Jersey Central Railroad company is about to make a general reduction in the wages of its employes, making the basis the same as the wages paid by the Lehigh Valley company.

Seamen Rescued.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 1.—The Danish bark Aurora arrived at Holyhead and landed 12 of the crew of the abandoned Norwegian bark Fin, who were picked up at sea. The Fin was bound from Lisbon for Halifax, [illegible]

WANTED MONEY

Train Wreckers Wanted Money at Any Cost,

AN AWFUL JOB PLANNED BY ROBBERS.

Confession of a Conscience Stricken Individual.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 1.—A special to The Wisconsin from Merrill says that wholesale murder and robbery were the motives of the recent train wrecking on the "Soo" road. Two men charged with the murder of the man who lost his life were given a hearing yesterday and were held for trial. One of the prisoners confessed, and it is now known what prompted the wreckers to derail the Boston limited near Heafford Junction on the night of Oct. 7.

Fireman Cottrill was killed in the wreck. Leovitt Hazelton, the man who confessed, is only 20 years old. Frank Williams, his companion, denies any knowledge of the wrecking. Hazelton says he spent a week sawing the piles and stringers of the bridge. They sought to kill everyone aboard the train and then rob the safe in the express car.

Hazelton's Story.

It was last Friday that Hazelton signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Klutze, notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Payser, District Attorney Anderson and F. X. Holze. Hazelton said:

"About dark we set to work with the purpose of wrecking a passenger train, so we could rob the express car. We expected the wreck would be much worse than it was. We expected that the cars would be all thrown from the track, smashed up and the passengers and train crew all killed, so that we would have no one to prevent us from accomplishing our purpose. We thought mostly of the money we would get and not the loss of life.

"We began work west of the center of the bridge. We cut all the stringers across the bridge and two sets of them at the ends, and then sawed the piles or posts upon which they rested. We also cut a brace.

After a Train Passed Over

we sawed the outside post and the other brace, took the bolts out of the fishplates, the spikes next to the fishplates and removed the bolts from the fishplates at each end of the rail.

"We waited at the east end of the bridge until the westbound passenger train came and broke through the bridge. We were on the south side of the track at the east end of the bridge when the crash came. Then we walked westward to the point where the wreck was. We heard some one crying: "Are you hurt?" The other man answered: "A little." Then we heard some one crying out again.

"We did not wait to hear more. A man was coming toward us, and that scared us. We walked away and went pretty near to the next town on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul track and went into a hay barn. We remained there three days and then started for Merrill."

Drew a Big Crowd.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The fierce fight which has been waged in the Tenth congressional district between M. J. McEttrick and W. S. McNary, the independent and regular Democratic nominees, culminated last night in a joint debate between the two men at Gray's hall. Fully 6000 people gathered outside the hall, and as its capacity is only 800 a great crush ensued. Several people were injured and store windows near the hall were broken in by the great pressure. The debate itself reached no satisfactory result.

A Peculiar Case.

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 1.—Clement Walls of Lubec has just had his reason restored after 45 years of idiocy. When a boy, his skull was fractured by a kick from a colt. Surgeons have just found that a bit of broken bone pressed on his brain, which being raised gave back to the organ its wonted vigor. Curiously enough, Walls' brain force seems to have been in complete suspension during his idiocy, for the first thing he asked the doctors was, "Did the colt get away?"

A. B. Y. P. U. Anniversary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The Baptist Young People's union of Massachusetts held an anniversary last night in the Bowdoin Square tabernacle. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Walter Culley, Boston; vice presidents, W. W. Main, Boston; H. T. Bailey, Scituate, and Rev. H. S. Johnson, Pittsfield; secretary, Rev. M. F. Johnson, Middleboro; treasurer, C. P. Jameson, Boston.

Interesting Evidence.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 1.—At the Haverhill boodle trial yesterday several aldermen, it was shown, had been entertained by liquor applicants; a pool was formed, it was said, by one of the defendants, Mr. Smith of Boston, for "campaign expenses." The witnesses were told by aldermen that licenses would cost about $200.

The Y. W. C. A. Convention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Nearly all the city and college Young Women's Christian associations and Young People's societies in this state and adjoining states sent delegates to attend the eighth annual convention, which began today. The convention is held in Harlem. Dr. Torrey of Chicago presided at the opening meeting.

Big Banks Consolidated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Two of the oldest and largest of financial institutions of this city have consolidated. They are the Meridian National bank and Merchants' National bank. The capital stock is to be $2,000,000. The deposits of the two banks amounted to $2,830,000.

Sentenced, Though Absent.

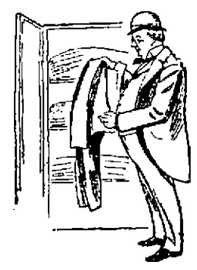

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Five anarchists, Reclus, Poste, Martin, Duprat and Pouget, were yesterday sentenced, in their absence, to 20 years' imprisonment. They were found guilty of belonging to a criminal association.

Strike Not Necessary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The journeymen plumbers of this city today adopted the eight-hour system. The master plumbers agreed to the change, and 400 men receive the benefit without a strike.

The Tariff a Stumbling Block.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Senor Mauragua, the Spanish minister, says the resignation of the Spanish cabinet was due to differences in relation to the new tariff bill. The ministers who have resigned represent the element opposed to low duties. Premier Sagasta favors freer trade relations with the [illegible]

To put it on a common-sense basis,—it's to your advantage to see what our good ready-made clothing is like, how it's made, how it fits, what it costs,—before you give your tailor an order.

Maybe after you've looked it over and tried it on, you'll stick to the tailor, wait for him to make you a suit, and pay twice as much for it as we charge.

Frankly, we don't believe anything of the kind.

PUTNAM & SON,

ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS,

Central Street, Cor. Warren.

FROM OUR 6 O'CLOCK EXTRA Of Yesterday.

CAUSED BY AN OPEN SWITCH.

WRECK ON THE RAILROAD NEAR SCRANTON, PA.

Three Trainmen Killed When the Express Crashed Into the Freight—Collision Occurred Near Foster, Pa.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Three persons were killed and a dozen injured at Foster, 25 miles north of here on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, at 1 o'clock this morning.

The accident was caused by an open switch, into which an express train dashed while running at a high rate of speed, crashing into the rear of a freight train, which had taken the siding to allow the express to pass.

The names of the killed and injured have not been ascertained.

THE BUNCO CASE.

John C. Burke, Receiver of the Annual Friend, the Plaintiff at Law.

The evidence is all in in the case of John C. Burke, receiver of the Annual Friend, against Emma R. Marr and William J. Blake. This was a suit growing out of Mr. Burke's attachment of Herbert E. Marr's wife's property, for the benefit of the certificate holders of the order. Marr was an ex-supreme. It was a lively hearing in which Lawyer O'Connell figured, as well as Harvey & Pickman, counsel for the defence.

CZAR'S DYING MOMENTS.

He Must be Suffering Terribly If the Stories Told are True.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Pall Mall Gazette's dispatch from Livadia says:

"Throughout yesterday the Czar's condition was most distressing. There was an increase in the spitting of blood, with violent shivering. His limbs were numb, his breathing was oppressed, and his legs were swollen more than ever."

A later dispatch says: "The czar is dying. His death may be expected at any moment."

A dispatch from Berlin to the Globe says that Prof. Leyden has telegraphed from Livadia to Count Schouvaloff, the Russian embassador to Germany, as follows: "I am in despair. A catastrophe is inevitable."

Funeral of a Little One.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Wm. H. and Mrs. Harrigan occurred yesterday from their home on Central street. There were many floral tributes. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Lamps.

We carry the most complete line of lamps and fixtures of any house in Lowell. Notice our display prices from 20c to $5.00 each. The U. S. Tea Co., corner of Central and Prescott street.

All the latest designs in fine pleasure vehicles.

Our Business Wagons are specially constructed to withstand the wear of pavements and car tracks.

We can save you money. Get our prices and look over our assortment before you purchase elsewhere.

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD.

JOHN W. McEVOY, 197 Central St., Opp. American House, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

FRANCIS W. QUA, No. 3 Barristers' Hall, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

J. M. KINGSBURY, No. 333 Bridge Street, Meats and Provisions. (Successor to Streut & Kingsbury.)

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD, Nos. 332 to 345 Central, Fine Carriages, Sleighs, etc. Repairing at Reasonable Rates.

LOWELL DAILY SUN.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Publisher.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Issued Daily, Sundays excepted.

Per Year $3.00 - - - Per Month. 25c.

City delivery and postage free.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON.

Southern Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
6 35	8 50	6 00	7 50
6 50	9 05	7 30	8 32
7 30	9 45	8 15	9 32
8 30	10 51	10 25	11 42
10 30	12 02	11 50	1 07
12 00	1 16	2 15	3 25
12 15	2 26	3 30	4 58
2 30	3 43	5 00	6 30
3 25	4 57	4 30	5 42
4 30	5 52	7 01	8 17
5 10	6 31	8 01	9 19
6 15	7 39	6 37	7 47
7 00	8 37	9 49	10 49
9 30	10 49	11 15	12 12

Sunday Trains.

9 30	10 36	8 00	9 18
12 00	1 24	11 45	12 53
4 15	5 26	5 00	6 26
5 25	6 56	7 00	8 22

Western Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
7 51	8 53	7 30	8 32
8 45	9 12	9 25	10 37
9 31	10 51	10 25	11 42
10 30	12 02	11 50	1 07
12 01	1 16	2 15	3 25
12 15	2 26	3 30	4 58
2 30	3 43	5 00	6 30
3 25	4 57	4 30	5 42
4 30	5 52	7 01	8 17
5 10	6 31	8 01	9 19
6 15	7 39	6 37	7 47
7 00	8 37	9 49	10 49
9 30	10 49	11 15	12 12

Sunday Trains.

9 30	10 36	8 00	9 18
12 00	1 24	11 45	12 53
4 15	5 26	5 00	6 26
5 25	6 56	7 00	8 22

Trains by this division leave Lowell from Central street station.

Leave Boston from Eastern Union Station, Causeway Street, at 9 Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

Sunday Trains.

8 18	9 02	9 00	9 55
8 25	9 12	9 00	10 05
9 45	10 36	1 00	1 57
3 15	4 30	5 00	5 57
4 25	5 42	7 00	8 10
8 03	7 00	8 00	8 50
		9 00	10 02

From Middlesex St. station only.

For Governor:

HON. JOHN E. RUSSELL of Leicester.

For Congressman:

HON. GEO. W. FIFIELD of Lowell.

For Senator:

HON. PETER J. BRADY of Lowell.

FASHION is bringing cats' tails into use. It is better to untail cats than to behead birds of beautiful plumage.

THE PROTECTED speak-easies are all working for Mr. Foss, but Senator Brady will be elected despite their underhanded efforts.

FIFIELD WANTS no more tariff legislation for the present. Knox wants a new bill, which would cause a year's trouble and depression.

THE REPUBLICANS have not thus far repudiated the A. P. A. Both organizations have been merged in one. The A. P. A. in part and parcel of the republican party.

SENATOR BRADY will be reelected despite the efforts of Foss and his friends to enlist democrats by promises of licenses and despite the efforts of populist candidates to defeat him and elect a republican.

ARE THE French citizens going to cast their lot with the A. P. A. or with the democratic party? Cyrille Constantineau is said to be working for republicans. He wants a license next year, but the commissioners says they will not make good such promises.

THE REPUBLICAN rally of Tuesday night was a tame affair throughout. Mayor Pickman's defence of the high tax rate will not be appreciated by the tax payers. It is no excuse for extravagance to say that there is on record one other instance equally bad.

LORD ROSEBERY'S proposition to submit a plan for the reform of the house of lords to the people may eventually be adopted. If it does an unexpected advance in constitutional government will have been made. The referendum in England would drive Queen Victoria off her throne and the lords out of existence.

HON. JOHN E. Russell would make a model governor of Massachusetts. A man of profound scholarly attainments, familiar with the history of every struggle in the politics of this country, a staunch democrat and a genuine patriot, he would bring to the office the highest capacity possessed by any candidate for governor in this state during the past score of years.

MR. MERCIER, ex-premier of Quebec, who has recently passed away, was the leader of the independence movement in Canada. He had been ignominiously dismissed from office on charges of malfeasance, which the courts could not sustain. His attempt to crush him but made him more determined in his agitation against British tyranny, which he kept up till the time of his death.

SOME POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS.

If you want an ideal democratic governor, a patriot, a statesman and a scholar, vote for Hon. John E. Russell of Leicester. If you want the new tariff law to get a fair trial, if you want free coal and iron as soon as the business interests of the country will permit; if you want a representative in congress who is himself a factor in the industrial welfare of our city, if you want practical men rather than theorists vote for Hon. George W. Fifield for congress.

If you want a friend of labor in the senate next year vote for Brady.

If you want an active energetic worker in the senate vote for Brady.

If you want a man who can exert his influence with the members of the house as well as with the senate, vote for Brady.

If you want to reward the man who did most for the normal school, for the mechanics' particulars bill and other measures, vote for Brady.

But if you do not want such a representative, if you do not want a friend of labor, a friend of popular measures; if you do not want an energetic worker—if you want a man who will vote for corporation interests as opposed to labor, if you want a senator who will support monopolies when he happens to be present, a man who will absent himself two-thirds of the time and who will resign if he sees an opportunity of procuring a position on any commission, then vote for Mr. Foss or what amounts to the same thing, vote for Thomas F. Connolly, the populist candidate.

THE A. P. A. ISSUE.

The republican party tries to make light of the A. P. A. issue as if the organization was in abeyance. It is quite active, but is now so merged in the G. O. P. as to be beyond recognition. It is of some importance whether the constitutional provision against a religious test of citizenship is to stand or to be torn down, whether Catholics shall be disfranchised or retain their rights undisturbed by a lot of hypocritical pharisees parading their fanaticism and their desire for office as real patriotism. They are wolves in sheeps' clothing, a menace to the peace of the community and undeserving of the freedom they enjoy.

THE MCKINLEY bill brought about a depression in business which led the people of this country to relegate the republican party to private life. The democrats came into power but the depression went on until the republican laws which caused the depression were changed. Now prosperity has returned to stay under the festering effect of the new tariff bill. Republicans want to restore McKinleyism, democrats want to give the present bill a fair trial. The country wants no more tariff legislation for the present. Vote the democratic ticket if you want to maintain this policy.

THE MAIL says that Mr. Fifield, although credited with never having a strike, should not be sent to congress lest he help to enact legislation that will cause strikes. It also says that were Mr. Courtney a manufacturer he would have different views on labor matters. But Mr. Fifield is a manufacturer; why not trust him on such matters? The Mail's arguments in the premises are decidedly weak and inconsistent.

WILL THE Lowell Citizen, which seems to be the Knox organ hereabouts, please explain how he came to be dubbed "Switchboard" Knox.

ANTI-DOUBLE TAX LEAGUE.

IS NOT A SECRET ORDER AND BIG MEN ARE IN IT.

It Differs Materially From the Single Tax Idea—The Future Prosperity of the Commonwealth at Stake—Borrowers Will Be Relieved of Heavy Burdens.

The Massachusetts Anti-Double-Taxation League is by no means a secret order. It has given to the public through the press its platform and its list of officers, and it has secured for these the widest circulation. The name of the league tells the difference between its contention and that of the single tax men. The league does not advocate that personal property shall not be taxed, but only that peculiarly intangible evidences of property, now by law twice taxed, shall be relieved from the second tax in Massachusetts, and two men shall not be taxed for the same property.

The platform begins:

"Double taxation is essentially unjust and injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth."

Double taxation is wrong. There is no possible argument that can make it right for the state to compel one man to pay twice upon property similar to that on which another man is compelled to pay but once; or to compel two citizens to pay taxes upon the same property. Whatever is wrong in the system of laws is of itself injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth; and this particular injustice which tends to discourage the residence here of capitalists is especially harmful.

The platform goes on: "The object of the league is the abolition of double taxation,—" This language is not in the least uncertain or ambiguous. The league means to do away with a wrong and Harmful Feature of the Laws.

The sentence partly quoted is continued thus: —"whether this (double) taxation falls upon property protected elsewhere and already taxed,—"

This phrase clearly refers to the taxation of shares of foreign corporations. Such shares are only the paper representatives of property that somewhere exists, and is there protected and taxed. The law which requires the owner of shares to pay a tax on them, although the property itself has already paid taxes, is similar to the law which formerly required the owner of a mortgage to pay another tax although the real estate which the mortgage represented in part had already been fully taxed. This old law was amended in 1882 so that now real estate pays but one tax, and the enormous advance in value of real estate and the great reduction in interest rates on mortgages is the direct result of this act of 1882. The league would extend the healthy change to personal property as well.

The second plank in the platform declares that the league would abolish double taxation when it fails —"upon both borrower and lender in respect of the same property."

Every merchant or manufacturer has felt the injustice of the law which compels him to pay full taxes upon his stock in trade without permitting him to deduct from its valuation the amount he owes upon it. It is practically impossible in these modern days of active competition for a merchant to do a successful business and sell goods cheap enough to satisfy the public demands entirely on his own capital. He must buy, to some extent, on credit, and for this credit he must pay interest. As the lender is taxed for his money at interest, the borrower should be permitted to deduct the money he owes from the value of his stock; or it would come to the same thing if the lender were exempt, the borrower would secure the advantage in a lower rate of interest. As it now is, the merchant borrower pays full taxes on his goods, and pays interest on his borrowed capital at a rate based upon the idea that the lender must also pay. As a matter of fact, the lender seldom does pay, as he avoids the tax gatherer precisely as the mortgagee under the old law used to avoid him.

The Third Plank Declares

that the league urges such a change in the law as will prevent the taxation of —"income derived from property already taxed." The law now says distinctly that "no income shall be taxed which is derived from property already taxed," but under a twisted construction of this peremptory language certain incomes so derived continue to be taxed. The league would make the plain intent of this statute so much plainer that there would be no chance of misconstruction.

The fourth plank advocates the exemption of municipal obligations. It is common knowledge that interest on city and town loans must be paid by the taxpayers of the debtor cities and towns. If it were possible to compel every holder of municipal bonds to contribute in the shape of taxes a part of the interest to which he is entitled, it would make no difference whether the bonds were taxable or exempt, but in fact a great part of every municipal loan is sold to non-residents. Our own taxpayers are prevented from buying these securities, because whatever the rate of interest promised, nearly one-third of it must be reckoned as liable to be demanded back for taxes; and so it happens that every city or town in the commonwealth actually pays higher rates (which increase the tax bills) than it would pay if the bonds or notes were legally free of taxes.

The platform closes with a form of mutual association for promoting the main objects of the league, and with great significance declares the purpose to be also "strenuously to oppose any of those changes in the laws now advocated which would tend to aggravate

The Evils of Double Taxation."

Among the changes that the league opposes is conspicuous the proposition urged in the legislature of 1894 to repeal the law of 1882 whereby mortgaged real estate is now taxed the same as though it was not mortgaged. Among the million or more depositors in savings banks, or among the fifty thousand shareholders of co-operative banks, or among the quarter million borrowers on mortgage of real estate, there is not one who would voluntarily return to the old system. Nevertheless, a certain party of impracticables profess to believe that this law should be repealed. (If the league does no better work than to prevent this it will have justified its existence.)

Another measure opposed by the league is the proposition to compel those few foreign corporations which still retain a place of business in Massachusetts to annually disclose a list of their shareholders. Still another is the proposal to compel every person resident within the state to declare under oath under penalty of possible imprisonment every item of his holdings in these companies so unjustly taxed. It is a simple business truth that if the first suggestion could be carried out before next May there would be no foreign corporations "having a usual place of business" in Massachusetts. All the great western railroads, the mining companies and the manufacturing companies, with all their multitudes of clerks, would depart instantly rather than to be used as spies and informers upon their own stockholders.

As regards the other it is certain that if enforced it would deprive the state of many of her most valuable citizens. It would be a revival of the inquisition. Exactly as the undue enforcement of the doomage law drove out of Boston the multitude of citizens who have created Manchester, Beverly, Nahant, Cohasset and dozens of other beautiful towns that might be named, so would the turning of the thumbscrews make New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York more desirable than Massachusetts.

Every patriotic citizen should rejoice that so many strong men have taken hold of this vital question, and should hasten to join the league.

A Colossal Harp.

The largest harp ever made, so far as is known, was that invented and constructed by M. Veritan, provost of Burkli, near Basle. It was known as the gigantic meteorological Æolian harp. It was 330 feet in length and was erected in the garden of its inventor in 1787. This harp consisted of 15 iron wires, 320 feet in length, stretched between two poles. The wires were from two to three inches apart, the largest being one-sixth of an inch in thickness and the smallest one-twelfth of an inch. They were placed in the direction of north and south and inclined in such a manner as to form an angle of from 20 to 30 degrees with the horizon, being stretched by means of rollers properly disposed for the purpose. Whenever the weather changed, the wires sounded with such loudness that it was impossible to go on with a concert in the house. The sound sometimes represented the hissing noise of water in rapid ebullition, sometimes that of a harmonicon and sometimes that of distant chimes or an organ.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A King's Retort.

King Victor Emmanuel used often to tire before the termination of a day's sport, and mules and horses being out of the question in the precipitous mountain paths he would mount on the back of his chief huntsman, an Alpine Hercules, named Borretta. One day Borretta, having the king on his back, was crossing a torrent. The king having raised his foot to avoid getting his gaiter wet, the sudden movement almost capsized Borretta. Unmindful for a moment of the rank of his burden, he growled out, "Tonto au, bourric" ("Hold steady, you jackass"). Without manifesting the least irritation or surprise, the king replied, "You apparently ignore, friend Borretta, that the jackass is the one who carries the load." And nothing more was said about the matter.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Potatoes.

When you have strained your plain boiled potatoes, take them at once to the open door or window and give them a vigorous shaking in the draft. They will become white and mealy. Try it once, and you will do it always, so great is the improvement, says the New York Telegram.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE

gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery

is well illustrated by the fact that

RUPTURE or Hernia, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid Uterine and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations.

PILE TUMORS, however large, Fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.

STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. For pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

P. H. HEELON, 557 and 559 Gorham St.

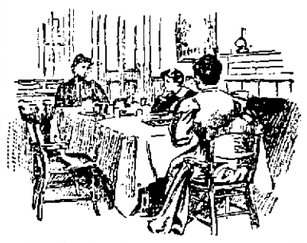

Boarding, Hack and Livery Stable.

JAMES H. CARMICHAEL, No. 97 Central Street,

Counsellor at Law and Notary Public

SUNBEAMS.

He Knew.

Mrs. Twickenham—I am sorry my table doesn't look any better, but all my silver is at the Safe Deposit company.

Mrs. Dimpleton—I think it looks lovely. What company do you go to?

Mrs. Twickenham—I really don't know. My husband attended to it.

Willie Twickenham—Why, it's papa's uncle's.—Brooklyn Life.

Better Than "Pap."

There was an excursion down from Shelbyville, Ind., yesterday, and the Hoosiers were scattered all over the city looking with wide, staring eyes at everything. On the ferryboat Hite was a group of the most rural looking of them.

There was one big, rawboned fellow that I noticed particularly. He wanted to talk, I could plainly see by his manner, and I smiled encouragingly at him. Then he said:

"I guess yer folks is s'prised to see so many of us fellers down here."

I remarked that we were all greatly surprised, but that we were also pleased, because they all looked so intelligent and seemed so sociable.

"Well, I'll jest tell you how I came ter come," resumed my rural acquaintance, becoming confidential. "Yer see the folks out our way ain't never seed anything 'cept'n cricks, an ther man what's seed er real river is some pumpkins. Dad he seed the Wabash when he was a boy, an he ain't done nothin sense but talk about that there river, an the swellin waves, an the dancin boats, an tur'bel storms. Course ever'body had to stop soon as he got started, 'cause nobody'd seed er river, an he could jest tell whatever he thought of, an nobody could argy with him. When I heerd that there was goin ter be an excursion, I went ter the postmaster, an I asked him if there was airy river 'bout Louisville. He says there was, an that it were the Ohier. He says it were a heap sight bigger'n the Wabash, an I jest got me a ticket an started ter git ahead of pap. Ain't I goin ter see it? Well, I reckon!"

With a triumphant stride he stalked down the levee to get on one of the boats at the Mail line wharf and see the wonders.—Louisville Commercial.

The Theater Hat.

Slumm—Have you seen the new arrangement for ladies' theater hats?

Glumm—No. What is it?

Slumm—It's a stepladder attachment so a man can climb up and look over.—Detroit Free Press.

INDAPO THE GREAT HINDOO REMEDY PRODUCES THE ABOVE RESULTS in 30 DAYS. Cures all Nervous Diseases. Failing Memory, Pevers, Sleeplessness, Nightly Emissions, etc., caused by past abuses, gives vigor and size to shrunken organs, and quickly but surely restores Lost Manhood in old or young. Easily carried in vest pocket. Price $1.00 a package. Six for $5.00 with a written guarantee to cure or money refunded. Don't buy an imitation, but insist on having INDAPO. If your druggist has not got it, we will send it prepaid. Oriental Medical Co., Props., Chicago, Ill., or our agents. SOLD by Ellingwood & Co., Cor. Central & Merrimack Sts., and Caldwell & Hovey, 161 Merrimack Street, LOWELL, MASS., and leading druggists elsewhere.

You Can Recover

From the shock and insure

Good Spirits

By eating the new Pettijohn's Breakfast Gem, 15c. per pkg.; and by drinking Old Grist Mill Coffee.

THE BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY

Old No. 199 Middlesex St. New No. 455.

Opp. Northern Depot. Telephone 374-3, Brass Signs.

CALEB L. SMITH.....Proprietor

BACHELLER, DUMAS & CO.

Paper Ruling, Book and Pamphlet Binding, Blank Books a Specialty

42 CHURCH STREET.

MULLIN & WINSLOW,

Dealers in

COAL

At Summer Prices

1018 Gorham Street.

Telephone 21-6.

Will You Have One?

We have a glass dish suitable for piccalilly, berries of any kind, or for a hundred and one uses on the dining-room table, which we are selling for

Only 5c. Each

These dishes are a lot we bought at wholesale in New York, and the price asked barely covers cost. Come in and see them.

French & Puffer.

245 Central Street.

Arthur M. Bertrand,

(Successor to F. W. Sargent,)

MERCHANT TAILOR.

FINE TAILORING A SPECIALTY.

24 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

Dress Suits to Let.

Great Removal Sale.

We are about to remove to more commodious quarters and find it necessary to close out our present stock of Harnesses of every description. The greatly reduced prices will place our stock within reach of everybody in need of Harnesses. Have leased for a term of years the "Old Brabrook Stand," established in 1827.

J. C. DONOVAN, 57 Market Street.

Have You Seen The

Climbing Monkey?

PRICE 25c.

Look in our Window. Toys of all kinds in great variety.

Bartlett & Dow.

No. 216 Central Street.

PHILIP J. FARLEY, Room 11 Barristers' Hall.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JOHN A. McQUADE & CO., Room 12, Mansur Block, Central St.,

Constable and Collecting Agency, And Auctioneer.

JOSEPH W. LEACH, Room 12, Shedd's Block

Soloist and Teacher of Singing.

P. J. HOAR, Merrimack, Cor. Palmer,

Attorney at Law.

O'Donnell & Gilbride's Block.

BOOT'S OLD 04 CIGAR, For Sale by all Dealers,

For a Good Smoke Try One.

No. 9 Merrimack St. Henry Boot, Prop

LOWELL AGENCY FOR

FRANK JONES' ALE.

—AND THE—

Celebrated Anheuser Busch Beer.

The Trade and Families Supplied at Lowest Prices.

Orders by mail or telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN LENNON,

NO. 302 MARKET Street.

TELEPHONE—No. 38-2.

WM. E. LIVINGSTON,

DEALER IN

Coal, Wood, Lime,

CEMENT, SAND, GRAVEL, HAIR, KAOLIN, PLASTER, BRICKS, FERTILIZERS.

Straw, Hay Grain, Flour

&c., &c.

NO. 15 THORNDIKE STREET,

Branch office, 49 Merrimack street.—Calderwood's cigar store.

$50.00

A Fine Square Piano, just right for beginner. $8 cash and $5 a month. Stool and Cover.

CARDNER'S

Music Store,

45 PRESCOTT ST., LOWELL, MASS.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

Wholesale Prices to the Consumer. Best Minnesota Haxall Flour,

$4.00 Per Bbl.

50c. 1-8 Bbl. Sack. A printed Guarantee with every barrel or sack bought t

Other goods sold on a small margin but we are selling Flour just now.

F. M. BARNEY & CO.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers,

415 MIDDLESEX ST., LOWELL, MASS.

WATSON BAKERY

Every evening at 5 o'clock Hot Tea Rolls and Cream Bread, also all kinds of Cake and Pastry. Only the best stock used in the manufacture of our goods. Parties supplied at short notice at Nos. 24 to 30 CHARLES STREET.

Peter Watson, Prop.

PETER J. BRADY,

GROCER.

448 Gorham Street.

Choice, Teas, Coffees and Spices. Try our "BIG TWELVE," brand of flour, the best in the city.

NEW LUMBER YARD.

No. 255 HILDRETH STREET.

Best Quality. Lowest Prices. Cedar Posts a Specialty.

P. V. Allen & Co.,

Telephone 568-5.

FISHER H. PEARSON, Room 44 P. O. Block,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JAMES A. CAWLEY, Moore Street

COAL.

Telephone for Summer Prices. All orders promptly delivered. (Late of firm of Cawley Bros

CHARLES H. FROST, 78 Central Street

Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry,

Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, Ammunition, Fire-arms, etc. Fine Watch repairing.

CLEVELAND WHEELS.

Callahan & Sanborn

Merrimack Square, Bridge St.

DRS. CUFF & CONSTANTINEAU

Surgeon Dentists

Rooms 5, 6, 7 8, Bon Marche Build'g, 159 Merrimack Street.

SCOTT & O'DAY,

Plumbers and Sanitary Engineers.

Steam, Gas and Water Piping.

JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

54 Appleton Street,

Opposite New Post Office.

Dancing - School.

Associate Hall, this hall every Wednesday after 3, to give Private Lessons in the Highland Fling, Hornpipe, Spanish Dance, Skip Rope, Sword Dance, Skirt Dance, Irish Reel, Jig, Clog Dance, Wiggling, &c., also Waltz, Schottische, Galop, Polka, any style dancing desired, $1 per lesson. Class in Ball Room Dancing meet at 8 every Wednesday Evg. Patrons may join this class by the lesson. 50c. per lesson

What?

The "VICTOR" Boiler is for Heating.

The "WELSBACH" Burner is for Lighting.

-THE-

H. R. Barker M'f'g Co.

THERE IS

no brand of high grade beers that smacks of better flavor, than the "Premier" or "Bavarian."

NO BETTER

stimulating and healthgiving beverage in the market than Smith's Philadelphia

ALE

for which we are sole Lowell agents.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF,

55 Middle Street,

Parker block, Near Palmer Street.

G. W. Harrington & Bro.,

Manufacturers of the Finest Carbonated Soda Beverages in the City. The choicest line of

Lager and Stock Ales

In the city. Family Trade a Specialty. Order by Telephone 948-4.

CORNER WINTER AND DAVIS STS

Do You Go To Lawrence?

If So, Call At

THE HOTEL BRUNSWICK,

Which now has the Finest Dining Rooms in the city. They have been recently renovated. The Cuisine is Unsurpassed

Now Is the Time to Buy.

PICTURES, DIPLOMAS FRAMED,

85c. TO $1.00.

LARGE LINE OF MOULDINGS.

Our Prices Are Always One-third Off.

GEO. E. MAKER,

No. 2 John St., Marble Bank Building.

JAMES MEEK,

HAY, GRAIN AND POULTRY FOOD.

Little Stone Mill foot of Anne St.

LOWEST PRICES. TELEPHONE 2-97

Farrell & Conaton

246 DUTTON ST.,

Practical Plumbers

AND

Sanitary Engineers.

Also Steam, Gas and Water Fitters. We also carry a large line of Gas Fixtures at lowest price.

JAMES MARREN,

Real Estate and Insurance Agent,

121 CENTRAL STREET.

Insurance placed in the most reliable companies.

All orders sent to P. O. Box 486 shall be promptly attended to.

DOORS, BLINDS, GLAZED WINDOWS.

Regular sizes in stock, odd sizes made to order. Goods first quality. Prompt delivery.

J. H. HOWARD,

COMMISSION MERCHANT.

Cor. Market & Shattuck Sts.

DO YOU WANT THE BEST?

The Richmond Range

It is the Best in the World.

AND IS WARRANTED.

ARE YOU IN NEED OF A

PARLOR - STOVE?

We can show you a fine line of Elegant Heaters Up to Date.

Peter Davey.

134 MARKET STREET - - OPPOSITE PALMER.

TELEPHONE: RESIDENCE, 488-2. STORE, 314-2.

NO - DULL - TIMES - AT

YOUNG'S

Ever Popular Bargain Store, 111 Central Street.

TRADE INCREASING EVERY WEEK. No wonder. Look at the Bargains we offer for Friday and Saturday—

25 doz Gent's Night Robes, made in first-class style of the best New England Cotton, 58 inches long, for 50 Cents Each, offered as a great bargain in other stores at 75c each.

22 doz Ladies' Night Robes, such as we have been selling at 59c each and you cannot buy the same class of goods elsewhere under $1.25. To make short work of the lot our price will be 50 Cents Each.

3 cases Ladies' Heavy Fleeced Jersey Ribbed Vests and Pants, only 25c each; also better grades 38 and 49c. each.

Ladies' All-Wool Scarlet and Camel Hair Vests and Pants, 75c each, worth $1.

A full line of Children's Merino and All wool Vests and Pants from 8c upwards.

Gent's Heavy Merino and Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers, 25, 38, 40, 45, and 49c each. Gent's All-Wool Scarlet Vests and Pants 49c each, worth 75c.

120 doz Ladies' Fast Black and Natural Wool Seamless Hose, advertised as a great bargain elsewhere at 19c.; our price 15 Cents a pair. 86 doz. Children's Fast Black Hose (double knee), 15c a pair; regular price 25c. a pair. Large Skein Best Scotch Yarn 20c. a skein. Best Spanish Yarn 15c a Skein. Best Saxony Yarn 9c. a Skein. Best Germantown Yarn 12 1-2c. a Skein. Special Bargains in stamped goods, Large Tidies, Tray Cloths, Splashers, 8c each. You can't buy the same class of goods in this city less than 10c. each, and lots of other Bargains at YOUNG'S, 111 Central Street.

TEETH

$5 TO $10 A SET.

To our patients who do not find it convenient to call during the day, please call at noontimes, or Saturday afternoons as our office is not open evenings. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

NO CHARGE FOR EXTRACTING.

Every Set warranted to be the same Teeth that other dentists ask $16 and $18 for, and every Set warranted to fit. Gold Fillings and Gold Crown work a specialty. Teeth Filled with Gold by Electricity. No Pain. Teeth extracted Without Pain by our new method. 30 years experience. DRS. J. K. BICKELL & SON, Painless Dentists, Rooms 24, 25, and 32 Runels' Building, Cor. Merrimack and Bridge Sts

A MAN WITH HALF AN IDEA OF WHAT IS THE CORRECT THING, WOULD SAY THAT OUR WALL PAPERS ARE SURELY THE BEST. - -

A. L. Kittredge & Co., 208 CENTRAL ST.

BARGAINS. BARGAINS

—IN—

H-O-S-I-E-R-Y.

BROWN ∴ BROTHERS,

OPP. MONUMENT SQUARE.

1 Case Ladies' Fast Black Hose, 10c, regular price 12½c a pair.

49 doz. Ladies' Balbriggan Fleeced Lined Hose, 10c, down town price 20c pair

63 doz. Ladies' Fancy Striped Hose, 10c, former price 15c a pair.

90 doz. Ladies' Black All-Wool Hose, 20c, worth 25c a pair.

59 doz Ladies' Natural Wool and Oxford Grey Hose, 25c, sold elsewhere for 33c

1 case Children's Fast Black Hose, 10c, a bargain at 15c a pair.

120 doz. Children's Fine Wool Hose, 20 and 25c a pair.

2 cases Gent's Cotton Hose, 10c, 3 pairs for 25c.

1 case Gent's Seamless Hose, 12½c, cheap at 15c.

150 Gent's Wool Hose, 15c a pair.

2 cases Gent's Blue and Gray Ribbed Hose, 25c, a bargain at 35c. Don't forget to stop here before going down town.

BROWN BROS., OPPOSITE MONUMENT SQUARE.

YOU ARE SURE

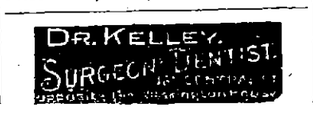

To have them during the next six weeks. We refer to the customary coughs and colds which always appear with the change from summer to fall weather. Taken in time they are easily shaken off, but if allowed to run may last all winter, and end with some serious complaint like consumption. Do you remember some of the marvelous cures performed by

Ellingwood's

Cough Balsam

Last winter? All we want now is to remind you of the best preparation in the world for coughs and colds, and later we shall publish testimonials from some of our well known and reliable citizens which must convince you of its value as a curer.

Price 25c., 50c., and $1 a Bottle.

THE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

OFFICE

22 Shattuck Street, Corner Middle.

SEWALL G. MACK, President; JACOB ROGERS Treasurer; D. B. BARTLETT, Clerk.

Directors: Sewall G. Mack, Levi Spaulding, Jacob Rogers, Alex. G. Cumnock, George S. Motley Edward M. Tucke, James Francis.

PRICE OF GAS,

With the Discount Off for Prompt Payment, is

$1.00 ONE THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Cooking Stoves set up and rented at a low rate per year, piping included. COKE, broken, screened and delivered at $4.50 per chaldron, $2.25 per half chaldron, cash.

No charge made for the use of meters.

No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar.

Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

E. R. DONOVAN, Office: 25 Gorham Street

Constable and Auctioneer.

ABOUT THE HOUSEHOLD LORE.

BEDSTEADS AND PILLOWSLIPS OF VARIOUS COLORS.

Some New Styles of Madras Muslin—Piano Decorations—Devilled Ham—Odd Picture Frames.

Renaissance lace spreads and round bolsters covered with the same are the bed trimmings most in vogue among the wealthy folk, but there are a host of simple things which are charming and have the merit of being available as well. Splendor may be desirable, but somehow it does not appeal to every one's sense of desirableness.

In a young girl's room, completed not long since, the spread is described in the New York Herald as of finest mull, dotted here and there with tiny rosebuds. It is finished with a full frill, and with it are used pillowslips of sheer linen lawn, embroidered with flowers, like those of the mull, and drawn over pale pink silk. The whole outfit costs very little money, but is simply delightful and has just that air of dainty perfection which belongs to the perfect bed.

Another attractive spread is of fine Madras muslin, cream colored, with a figure in warm reds and browns, and is also finished with a frill. The bolster is round, but not hard, and the spread, which is of extra length, is pulled up over it as well as the bed proper. The effect is most charming, and as the cover is only laid lightly over the whole the bed seems always invitingly ready for use.

Pure white is used by many women, and just now is urged by some authorities, but unless for summer or in the lightest colored rooms it seems cold and unsatisfactory. The old fashioned Marseilles or piqué cover is very far from desirable, and the lighter, daintier fabrics require such frequent change as to make them more costly than silk. White is only good when it is absolutely pure. Anything approaching a condition of soil entirely spoils its effect.

Devilled Ham.

Cut a thick slice of ham from the leaner part. Mild, slightly smoked ham is the best for this operation. Dip the slice in warm lard, so that every portion of the ham is covered. Dredge it with dry curry powder or black pepper. Broil over a clear fire, turning frequently and taking care not to cook too much. Serve with the following sauce poured over the ham: One teaspoonful of black pepper mixed with 2 of mustard flour. Melt an ounce of butter in a saucepan and work in the mustard. Dilute with 4 tablespoonfuls of clear stock or water; add a tablespoonful of minced gherkin or capers and a few drops of vinegar. Make this boiling hot. Add more vinegar if not acid enough. Pour the sauce on to a very hot meat dish. Lay the broil on it. None of the sauce must touch the upper surface of the broiled meat. Garnish with lemon rings and serve.

An Odd Picture Frame.

Although the following has a somewhat homely sound, Good Housekeeping says the effect will be novel and give the impression of a handsomely carved and very unique frame:

Take an old flat frame, or one nearly so, and cover it in all sorts of fantastic shapes with small oyster shells, rough side out, and then gild them about two coats. The shells should be washed thoroughly with a brush to get off all particles of dirt and two holes drilled in each. This last operation will require patience to avoid breaking. Still broken pieces will be necessary to fill in the odd chinks, as the whole should be covered. Large tacks or lath nails will hold them on firmly.

By varnishing the whole with copal varnish after gilding it can always be washed free from the dust which is bound to collect on any rough surface.

Piano Decoration.

In refurnishing a parlor it is oftimes a matter of difficulty to bring the old piano into harmony with the newer surroundings. A means suggested by The Decorator and Furnisher for conforming it to the changed conditions is to place the instrument with the back facing outward, in which case there develops numerous ways of treatment. A drapery may be arranged, as suggested in the illustration, and the angle formed by the piano and wall made to form a cozy corner, or a low three fold screen, with panels of silkaline, may be disposed against it. Very pleasing effects in this connection may be obtained by the use of growing or artificial plants of the palm variety.

A PIANO BACK ARRANGEMENT.

But when it is not possible to thus place the piano, and it is necessary to have it set in the usual manner, other methods of adornment will have to be devised. The top can be covered and the ends concealed by a drapery reaching to the floor. The space above the keyboard may be treated with a suitable textile fabric gathered on rods placed top and bottom and over this arranged in graceful folds a festoon drapery. This may be in one, two or three sections or may be a simple silken scarf artistically arranged from time to time.

Oyster and Celery Salad.

Chop sufficient oysters for the dish into dice and shred finely some good crisp celery. Now toss these two in some rich mayonnaise dressing and put it all in a glass dish. Mask it all thoroughly over with more mayonnaise and serve garnished with celery tufts. The secret of this salad is to have it made just as it is wanted, with materials that, though not iced, should yet be perfectly cold. This salad is also very good if lobster is used instead of the oysters.

Water Power Gun.

What is called a "water power machine gun" has been patented. It is described as having a number of circumferentially arranged barrels, in the rear of which is a fed wheel carrying a cartridge belt and operatively connected with a water wheel, in connection with mechanism for exploding the cartridges. There is little mechanism liable to get out of repair in the gun, which is designed to automatically fire a continuous stream of bullets. It may be operated by hand if the water supply fails.

How to Test Nutmegs.

Prick them with a pin, and if they are good the oil will instantly spread around the puncture.

A SOLDIER'S DOOM.

Bitten by a Mad Horse, It Was Only a Question of Time.

One day at the fort a sudden cry was raised that the major's horse had gone mad, but it was not until the wild eyed and foam flecked animal had been shot as he rushed back and forth across the parade ground that we learned he had bitten Corporal Wallace on the arm when he first gained his liberty. Some said the horse had been bitten by reptile or insect and was only frenzied with pain. Others dropped their voices to a whisper as they recalled the suspicious actions of a strange dog which had been fired upon and driven away a week or two before. The teeth of the horse had torn cloth and flesh and drawn blood. He had not bitten like a horse, but snapped like a dog.

"Pooh, man, no danger, no danger!" the surgeon had said as he dressed the wound.

"It's only a scratch, and we won't talk about it," the corporal made answer to all his comrades.

We had nothing more to say, except among ourselves, but from that hour every trooper in "C" company felt that Corporal Wallace was a doomed man, just as surely doomed as if a court martial had sentenced him to death and the president had refused to interfere with the findings. You will say it was curious that we avoided him. So it was, and yet we could not but feel that he was a dead man walking about among us. We heard him speak, we saw him in apparent good health, we listened to his songs and stories at night, and yet every man who heard and saw and listened kept repeating over and over to himself:

"The corporal was bitten by a mad horse, and sooner or later he will go mad and die."

The man sought to blind himself to the situation, but he could not. We had the feeling upon us, and we could not shake it off. Each morning we looked at him and wondered if the terrible virus would show itself before night. Each night we looked at him and wondered why he did not rush out on the broad plains in the darkness and try to run away from the specter. He was a big, brave hearted fellow, carrying the scars of half a dozen battles. He sang and whistled and was merry, and yet he did not deceive us. We knew the haunting fear and terrible thoughts which came to him at night when wrapped in his blanket and the barracks were quiet.

Days passed away, and yet men whispered when they spoke of Corporal Wallace. Weeks passed away, and yet men looked at him askance and still regarded him as walking in the shadow of death. April, May, June, and then the restless Indians broke away from the reservation, and the troops were sent out to find and drive them back. When "C" company was drawn up in line for departure, there was Corporal Wallace in his proper place. Why not? There was no bigger, healthier man in the troop, nor one whose saber or carbine could be depended on to do more execution. And yet we wondered that he should go, and there were murmurs of dissatisfaction as we rode away. He was a doomed man, a dead man sitting in the saddle as if he were one of us.

Days and nights of hard riding and hunger and thirst, and we turned the Indians back. It had been a week of wild haste and constant excitement, and the troopers were bruised and sore and exhausted as we made camp after an all day's ride. We had no fuel for fires and little to eat, but there was a grand spring at which man and beast quenched their thirst. The darkness was falling and we had huddled together when some one whispered that Corporal Wallace was sitting alone by himself. Then another drew us closer together and said he had seen the corporal kneel down to drink at the spring and start back as if he had caught sight of a serpent. We whispered and wondered and peered at him through the gloom, but no man approached him. By and by he arose, stood for a moment as if undecided and then walked with faltering step to the spring. When he reached it, he turned his head away and knelt down. Then he made as if he would drink, but sprang to his feet, with a cry of horror, and rushed away into the darkness.

"It has come! The corporal is mad!" was shouted through the camp, and for a moment confusion reigned supreme. Then there came a sudden silence, broken after a few seconds by the voice of our captain making a detail to secure the man and by the blood curdling yells of the corporal as he raced away into the black night with death keeping pace at his side.

Five, ten, twenty men pursued him within the hour. He ran here and there, dodged and turned, always escaping the hands which sought to clutch him, and again and again returning to the spring to quench the awful thirst upon him, but always shrieking at the sight of the water bubbling up. For more than an hour we pursued him as if he were some wild animal we sought to capture. Then at last he broke through our lines again, circled back to the spring, and with a cry of agony which was heard all over the camp he fell down and writhed and twisted about for a moment or two and died. He had been a doomed man for weeks and months. We bent over the body and saw the look of horror on the face growing pale, the hard shut teeth, the blood and froth on his lips, and we were glad that death had come at last. M. QUAD.

How Eagles Catch Sage Hens.

A gentleman who has cruised through the Powder river valley tells an interesting tale in regard to the manner in which the eagles contrive to catch sage hens. These birds, like the grouse family, fly with great swiftness, and in a stern chase an eagle is not in it at all with one of them. In order that the eagle may dine on sage hen some hard work is necessary, and the eagle has solved the problem.

As the gentleman was driving along the side of a mountain he started a covey of sage hens, which flew away down toward the valley. Suddenly an eagle, which had been sitting on the low ground, rose up under the birds, which immediately rose high in the air, while the eagle flopped up after them. When they had risen high enough, another eagle swooped down from above. The terrified birds scattered in all directions, but the eagle singled out one, and as an eagle on the swoop goes like a shot out of a gun he soon seized his bird, and the pair flew off to a neighboring cliff to dine.—Portland Oregonian.

There Were Two Kinds of Fish.

Mr. Broker says he has changed his restaurant down town, "so he can know what he's getting." His mind got uncertain about his old place after an experience he had last Friday. Friday is "fish day" at this place, and Mr. B. likes fish when it is "just right." So he cast his eye over the bill of fare and remarked: "Lizzie, how is the boiled codfish today? If it is good, you may bring me some; but, you mind, if it isn't good I don't want it. Do you see?"

Lizzie saw and departed, and then Mr. Broker says he heard her call down the shaft of the dumb waiter in the rear, "One boiled cod, please, off the new fish!"—New York Tribune.

The famous Da Vinci regarded painting as the least of his talents. He was a physician, a surgeon, an anatomist, a mathematician, a military and civil engineer, a goldsmith, a sculptor, a poet, an architect, a machinist and an inventor

SCIENTIFIC AND PROGRESSIVE.

SOME REMARKABLE PLANTS AND FLOWER GROWTHS.

Natural Curios in Various Parts of the World—How They Came About—A Type Writer for Bookkeepers.

A Canadian climber, the Physianthus albens, has received the name of "cruel plant" from its ill treatment of butterflies. It flowers in the month of August, and the butterflies, attracted by the perfume, hover round it in large numbers and push their trunks into the corollas to sip

THE CRUEL PLANT.

the honey. A pair of sensitive vegetable pinchers in the heart of the flower grips the delicate proboscis, and in spite of struggles to get free the butterfly hangs suspended until it dies. Apparently the plant has nothing to gain by the death of the insect, as it is not "carnivorous," like the Venus flytrap. In fact, if the butterfly were allowed to come and go, it would tend to foster the species by assisting cross fertilization. It appears, however, that the "cruel plant" came originally from Brazil, where the butterflies are much stronger and extricate their suckers from the trap. We may add that another Canadian plant, the Cnicus discolor, is charged with cruelty. The flower has a gland which secretes a viscous liquid capable of liming insects which are fond of it. Moreover, they seem to be stupefied and poisoned by it, and no reason can as yet be assigned for the deadly consequence.

A remarkable tree growth described and illustrated, as is the foregoing, by Cassell's Magazine, exists in an arch between a private park and a public road at Middleboro, Mass. It is formed of three trunks, which coalesce, and a fourth has been added for symmetry by the owner of the park, but whether the trunks are independent trees or have sprung from one root has not been ascertained. Such a curio from the hand of nature is certainly more interesting than an artificial entrance.

Another curious tree growth reported consists of two beeches, over a foot in diameter and 20 feet apart, joined like the Siamese twins by a nearly horizontal branch, which appears to have grown out of one trunk and united itself with the other in such a way that it is impossible to tell from which tree it sprang. This bond is 18 feet from the ground, and near its middle a smaller limb springs almost vertically downward toward the ground.

A LIVING ARCH.

A Typewriter For Bookkeepers.

Since the introduction of typewriting machines and their acceptance by the business world it has been the aim of inventors to produce a typewriter capable of use on books and of record and on insurance policies and other large documents of varying sizes. According to the New York Sun, this is now accomplished in a machine which will receive a book of any required width or thickness, will write a line long or short and is so devised that the distance between lines may be scaled to suit the amount of space at hand. A noticeable feature also is the ribbon attachment for writing with ink of any desired color. The removal of a black ribbon, for instance, and the substitution of a red, purple or green ribbon is accomplished with both ease and celerity.

Where several copies of a manuscript are desired there is an arrangement by which the last copy of a dozen or 15 comes out as plain as the first. Finally this book writing machine includes in its scope of utility the work done by all other typewriters in general and a single sheet of note paper seems quite as much at home between its rollers as a double entry ledger.

An Indestructible Lamp Wick.

This wick, made entirely of clay, is rendered capillary by incorporating with the clay, while it is in a plaster state, filaments of unspun vegetable fiber, which are burned out in the process of baking. The burning out of the vegetable fiber leaves capillary tubes running longitudinally through the wick, through which the oil from the lamp will be raised to the flame by capillary attraction. Owing to the perfect combustion of the wick the flame is perfectly white in character, devoid of odor and smokeless. It is claimed that an indestructible wick is thus provided which possesses all the advantageous qualities of an ordinary cotton or fiber wick, and, in addition, lasts an indefinite time without renewal or necessity of trimming or care.

The Light of the Sun.

The light of the sun, according to Mr. Tesla, is the result of vibrations in 94,000,000 miles of ether, which separate us from the center of this solar system. "It is difficult for me," he said, "to give you an idea that you will readily grasp about this question of vibration. In ordinary life our minds do not deal with the figures that come up in such investigations, but take a 5 and put after it 14 zeroes, then you will have the number of vibrations which occur in the ether every second, and which produce light." To duplicate sunlight by producing this number of vibrations here on earth by means of suitable apparatus is one of the problems which, according to an exchange, now engage Tesla's attention.

His Natural Disadvantages.

Rankin—Your trousers always bag at the knees. Why don't you keep them creased, as I do?

Fyle—Because it wouldn't do any good. My shin bone won't fit into a crease, and yours will.—Chicago Tribune.

WM. F. COURTNEY, 13 and 14 Mansur Block
Attorney at Law.

FROM OUR 5 O'CLOCK EDITION

Of Yesterday.

FROM THE WIRE.

An insane asylum at Joenketting, Sweden, was burned and 15 lives lost.

An attempt was made to wreck the Boston & Chicago express near Buffalo last night.

The czar's death is expected tonight.

Sugar for the Millions,
By Associated Press to THE SUN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30—The British steamer Longship from the East Indies which arrived today had 12,000,000 pounds of sugar on board.

A SILVER EVENT.

Twenty-five Years Married—A Tewksbury Couple is the Recipient of Silver Favors.

The 25th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lee of Tewksbury Centre occurred Monday evening, and was observed by a silver wedding, at which a large gathering of friends were present.

The house and piazza were prettily decorated by Florist Tingley and a collation was served by the Page company.

Dr. J. M. Greene made a pleasant address, and a poem written by Mrs. J. M. Flemings was read by Miss Edith Forrestall. The ushers were Messrs. Fred Lee, Forest, Thompson and Palmer.

FOR WORTHY END.

Successful Opening of the Sale for the Home of Young Women and Children.

The annual sale in aid of the Ayer home opened yesterday at the home, and notwithstanding the stormy weather the attendance was very gratifying to the management.

Tables were arranged and laden with articles which were offered for sale and found ready purchasers.

Mrs. H. G. Cushing had the management of the kitchen, and supper was served under the direction of Mrs. H. R. Rice and E. W. Lovejoy.

The fair will be continued this afternoon and evening.

Wake Up the M. M. A.

A special meeting of the M. M. A. held last night, acted upon changes in the by laws, which were adopted with slight changes. The following new members were elected: W. H. Emery, J. C. Johnson, W. R. Means, H. E. Green, F. W. Way, James Crompton, R. M. Boutwell, W. S. Marshall, Frank W. Howe, T. E. Parker, Frank E. Baker, William E. Hall, George R. Chandler and Charles F. Edwards.

There was a lively discussion on how to wake up the sleepy body and made the M. M. A. more useful.

This Man Was Insane.

Patrick Bradley, or Bartley, who jumped into the Boott canal, yesterday, was probably out of his head from despondency. His brother came here from New Bedford last night and arranged to ship the body to that city which was done this morning. It appears that the deceased had $550 in the bank here.

Robbed by a Snatch Thief

Mrs. Susan G. Baron, an estimable lady, 67 years of age while passing along School street near Lawson, Monday night was set upon by two thugs who assaulted her and stole her small handbag. Fortunately her pocket book was in her dress pocket.

An Engagement Broken.

The town of Exeter is excited over the breaking of an engagement between Wm. P. Chadwick, a prominent citizen and a relative of the Chadwicks in Lowell, and Miss Mae Barnard, a young woman of high standing. No reason is given out.

Ladies Present From Abroad.

The annual invitation meeting and dinner of the woman's alliance of the First Unitarian church was held yesterday and many ladies were present from out of town.

This is Anniversary Night.

The second anniversary ball of Court Columbus, A. O. F. of A., will be held in Foresters' hall, this evening, and will be complimentary to members and friends.

Verdict for Sheriff Stiles.

Up at high court this morning the jury in the case of Hartford vs Deputy Sheriff Stiles returned a verdict for the defendant.

The Fire on Auburn Street.

The alarm for box 16 this noon was for a small blaze in Hill's block on Auburn street.

Cut Me Out

Cut out this advertisement, and send it to the makers of

IVORINE Washing Powder

with your address and 14c. in stamps, and by return mail you'll receive their beautiful

WASHINGTON SOUVENIR SPOON.

Address, THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Ct., PREMIUM DEPARTMENT.

We warrant these spoons made of the best German silver, extra plated with pure silver, oxidized handles, gold lined bowls.

NOTRE DAME ACADEMY,
LOWELL, MASS.
Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies
ESTABLISHED 1852. --- CHARTERED 1865.
This school continues the careful training and thorough instruction in every department for which it has hitherto been so favorably known. For particulars address: The Superior.

M. W. MILLER
House and Fresco Painter and Paper Hanger,
55 WILLIE STREET.
Wall papers supplied at wholesale rates. Get my prices before going elsewhere.

EDWARD CAWLEY, Office, 131 Central Street.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Coal of all kinds. Also dealer in Wood, Lime, and Cement. Agent for the celebrated Portland drain and sewer pipe. Elevator, Rogers-Street Bridge.

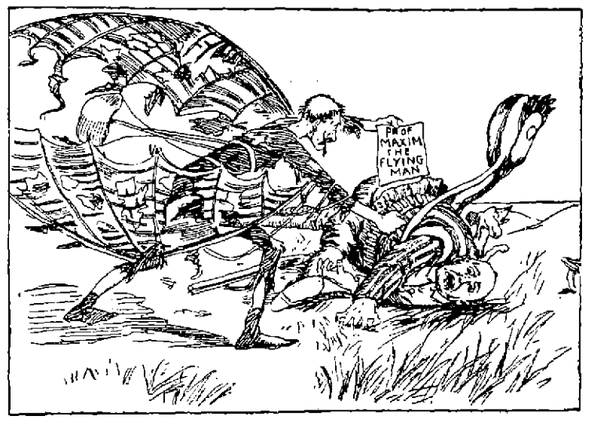

DR. WALKER DENTIST

I.

II.

III.

Boston and Maine Railroad.

Winter Arrangement.

WESTERN DIVISION

Commencing Sept. 30, 1894.

TRAINS LEAVE CENTRAL STREET DEPOT, LOWELL.

For Boston, at 6.50, 8.15, 9.30, 10.50 a. m.; 12.05 12.45, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 4.15, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.

For Lawrence, 8.30, 9.30, 10.50, a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p.m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.

For Haverhill, 8.30, 9.30 a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30, (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.

For Salem and Lynn, 12.05, 5.10 p. m.

For Newburyport and Amesbury, 12.05, 2.30, 4.10, 6.15 p. m.

For Exeter, and Dover, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p.m.

For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m.

For Somersworth, N. H., Salmon Falls Saco and Portland 8.30 a.m.; 12.05, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p.m.

For Augusta, Bath, Lewiston, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.

For Bangor, Belfast, Waterville, Skowhegan, Rockland, 8.30 a. m., 12.05, 5.10 p.m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.

For St. John N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal, and Quebec, 8.30 a. m., 5.10 p. m. (5.10 does not run Saturdays): SUNDAY, 5.35 p. m.

For Eastport and St. John's (per steamer), on Mondays and Fridays at 12.05 p. m.

For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgwick and Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones at Rockland), Tuesdays and Fridays at 5.10 p. m.

Southern Division.

On and After Sept. 30, 1894, Trains Leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as Follows:—

For Boston—5.45, 6.30, §6.50, *7.45, §8.50, §9.00, §9.40, 11.00 a. m.; 1.40, §3.00, 4.30, §5.40, p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.

Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:

For Boston.—5.48, 6.36, §6.53, §7.01, §7.18, §7.27, *7.45, §8.37, 9.03, §9.50, 11.03, 12.09a. m., 1.43, §3.03, 4.02, 4.33, *5.21, §5.43, *6.28, 11.52 p. m. SUNDAYS, *7.15, 7.27, §8.05, §9.16 a. m.; §4.25, §6.03 p. m.

For Woburn, §7.01, 7.45, 11.00 a.m.; 1.40, 4.30, §5.40 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m., §4.25, 6.03 p.m.

*Express. §Northern Depot only. †Via Bedford.

For Lawrence — 6.30, 10.00, 2.10, 4.15, 5.50 p. m.

For Salem and Way Stations—§7.38 a. m.; 1.25, 5.50 p. m.

☞Time below is from Middlesex street station.

For Ayer Junction and Way Stations—7.15 a. m.; 12.05, 5.00 and 5.47 p. m. SUNDAYS 2.15 p. m.

For Amherst, Milford and Wilton—9.14 a. m.; 1.50, 3.43, 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS 2 p. m.

For Greenfield, Peterboro', Bennington, Hillsboro' and Keene—9.14 a. m. and 3.43 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Greenfield, Antrim, Bennington and Hillsboro', 4.30 p. m.

For Nashua, Manchester and Concord 7.57 9.14 (Nashua only), 9.45, a.m.; 12.11, 1.50., 3.43, 5.42, 6.21, 8.13, 8.43 p.m. SUNDAYS 10.09, a.m. (to Nashua only), 3 a.m., 2.00, 6.00 8.15, 8.43 p. m.

For Penacook, Franklin, Lebanon and White River Junction—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, 5.42, §8 13 p. m.

For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport, (N. H.), Claremont and Claremont Junction—1.50 p. m.

For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville via Wells River—9.45 a.m.; 8.43, p.m.

For Montpelier, Montreal, Essex Junction, Burlington and St. Albans, via Central Vermont line—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, *8.13 p. m.

For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line—9.45 a. m.; 8.43 p. m.

Quebec Express via White River Junction—8.13, p. m., daily except Sunday.

☞§Daily for Montreal.

D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Passenger and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT Gen. Ag't. Lowell.

LOTHROP & CUNNINGHAM, 182 Merrimack Street,
Photographers,
Crayons, Pastels and Water Colors a specialty. All work Guaranteed.

Lowell Opera House

Saturday Matinee and Evening November 3d.

Bertram's & Willard's New and Original Realistic American Comedy Drama

THE ENGINEER.

under the direction of Johnson and Chapman.

A Great Kaleidoscope of Humane Nature.

SEE The Plumberville Band. The Fourth of July Celebration. The Great Engine Scene.

Prices, Matinee, 75, 50, 35, 25c. Evening $1, 75, 50, 25c. Seats on sale Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Monday, November 5th.

WALTER LAWRENCE
AND
Miss ENGEL SUMNER
Supported by a good company in AIDEN BENEDICT'S
FABIO ROMANI.
LIVING PICTURES

By the greatest ancient and modern masters the latest craze of London and New York, and the FAMOUS

Stereoptican and Spanish Dances
—BY—
MISS GRACE HUNTER.
Regular prices. Seats on sale Friday.

Music Hall,

One Week, Commencing Monday, Oct. 29

R. E. DAVEY'S Realistic Melo-Dramatic Success

Enemies For Life.

By Chas. H. Flemming.

Presented by a Powerful Caste, including the Beautiful and Accomplished Actress,

Miss Joan Craven.

Notable features of this grand production: Realistic Storm Effect, Revolving Prison, Rescue in Mid-Ocean, Gypsy Camp Scene, with Beautiful Waterfall. Destruction of Camp by Lightning. Powerful Glimaxes. Refined Singing and Dancing Specialties presented by a coterie of artists. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30.

JOHN W. McEVOY,
187 Central St., Opp. American House
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

FRANCIS W. QUA, No. 3 Barristers' Hall,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

J. M. KINGSBURY, No. 373 Bridge Street,
Meats and Provisions.
(Successor to Stront & Kingsbury.)

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD, Nos. 333 to 345 Central St
Fine Carriages, Sleighs, etc.,
Repairing at Reasonable Rates.

Stained and Varnished interiors will soon be a thing of the past.

The latest style is to use

B. & K.

CLEAR TONED

INTERIOR PAINTS

The delicate party colors of which harmonize with the newest shades of wall papers.

They dry with flat finish and can be cleaned with soap and water.

SOLD ONLY AT

C. B. Coburn & Co.'s

63-71 Market Street.

HEATING STOVES

$5.00,
$7.00,
$12.00,
To $33.00.

ROBERTSON & CO.

100 CENTRAL STREET.

WE HAVE

About One Hundred Second Hand

Parlor Stoves and Ranges

Some as Good as New,

FOR SALE

Cheap For Cash or Weekly Payments.

Did You Know That we have a large building in rear of our Merrimack St. store filled with second-hand Chamber Sets, Bedsteads, Bureaus, Carpets, etc., etc., some as good as new, and at half the price of new.

A. E. O'HEIR & CO.,

AUCTIONEERS.

Nos. 14, 16, 18 Merrimack Street.

(Opposite Post Office.)

☞As Good as Any of Them.
☞Better Than Most of Them.
☞Charge Less Than Any of Them.

$40.00 PER WEEK FOR WILLING WORKERS

Either sex, any age, in any part of the country, in the employment which we furnish. You need not be away from home over night. You can give your whole time to the work, or only your spare moments. As capital is not required you run no risk. We supply you with all that is needed. It will cost you nothing to try the business. Any one can do the work. Beginners make money from the start. Failure is unknown with our workers. Every hour you labor you can easily make a dollar and one who is willing to work fails to make more money every day than can be made in three days at any ordinary employment. Send for free book containing the fullest information.

H. HALLETT & CO.,
Box 880,
PORTLAND, MAINE.

A NICE OFFICE, suitable for doctor or dentist, to let in THE SUN building. Rent very low.

WANT COLUMN

☞Advertisements inserted under this head for ONE CENT A WORD, first insertion; subsequent insertions HALF PRICE.

TENEMENTS TO LET

TO LET—Good, pleasant, convenient tenements of 2, 3, 4, 5 rooms, at 79 Chestnut St.

TO LET—A pleasant office in THE SUN building. Inquire at SUN office.

FOR SALE.—Sound young ferrets, $3 each; new stock, 15 months old. Brocher's, 8 Chestnut street.

FOR SALE.—In Centralville, cottage house of 7 rooms, near Bridge street. Price $1200, and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Capable men to represent our nurseries. Write Ellwanger & Barry, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Agents to take orders by sample at home or travel, expenses and good salary or commission to right party. Samples sent on application. Address with stamp Lock Box 420, New York city.

$900 AND EXPENSES PAID competent men first year, or large commission, selling by sample, staple goods to merchants. No peddling. Experience unnecessary. For sealed particulars send stamp. Household Specialty Co., 73 4th street., Cincinnati, O.

FOR SALE—Farm of 26 acres with stock, crops and tools, near village and depot, 7 miles from Lowell, nearly new building: cuts 12 tons of hay, 1½ acres wood land, 3 cows, 1 horse, 2 wagons, 175 fowls and all the farming tools that go with a farm. Price $2600; easy terms. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street, Lowell.

FOR SALE.—A bargain in a boarding house, 150 boarders, 30 roomers. This is a good chance if you want a boarding house. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Ladies to apply or address Room 5, 64 Central street, Lowell and find out how to make money easy.

CHILDREN'S SHOES soled and heeled 25c at Cunningham's, Bridge street, Merrimack square, and Palmer street.

FOR SALE—cottage of 6 rooms and pantry near Salem street, sewer connections, good lot of land, price $1800. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—In Canaan, N. H., farms of all kinds and all prices, from 5 acres to 500 acres, and prices from $200 to $2500. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street, Courier building.

GET YOUR SUMMER CLOTHES cleansed at the Merrimack Steam Dyeing and Cleansing house. Clothing dyed, cleansed and repaired at short notice, 477 Merrimack street, E. P. Lew, proprietor.

$75.00 PER MONTH easily earned without financial risk by reliable agents with team, at reselling our teas, coffees, standard extracts, baking powder, spices etc., etc., packed in imported tea pots, ruby, crystal, enamelled and engraved agate and glassware, etc., of extensive varieties and value. Address for illustrated circular, terms, etc., to wholesale house, N. E. Distributing Co., 78 Broad street, Boston.

FOR SALE.—In Belvidere, two-story two-tenement house, large lot of land. This place can be bought at a bargain; it is near Alder street. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A fruit, confectionery, tobacco and cigar store on one of the principal streets in this city. Excellent location, doing a large business. Best of reasons for selling. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FURNISHED AND UNFURNISHED—Rooms to let at 40 Bridge street.

FOR SALE.—In Ward 5, new cottage house of 7 rooms, large lot of land. Price $1250. $50 down, balance in rent. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A nice cottage house of 7 rooms and shed all in best of condition, gas, cemented cellar, sewer connections, concrete walks, good lot of land room for stable, situated in one of the best locations in the Highlands. Few steps from Coral street—Price $2,00. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—Small farm of 8 acres, good buildings and near Lowell. Price $800. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A 10-acre farm only 2 miles from this city, near school, in an excellent neighborhood, 5 acres of heavy woodland timber, cut 2 tons hay. Good cottage of 6 rooms and pantry; house in best of repair; shed connected with all. Fine farm, a large bargain. A fine place and cheap at price, $2000. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

VARIETY STORES use old papers for wrapping purposes. We sell them at this office for 6 cents a hundred.

FOR SALE.—A small farm seven miles from Lowell, one-half mile from the depot, near the school, one acre of blackberries, one quarter of an acre of strawberries, seventy-five apple trees, twenty pear trees, one and a half acres with three acres of planted. Rare bargain. For further particulars see C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street. Come quick or you will lose this chance.—200 acres of a farm, with a 20 room house; would make a fine summer boarding house. Cuts 50 tons of hay, plenty of fruit, one and a half miles from the depot, and ($1250) eleven hundred and fifty dollars will capture this place. Inquire of C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street.

Nudd The Engraver,
DOES WORK FOR
All the Leading Jewelers.
Nothing but Artistic Work Done at NUDD'S, 64 Central St., Room 5.

F. L. RICHARDSON,
Real Estate and Business Broker,
—AT—
56 CENTRAL STREET.

BOARDING HOUSES in all parts of the city. Prices from $250 to $1200.

MILK ROUTE, 20 cans, fine teams. Price $650.

HOUSE TO LET in Middlesex Village for $13.

TWELVE SMALL STORES, some cigar and tobacco, others variety, grocery, and some great bargains. Before you buy call at 56 CENTRAL STREET and see our list.

DANCING AND DEPORTMENT.

Monday evening, private class.
Tuesday evening, hall for rent.
Wednesday evening, advanced class and reception 7.30 to 11.
Wednesday afternoon, ladies class 3 to 5.
Thursday evening, advanced class (season tickets only) 8 to 10.30.
Friday evening, beginners class 7.45 to 10.
Friday afternoon, young people (advanced).
Saturday afternoon, children beginners 2 to 2.30.
Saturday afternoon, children advanced 3.30 to 5.
Saturday evening, intermediates 7.45 to 10.30.
Private lessons at any time not occupied by classes. Pupils received at any time. Office open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., every day.
Pianist, Mrs. Mary Darling; violinist, Emil Lavigueur; Mr. and Mr. Charles A. Lester, assistants; principal, D. C. Lester, G. M. D., 36 Prescott street. Take elevator.

Lowell Heating and Plumbing Co.
828-836 MIDDLESEX STREET.
Steam Heating, Hot Water Heating, Plumbing and Repairs.
Copper work of every description. First class work. Best material.

DR. BRETON

The eminent Specialist, will be glad to see all his former patrons and any who desire his services at

44 Central Street.

Office Hours—1 to 8 p. m. Sundays and Holidays by appointment only.

What would Lowell be without the spindle? The city is known the world over as "The Spindle City."

The Spindle Cigar, etc., is made by HENRY FLOOD; best smoke!

SUN WEATHER BULLETIN.

ALMANAC FOR THURSDAY, NOV. 1.
SUN RISES.... 6.18 | MOON SETS... 6.58 PM
SUN SETS.... 4.38 | FULL SEA.... 1.40 AM
LENGTH OF DAY 10.20 | 1.45 PM

For Maine and New Hampshire: Showers, followed by fair weather in southern portion; high winds shifting to westerly; colder.

For Vermont: Showers, followed by fair weather and cooler westerly winds.

For Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Generally fair, with colder westerly winds.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. D[illegible] to Miss Delia Renaud, Nov. 12.

Walter [illegible] has been elected president of the [illegible] Improvement association of [illegible] Center.

The [illegible] drug store for years run by [illegible] & Co., has been sold to Leroy M. Turner, who for a long time has been associated with Goodale & Co.

At the eighth annual convention of the Union [illegible] held at Worcester, Tuesday, [illegible] invited the union to hold its next convention in Lowell and the invitation was accepted.

Fred O'[illegible], [illegible] and arrested in this city, and afterwards arrested in Cambridge for forging physicians' orders for drugs [illegible], was sent to the house of correction for six months, Monday.

The regimental staff of Col. Lambert of the [illegible] Lincoln, adjutant; [illegible] quartermaster [illegible] sergeant major, Swan; color sergeants, [illegible] and Libby; drum sergeant, [illegible].

The [illegible] Mandolin and Guitar club [illegible] Mrs. W. [illegible] Stratton, mandolin; Miss [illegible] mandolin; Mr. Arthur [illegible] Mr. A. S. Prescott, [illegible] Mr. W. P. Hovey, guitar; Mr. W. [illegible] guitar; Miss Lena Fletcher, [illegible].

Lecture by T. D. Sullivan, M. P., at Huntington hall, postponed from this evening till later in November.

[illegible] Ball Game Saturday.

[illegible] team will play the [illegible] foot ball on the [illegible] grounds, Saturday.

Gifts to an Institute.

The [illegible] Temperance institute of [illegible] received a gift of $50 from Misses [illegible] and Abbie Faulkner, former residents of North Billerica.

Will Be Heard for Murder.

Before Judge Blodgett at Cambridge this afternoon, Patrick Foley, Patrick Sullivan and Cornelius Nagle were brought up for a hearing on the Duroy Foster murder case.

Will be Welcome Here.

Herr Fitz [illegible], brother of Prof. E. J. [illegible] is in New York after finishing his musical education at the Frankfort Conservatory of Music. He will come to Lowell and may play the 'cello at the recital of the Orchestral society.

Lowell Man in Trouble.

William [illegible] of Lowell was arraigned in the Lawrence police court yesterday charged with drunkenness and larceny of a coat and vest from a "dummy" in front of [illegible] store on Essex street. He got [illegible] days for drunkenness and 5 months for larceny.

The Winners at Whist.

The whist [illegible] at the Highland club [illegible] ladies was a [illegible] affair of [illegible] hours in length with 15 tables. Mr. and Mrs. Abel Wheeler were winners of a silver salver and cut glass [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jones [illegible] a silver olive fork and [illegible].

The Acmes Won Again.

The A[illegible] defeated the Raleighs' on the [illegible] alleys last evening, by the following score:

Acmes—[illegible] 458, Monson 458, Carney [illegible], Hatton 351, Parson 447; total 2[illegible].

Raleighs—[illegible] 432, Belfer 351, Colburn [illegible], Stevens [illegible], total 2045.

An Excellent Scottish Concert.

The [illegible] family gave an exceptionally fine [illegible] Odd Fellows' hall last evening [illegible] of the C[illegible] in charitable [illegible] Scotch selections on the program and the greatest applause [illegible] in the High and [illegible] and Minnie Geddies [illegible].

At the conclusion of the concert the members of the club and their friends adjourned to [illegible] rooms on Middle street where supper was served and vocal and instrumental music enjoyed.

Farewell to Rev. Mr. Davis.

The farewell reception to Rev. A. Q. Davis and his wife by the parishioners of the House of Prayer, was held in the church [illegible] evening.

[illegible] entertainment was followed by a supper which all enjoyed.

Last week Mr. Davis was presented several beautiful oil paintings, an elegant [illegible] and [illegible] a purse of money. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will go from here to Quincy and afterwards to New York.

PRIZES WON.

Two Suburbs of Lowell Capture Honorable Mention and the Station Agents Money.

The B. & M. railroad each year awards prizes to the agents maintaining the best appearing grounds around the stations. The award has been eagerly awaited. It was made yesterday and Cliftondale got $50 in the first class.

Billerica, and Main street, Billerica, in the fourth class, each get $15; Tewksbury, west depot, in the sixth class, gets $5.

TWO YEARS OLD

And the Anniversary Was Well Observed by a Complimentary Ball.

Court Columbus, A.O.F., passed the second milestone in its existence yesterday, and the event was appropriately observed in Foresters' hall last evening.

Five hundred tickets to a complimentary ball were issued, and the hall was crowded during the evening, the young people being greatly in the majority. The Manhattan orchestra occupied seats on the platform and dispensed sweet and lively tunes for the merry dancers.

The order contained twenty numbers and it seemed as though all the dancers remained to see it out.

Joseph [illegible] was general manager, James A. McCusker, assistant; Alderic [illegible], floor director; Louis P. Turcotte, assistant.

There was a corps of ten aids and a reception committee, with Wm. J. Savage, chairman; James Madden, secretary; and Byron McFadden, secretary. Chief Ranger Bourbonniere had general charge.

[illegible] DENTIST 81 MERK ST.

A delicious smoke—Old Hundred cigar.

Wall paper at 18 Church street.

T. C. Lee, Fire Insurance, Donovan Bl'dg.

E. A. Wilson, coal dealer, is selling coal at lowest cash prices; call at 51 Merrimack street.

Patten & Co. have the finest potted and cut flowers in the city, Shedd's block, Central street.

William J. Heeland, tonsorial artist, room 1, Mansur block. Hair cutting up to date. Shaving best in the city.

A true, life-like photo is something everybody admires. Marion makes that kind. Visit his studio in Barristers' hall and have a sitting made.

McElroy' Orchestra

Commences a series of socials at Highland hall commencing Saturday, Nov. 3.

Coal Only Five Dollars a Ton.

Just the thing for a kitchen stove. Our No. 2 chestnut pleases them all. Order now.

D. W. HORNE & SON.
15 Central street.

Now Congratulate Them.

The engagement is announced of Miss Belle P. Miller to Henry C. Speed, both of this city.

The announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. James Grant Hill to Miss Flora M. Lewis, who sings in the choir of the Fifth Street Baptist church.

Played Old Time Games.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Highland Congregational church held a Halloween social in the vestry last evening. The old time games of "ducking for apples" "blowing soap bubbles" etc., were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served and Miss Irene Osgood dispensed Halloween lemonade. The social committee arranged the entertainment.

'TWAS HOLLOWE'EN.

Young America Cut up Shines in all Parts of the City.

Young America was in its glory last night and never before was Holloween more thoroughly observed in the residential districts. All over the city come tales of pranks of youngsters, but in Centralville the liveliest time occurred. By ten o'clock Officer John Fox had confiscated about 50 bean blowers, while he had been sprinting all evening to catch up with gates which seemed to be running away. The mix up of gates and blinds was something surprising. One house on Reed street lost all the blinds on the street floor.

Up in Ward Five around Mt. Washington and Varney streets the boys appeared to be having a good time.

A CLEVER AD.

How an Enterprising Firm Advertises a Remedy—It Puts a Frog Pond in the Store Window.

The reason why so many people stop in front of Ellingwood's store in Merrimack square is to admire the picturesque scene in the window. In miniature a patch of country is there presented, a mountain rill, its waters purling over boulders until it forms a pond which winds in and out among the rocks and knolls. The water is spanned by little bridges, while the clear waters reflect the mossy bank and fringe of hemlock, spruce and balsam trees. The novel window show is to call attention to the firm's lozenge "Frog in the throat," a remedy for irritated throats. It also brings prominently before the public eye several other excellent remedies of the firm. The work was done by George E. Hull who has received much congratulation for his skill as a landscape gardener and civil engineer.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

One in a Church Vestry and Another by a Secret Society.

The A. C. F. of the Paige street Baptist church, gave one of their delightful entertainments in the church vestry, last evening. Supper wes served during the early part of the evening. The children of the A. C. F. presented to Mrs. Fletcher an hand painted placque;

The sales tables were arranged around the vestry, and were in charge of a corps of young ladies.

The entertainment was fully appreciated by the large audience. The numbers were as follows: piano and harmonica selections by Gertie Dunlap, Sewell and Enos Campbell; recitation, Bertha Bond; solos, Edith and Roy Greenleaf; girls' flower drill, participated in by Lizzie Jewett, Edna McMonagle, Bernice Jones, Glenna Housan, Mabel Allen, Grace Hatch, Mamie McNiel; sword drill by boys in sailor costume, Roy Greenleaf, Ernest Munn, Leon Brown, Fred Norton, Lee Emerson and Arthr Rawson.

The Rathbone sisters held a delightful entertainment and fair in Pythian hall, last evening. Sales tables were arranged around the hall and were very liberally patronized.

The entertainment program included the following numbers: Piano solos, Miss Lizzie Noonan; readings, Mrs. Belle Harrington Hall; cornet solos, Gertrude Pratt; vocal solos, Jennie Burns, Howard Galloupe, Mrs. Elizabeth Morrissey and Nellie Studley.

The following committee had charge of the entertainment: Mrs. Charles Glidden, Miss Stella Stewart, Miss Ella Lockhart, Miss Cora Stiles, Mrs. Benjamin McLane, Mrs. Frank Tinker, Mrs. M. E. Tinker, Mrs. Dexter, Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Young, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Potter.

Friends of Mercier.

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 1.—The Musical and Literary club of this city, an organization composed of the representative French-Canadian citizens of Lewiston, held a meeting last evening to take action upon the death of ex-Premier Mercier. Delegates were appointed to attend the funeral. A committee on resolutions were instructed to condemn the editorials in an evening paper against Mercier.

Evening Things Up.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The discriminating stumpage dues upon spruce logs cut in the province of Quebec and exported to the United States have been removed by the Dominion government. This action will enable Canadians to get the benefits of the free lumber provisions of the new tariff law.

Politics Don't Trouble Them.

The following intentions were recorded at the city clerk's office yesterday:

James Brennan 30, to Ellen Hurliher 30.
William J. Heeland 23, to Jeannette G. Elvin 22.
Armin Fuddin 26, to Lila M. Hope 26.
George W. Chase 21, to Margaret E. Valo (nee Ambler) 28.

Louis Alexander,

Importer and tailor, 65 Central street, is a first class practical cutter of long experience in fine New York houses. Is up with the times and guarantees satisfaction. Fall importations now ready.

We Feel First Rate

about our pure teas and coffees, because it is no trouble to sell the goods. We have only to get a customer to try a pound once, and when they call again, name the price and it is gone. Dickson Brothers, 68 Merrimack street.

Money loaned on endorsed notes, personal securities and second mortgages on real estate by J. B. Swift, 9 Barristers hall. Telephone 405-4.

DISASTROUS FIRE

Big Shoe Factory and Car Shops Burned.

NEIGHBORING CITIES RENDERED PROMPT ASSISTANCE.

Many Hundred Men Will be Forced Into Idleness.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Nov. 1.—The most serious fire in 15 years was experienced here yesterday. The Newburyport Car company's works, the Burley & Stevens boot and shoe factory and John P. Leary's dwelling were destroyed, while the Eagle House was so badly burned that the building is little better than a charred shell. Several other places were scorched.

The direct loss is estimated in round numbers at $200,000. Beyond this, there will be the loss of wages to several hundred employes, who, at the best, will be idle for some weeks.

The location of the fire is on the north side of Merrimac street, with the Merrimac river and its wharves in close proximity to the back of the buildings swept away by the flames.

The cause was the explosion of an oil stove used for heating purposes in the car company's office. The explosion occurred during the brief absence of Charles Brown, who was there alone. Returning to the office, he found the Floor and Woodwork Blazing Fiercely.

He gave a moment to attempt to check the spread, but, seeing it was useless, the alarm was given.

Everything about the works was favorable for a quick fire, and almost before it was realized a great wave of flame enveloped the entire shop. This building was known as the "setting-up" one, the cars being put together there. To the east was the wood-working shop; that was speedily ignited. The Burley & Stevens factory on the other side was also on fire.

Two more alarms were turned in, and help asked for from Salem, Portsmouth, N. H., and Haverhill. An engine and corps of 40 men from Salem were the first to arrive, they having a stream on in 55 minutes from the time the call was sent them. Portsmouth sent an engine and 30 men and Haverhill an engine and 30 men.

Newburyport has but three engines, but they did splendid work. Valuable assistance was rendered by the tug Uhler, recently fitted with a pump for fire use, and when the three out-of-town companies added their strength the fighting force began to make itself felt.

The Scarcity of Water

was felt badly. The city supply gave out at the outset almost, and the engine companies had to fall back on the old reservoir and river.

At the beginning the Burley & Stevens factory pump was started, and poured out a terrific volume of water, holding the fire fairly in check. But the well in connection was dry in eight minutes, and, with no way to reach the river, nothing more could be done.

The car shops burned were two-story and covered about 3000 square feet. Before the outside engines could reach the scene, the Burley & Stevens building was one furious blaze. It was over 300 feet long, about 50 wide and seven stories high. The spectacle was a grand one.

The Heat Was Intense,

the firemen having to use doors as screens in order to get anywhere near. A number of men were temporarily prostrated by smoke and heat.

Over 250 people were at work in the Burley & Stevens factory, but all got out of the building in safety.

Among the incidents of the fire was the fall of Pipeman James Delano from a ladder, breaking his collar bone. Herbert Currier had one hand badly cut by falling glass at the Eagle House. Captain Knight was severely burned in the face by flying sparks.

Burley & Stevens estimate their loss at fully $175,000; that far exceeds the insurance. Considerable new machinery and stock had recently been put in that was not insured. The company manufactured boots and shoes for both men and women.

Flotsam and Jetsam.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Nov. 1.—Captain Fisher of High Head Lifesaving station reports that within the past two days an immense quantity of wreckage, portions of a vessel's bulwarks and other parts of vessels have passed by. There is nothing by which the wreckage can be identified. Captain Fisher also states that a part of a vessel's hull drifted by, but it was too far off shore to examine. Some of the wreckage was saved by the lifesaving men.

"You're a Liar."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Police Commissioner Sheehan was on the witness stand nearly all day yesterday in the Lexow investigation. In the closing scene Mr. Goff worked up a climax by denouncing Sheehan as a bribe-taker, grand larcenist and defaulter. "You're a liar," was the response of the baited Tammany commissioner. With that the curtain was rung down for the day.

Doings of the Berkeley Temple Gathering.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The morning session of the fourth day of the conference week at Berkeley Temple was devoted to the reading of reports and other routine work. The Open or Institutional Church League conference occupied the remainder of the day and evening.

Struck by a Train.

HINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 1.—Herbert Tinker, 29 years old, while driving across the tracks of the Consolidated road last night, was struck by a train. His wagon was demolished and several of Tinker's ribs broken, besides receiving other injuries.

Another Minister Steps Out.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—Herr Henrich von Heyden-Cacow, Prussian minister of agriculture, domains and forests, has tendered his resignation to the emperor and it has been accepted. The ex-minister will receive another state appointment.

Lost Off Wales.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The British steamer Tormes foundered off Pembroke, Wales. Fourteen of her crew were drowned. The Tormes sailed from Liverpool Sept. 22 for Barcelona.

To Test a Tax.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—The distillers of this city have taken action to test the constitutionality of that section of the new tariff law increasing the tax on whisky in bond.

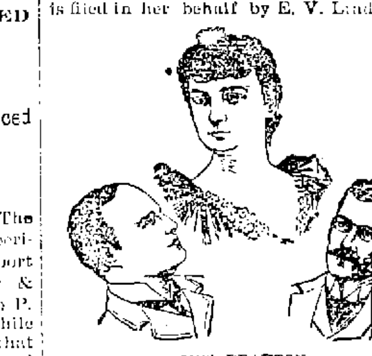

Without Arbitration.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 1.—An important question of frontiers is about to be settled without the usual assistance of foreign arbitration. The plenipotentiaries of the Argentine and the Bolivian republics have signed the protocol appointing the special commissioners charged with the technical survey of the disputed frontier. They met

"UNTRUE AND CRUEL."

Mrs. Drayton's Answer to the Charges Brought by Her Husband.

TRENTON, Nov. 1.—The answer in the James Coleman Drayton divorce suit was filed late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Drayton denies the charges of martial infidelity by her husband and accuses him of having deserted her without cause. The answer is filed in her behalf by E. V. Lindabury.

MRS. DRAYTON.
MR. BORROWE. MR. DRAYTON.

Mrs. Drayton, in her answer, admits her marriage to her husband in New York on Oct. 20, 1879, where they resided until 1886. Then they removed to Bernardsville, where they continued to live until Oct. 1, 1891. After that they traveled in Europe until some time early in 1892.

She denies that she left her husband while they were temporarily sojourning in London in January, 1892, but that he left her, through cruel and unjust suspicions as to her marital fidelity. Mrs. Drayton makes specific denial to each and every charge in her husband's bill charging her with adultery with Hallett A. Borrowe, and says that she was never guilty of adultery with Borrowe or any other person whatsoever, either in New York, London, Bernardsville or any other place.

The charges, she says, are wholly untrue, and a most cruel and unfounded imputation.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

President's Proclamation Sets Aside the Twenty-Ninth Day of This Month.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The president yesterday issued the following:

A PROCLAMATION.

The American people should gratefully render thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the universe, who has watched over them with kindness and fostering care during the year that has passed:

They should also with humility and faith supplicate the Father of All Mercies for continued blessings according to their needs, and they should by deeds of charity seek the favor of the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Therefore I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let our ordinary work and business be suspended and let us meet in our accustomed places of worship, and give thanks to Almighty God for our preservation as a nation, for our immunity from disease and pestilence, for the harvests that have rewarded our husbandry, for a renewal of national prosperity and for every advance in virtue and intelligence that has marked our growth as a people.

And with our thanksgiving let us pray that these blessings may be multiplied unto us, that our national conscience may be quickened to a better recognition of the power and goodness of God, and that in our national life we may clearer see and closer follow the path of righteousness.

And in our places of worship and praise, as well as in the happy reunions of kindred and friends on that day, let us invoke divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely He who have given us comfort and plenty will look upon our relief of the destitute and our ministrations of charity of the hearts truly grateful as proof of the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States, which I have caused to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, on the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1894, and of the independence of the United States the 119th. GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the president: W. Q. GRESHAM, secretary of state.

The Finest Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The loan exhibition of ladies' portraits opened today at the Academy of Design for the benefit of the St. John's guild and the New York Orthopedic hospital. It surpasses anything of this kind ever seen in this country. Nearly 400 portraits, exclusive of miniatures, are shown, and about as many miniatures. The works of the best modern men of all schools make it more remarkable than the London exhibition of "Fair Women," where the old pictures were most prominent.

Have Many Grievances.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—A protracted session of the executive committee of the West End Street railway employes was held last night. A large number of grievances against the road were discussed at length, and it was decided to call a mass meeting of all employes not on duty next Friday night to take a vote on a proposition to tie up the road. A general strike on the West End means the paralysis of the entire street car system of Boston and half a dozen other towns.

A Fiendish Trick.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Michael Salvator placed a dynamite cartridge under a house in which Eugene Gova and his wife were sleeping. He then fired four shots through the window, but missed his mark. The shots awakened Genova and his wife, and they reached the adjoining room just as the dynamite exploded. Part of the house and the furniture were demolished, the man and wife being badly bruised. Salvator escaped.

Was Prepared to Die.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—Ex-Premier Mercier is lying in state at his residence. Ten thousand people have viewed the body. Enormous quantities of flowers are received by the family. Mercier's last words were: "I am prepared to die, but it is a sad thing to leave my wife and children. Tell my friends that my last thoughts were for them; tell my opponents that I have forgotten all, and tell all that I worked for my country."

Seventy-Five Years Old.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—The celebration of the 75th anniversary of Christ Church cathedral begun today. One of the chief features of the celebration was consecration of the "Mary E. Bobinger Memorial chapel," adjoining the main structure. Very Rev. M. Schuyler, dean of the cathedral, who was called as rector Oct. 1, 1854, preached the anniversary sermon, and Bishop Tuttle and the clergy of the city and state participated.

Course Boats Designated.

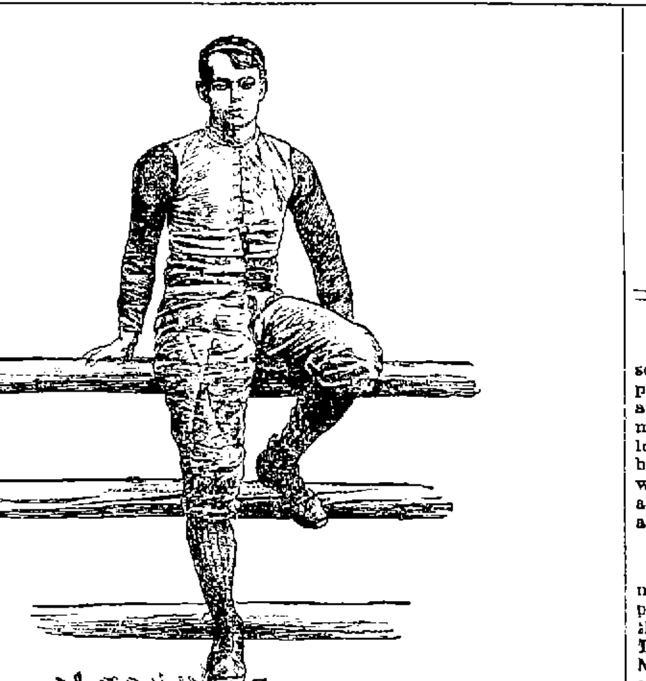

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The navy department has arranged for the speed trial of the torpedo boat Ericsson on the 8th inst., and has assigned the Dolphin, Cincinnati, Nina, Fern, Fortuna and Iwana to serve as course boats.

Sent to Hoffman Island.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Two deck stowards of the Lucania refused to be vaccinated, and were removed to Hoffman island, where they will be kept for 14 days.

Insane Asylum Burned.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 1.—An asylum for the insane at Joenkoping was destroyed by fire. Fifteen inmates of the institution were burned to death.

CAPTAIN FRANK A. HINKEY OF YALE.

Captain Frank A. Hinkey, who was in control of the Yale 'Varsity Football team last year, is again in command this year. The great annual game with Harvard will be played in Springfield, Mass., on November 24. Mr. Hinkey is popularly known as "The Silent Man."

IN THE EMPIRE STATE,

EX-PRES. HARRISON PLEADS FOR MORTON'S ELECTION.

Democrats Are Vigorously Denounced by Speaker—Holloran Will Bet $20,000 on Strong and Goff.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—At the Democratic headquarters the canvass books have just been put in. It is said that the total show a list of 65,000 for the Democrats in New York and 11,000 in Kings. Governor Flower, a most astute political observer, gives Senator Hill a clear majority of 35,000 north of the Harlem. For some time, under the cover of a modest and quiet campaign, it has been known that the Democratic prospects were daily growing brighter. Now for the first time figures are given out.

John Holloran was present at the state Democracy headquarters yesterday afternoon with $20,000 to bet on the election of Strong and Goff. He exhibited the amount of money named, but although he remained there until after dark, no one appeared to take up any of his offers, which were $5000 to $4500 on Strong and Goff each, and $10,000 even on the election of both.

Harrison and Morton.

Ex-President Harrison spoke at Carnegie Music hall last evening, and it would appear that half of New York turned out to hear him. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Republican state committee to ratify the nomination of Morton and Saxton.

The hour fixed for the meeting was 8 o'clock, but a tremendous crowd began to assemble as early as 5:30.

When ex-President Harrison and Mr. Morton arrived, the audience stood up, and it was fully 10 minutes before the cheering ceased.

Soon afterwards G. W. Stevens made a short address, introducing Mr. Morton as the chairman of the meeting. When Mr. Morton stepped to the chair and prepared to speak, the audience would not let him do so until he had acknowledged their plaudits for fully 10 minutes. Mr. Morton said:

"It has been foreign to my inclinations to take part in public meetings after my own nomination to public office. I desire to be judged by the record I have made, rather than by any professions manufactured for an occasion. If I am not worthy to administer the great trust which will be committed to me, when the will of the Republican state convention is ratified by the people, nothing I can say now will relieve the situation.

"Because of this widespread hope, and in the earnest desire to advance its fulfillment, a citizen of Indiana, resolute in war and accomplished in the civil councils of the nation, has come to this metropolis to lend you the encouragement of his salutation and give you the ripe results of his observation and experience. I have the pleasure of presenting Benjamin Harrison."

Harrison's Address.

After some preliminary remarks, Mr. Harrison said:

"I cannot say very much about the last administration, and it is somewhat delicate for me to speak about the present. But men are of little consequence in the administration of our public affairs, they do not determine events.

"The important matter is the principle or policy that the respective parties represent, and of these I feel very free to speak, and I will give you my views as to the tendencies of the policies of the Republican party, which I believe to be beneficent, helpful and politic, and the tendencies of the Democratic party, which I believe to be hurtful and destructive.

"This great country of ours has such intermingling influences that no election can properly be said to be local.

"It is of consequence, and ought to be of concern to the people of the United States from St. John to Puget Sound, whether the governor of the state of New York shall be a man of clean personal life, a man who illustrates in his own life the history, the virtue of high American citizenship; whether he shall be a man who loves our free institutions, who preserves the sanctity of the ballot box and the equality of men before the law; or whether he shall be a man who consorts with those who prostitute the ballot box, degrade public office and public administration.

"It is of consequence to the whole people whether the great state of New York shall have at the head of your executive department a typical American citizen, or one who regards these things from a low standpoint, and looks only to party advantage rather than the public weal.

"I believe the candidate of the Republican party is altogether worthy of the support of his fellow-citizens, and is altogether qualified for the exercise of the high duties of governor of this great state.

"There are national questions as well involved in the city of New York; a congress is to be chosen, and these constituencies in the great city of New York are to exercise an important influence in deciding the question whether the control of the house of representatives at Washington shall be wrested from the Democratic party."

Mr. Harrison said that for 30 years the Democratic party had been an irresponsible party, but in 1893 it had been called to a position of responsibility.

The trouble with the Democratic party was that it was an incoherent party. Who could tell what it was going to do; what its position upon the tariff question was.

The ex-president discussed the recent tariff legislation and created considerable laughter by humorous allusions to the manner in which the Democratic party took up the work of revising the tariff.

He next discussed with some sarcasm the Hawaiian affair. Further on, the ex-president said the Democratic party was uninstructed and inexperienced. In concluding, he said:

"Let the greatest of the manufacturing states, by her people in this election, speak in the voice that shall be heard from ocean to ocean in condemnation of those who have brought these disasters upon the country."

Disastrous Year For Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—The whole number of Gloucester vessels lost during the year ending Oct. 31, 1894, has been 30, of a total tonnage of 2423.42 tons, representing a value of about $175,000, on which there was $157,625 insurance. The number of lives lost, including deaths on shipboard and in hospitals, during the year, has been 137, against 71 for the previous year.

Mrs. Howe Presides.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 1.—The second annual congress of the Association for the Advancement of Women met here yesterday, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe of Massachusetts presiding. The congress was given an elaborate reception at the Hotel Imperial. The body will remain in session throughout the week.

A Widow's Good Fortune.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Frank Brush, a needy soldier's widow, with three children, has received word that she has been bequeathed $20,000 by Mrs. Eunice Duffee of Chicago, who died leaving over $1,000,000. Mrs. Duffee was an aunt of Mrs. Brush.

Not Considered Important.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Guatemala officials here do not attach importance to renewed reports of war preparations along the Mexican border. No official advices have been received, as they would be if trouble had reached a critical stage.

It Is Marsh Gas.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Nov. 1.—The report that a wonderful deposit of natural gas had been stirred up from the Connecticut river proves on chemical analysis to be nothing but marsh gas.

Contractors Get $50,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The secretary of the navy has accepted the machinery of the Maine, and authorized the payment of about $50,000 to the contractors.

LADIES WHO VALUE
A refined complexion must use Pozzoni's Powder. It produces a soft & beautiful skin.

FALL MILLINERY.
Miss Sarah Cahill.
New Store, New Goods, New Ideas, and in fact the Latest in Millinery, at the beautiful new store at
113 CORHAM STREET,
Just above the new Post Office. The display of Novelties is quite remarkable.
You are cordially invited to call. Be sure and inquire for our prices.
MISS SARAH CAHILL, 113 Gorham Street.

When in Need of Real Fine
MILLINERY
Call at the New Store of
ABBIE M. SMITH
Where the most complete assortment of Novelties and Exquisite Trimmings may be found. All New Goods.
175 Merrimack St., Welles' Block.
MRS. M. E. DUDLEY, Assistant.
Fine Mourning a Specialty.

Suits to Order, - $20.00.
Pants " " - $5.00.
SHARROW & BAXANDALL
TAILORS,
93 - Gorham - Street.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY?
If so call at the
TEMPLE OF DESIGN,
—FOR YOUR—
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY.
There you will find the correct styles and newest novelties at the lowest possible prices.
14 and 16 Merr'ck Square, Runels' Block

McCARTIN'S BAKERY, 107 Gorham Street.
Domestic Bread, Cake and Pastry.
Orders for Wedding Cake promptly filled. Beans received for baking.

T. M. BOLTON,
139 Market Street, Gates' Block,
Saddle and Harness Maker,
Fine Repairing at the Lowest Rates

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report
Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Warning to Mariners.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The captain of the schooner Pembina, from Porto Rico, reports on Oct. 29, when in lat. 38.40 N. and long. 71.20 W., sighted a large three-masted schooner, abandoned and waterlogged. The main and mizzen masts, bowsprit and the stump of the foremast were standing. The water was too rough at the time to ascertain particulars. It is a dangerous obstruction to navigation.

Baltimore's New Music Hall.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—Baltimore's new music hall was dedicated last night in the presence of one of the largest audiences that has assembled here in many years. The Boston Symphony orchestra and the Melba Concert company provided the inaugural program.

An Ex-Mayor's Testimony.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—President Capen addressed the Municipal league last night, and after a general criticism of the expenditures of the city officials, and the condition of the government, showed that 59 of the 75 members of the city council paid a poll tax only, and suggested many reforms in municipal government. Ex-Mayor Martin, in advocating a four-year term for mayor, said: "I would not take the mayoralty if I got the vote of every citizen; a man cannot afford to, and maintain his dignity, character and integrity."

Railway Changes Hands.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 1.—The Kentucky railroad passed into the hands of its new owners today and was rechristened the Lexington and Eastern.

THE "DOMESTIC"
Parlor Stove is the best stove on the market. Has more practical points than any other stove made. Come and see it and you will be convinced of the truth of the above statement.
Wood Stoves, $3; Coal Stoves, $4 and upwards. And, as for Ranges, we have the best Range you ever saw for $20. Every Range warranted.
Chamber Sets, Parlor Sets, Easy Chairs, Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloth, etc.
Remember that we carry the "Electric Oil Heater," which is acknowledged to be the best Oil Heater on the market.
J. J. CAYNOR & CO.,
New Number, 35 Prescott Street.

Smiling Faces - -
- - On the Sabbath
Are always the result of purchases made at the
UNION :: MARKET.
Join the Crowd and See Us Today.
WALSH'S UNION MARKET, Middlesex St. Foot of South St.

NEW HOLIDAY EDITION,
THE LAST LEAF,
By Oliver Wendell Holmes.
Illustrated by George Wharton Edwards and F. Hopkinson Smith. It is very handsomely bound, and will be a leading book for the holidays. You will want to see it.
LAWLER, Fashionable Stationer and Bookseller, 79 Merrimack and 15 John Streets. Telephone 373-4.

FURNITURE.

New goods for fall trade now in; new Carpets, new Chamber, Parlor and Dining-room Furniture. A fine stock to select from and the prices lower than ever before.
We wish to call your attention to our line of Glenwood Ranges and Parlor Stoves for which we are the agents in Lowell. The Glenwood goods are the acknowledged superior of all other makes of stoves. See our Grand Glenwood heater before you purchase. The beautiful designs, fineness of finish and simple construction, together with elegant embelishment of Nickle and Bronze, makes it the most beautiful as well as the most useful heater ever offered to the public.
Cookin Bros., NO. 66 PRESCOTT ST.

-BEST-
HAXALL FLOUR
$4 per bbl.

Choice St. Louis,	$3.00 Per Bbl.
Bag of Haxall,	.55 Per Bag
Bag of St. Louis	.40 Per Bag
Tub Lard	.8 lb.
Canned Peas	.7 Per Can
" Tomatoes	.8 Per Can
" Salmon	.11 Per Can
" Blue Berries	.10 Per Can
" Clams	.8 Per Can
6 Boxes Sardines	.25

These prices guaranteed while the advertisement is displayed.
FARLEY'S ∴ CASH ∴ GROCERY,
New No. 140 Gorham St.

LOWELL
Trunk Manufactory
An elephant cannot get along without his trunk, and you will find that you will have almost as much difficulty to get along without a trunk as the elephant—that is if you are rooming out, and like everything else the BEST is the CHEAPEST always, and the best in quality and lowest in price to be found is at 70-72 Middlesex St.
"Old Wooden Building."
P. F. Devine, Prop.
N. B.—Repairing is a specialty with us. Work first-class, and low prices is our business motto. Old trunks taken as part payment for new ones

THE LOWELL DAILY SUN.

VOL. XXIV. NO. 52. LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1894. PRICE ONE CENT.

SECOND EDITION

☞ THE SUN is the only paper in Lowell receiving The Associated Press, cable and telegraphic despatches. Most of the news items in this issue can be found in the other local papers tomorrow, if you are willing to wait till then.

Later News in Six o'clock Extra.

UNCLE SAM'S HUSTLING P. M.

WHO IS GIVING LOWELL THE BEST OF MAIL SERVICE.

New Schedule Went Into Effect Today With Additional Deliveries and More Collections—New Routes Laid Out From the New Federal Building.

When Postmaster General Bissell once said that young men are the best fitted to make progressive postmasters he knew what he was saying, and right here in Lowell the truth of his statement is proven for Postmaster Pearson since his appointment to office has given evidence of being a capable and progressive head and has placed the Lowell office in a position far ahead of that occupied by most of the cities of her size.

With the department established in its new quarters, with the energetic postmaster in command, the Washington authorities will have a branch to be proud of.

While the office has been in good hands before, never in its history has so much towards meeting the demands of the public been accomplished as within the time that Mr. Pearson has had control. It was through his efforts that new carriers were added recently making it possible to have more deliveries and through him too, the pay of the employes was increased materially.

But the latest sign of the young postmaster's progressiveness was shown yesterday when a new program went into effect, whereby every resident of Lowell who does business with the post office department is considerably benefited.

Heretofore the deliveries have been three daily to business men and only one in the outskirts, while under the new operation the business men have four deliveries and the residents in the outskirts, two daily. Now not only have the number of deliveries been increased but the district in which the four deliveries will be made has been increased in size and will include besides the old district down town, East Merrimack, Church, Lawrence, to Greenwood Bros., Gorham from court house, to Davis' corner, Bridge to Seventh, Lakeview ave., Market to Dummer, and Middle streets, all the business sections about the Wamesit mills on upper Dutton street, to Mt. Vernon street, Broadway and Fletcher street. Where but four carriers were formerly needed seven are now put on.

The business trip carriers are Charles A. Holden, Frank G. Rundlett, William H. Wood, Daniel S. Crowley, John Ewing, Harry Pettengill and Charles A. Carey.

By the addition of all the substitutes to the regular force, Postmaster Pearson has to appointed a number of new substitutes. They are J. B. A. Le Brun, James Healey, Patrick F. Cahill, Leforest Beals, George F. Andrews and James William Maguire.

Thus it may be seen that a very large number of business places will have reason to thank Postmaster Pearson.

The system of collecting has been improved and besides the two mounted collectors, Messrs. Watson and Picard, Messrs. John Slack, William J. Lane and G. W. Bulmer have been appointed foot collectors and they will collect from the boxes in the city proper while the mounted men will take in the suburbs and letters will be sent more quickly than in the past. All routes have been laid from the new post office. To meet the demands made by the new appointments, seven improvised desks and as many pigeonholes have been erected in the old post office and work will go along without waiting for the more commodious quarters in the new building.

"Young Mr. Pearson" as some have facetiously called him is the right man in the right place and deserves the hearty congratulations of the public without respect to party for his great work at the the head of the local department, and it is only fair to add that he is assisted greatly in his work by a corps of hustling assistants in each department.

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. Plunkett passed a comfortable night.

The railroad tracks on Central street are being repaired.

Eleven "Ideal" ballot boxes have been received by City Clerk Dowd for use in the eleven new precincts.

Hon. A. W. Beard's son, Charles F. Beadr, was married in swell style at St. Stephen's, N. B., last night.

Work on the extension of the Lamb street sewer is now in progress. The extension will be about 300 feet long.

The improvement society of St. John's church held an enjoyable Halloween party in the chapel, at which the true Halloween games were indulged in. After supper an entertainment was given.

Green is doing a big business in watch and jewelry repairing. Watches cleaned and main-springs replaced, $1.00. Warranted one year. Jewelry repaired as good and cheaper than any house in Lowell. Green's, 88 Merrimack street.

Notice to Precinct Officers.

Precinct officers will qualify at the city clerk's office tonight.

Reduction In

STEERAGE RATES

ONLY $10.

Boston to Queenstown, Liverpool. London, Belfast, Glasgow, Londonderry.

James F. O'Donnell,

Agent, Lowell, Mass.

Cor. of Worthen and Market Sts.

OFFICE TO LET—In THE SUN building. A nice location for a doctor or light profes

POLITICAL JOTS

Knox Stultifies Himself On Tariff Issues.

THE A. P. A. LOSE A PROMINENT LEADER.

The Democratic Ranks Closing for Brady and Fifield.

The democrats of the city are moving forward with closed ranks for the election of Fifield and Brady. But a few who have been workers with the party lag behind or reconnoitre at the Foss headquarters. What they can be doing there it is difficult to say with any positive certainty but the average democrat may surmise.

The liquor dealers of the city were never more loyal to the democratic party than on this occasion. One or two men have grievances but it seems they are determined to overlook these and work for the success of the ticket.

The few malcontents who are gulled by promises of licenses will find their mistake later on. They are not now in the liquor business; but they want the opportunity to enter it. But these are of little importance compared with the support coming from the opposition for Fifield and Brady. Ward Four is not for Foss, and the republicans of that stronghold are fully justified in opposing the election of a man who imagines that his chief duty is to draw his salary and make his appearance when his vote is wanted by a monopoly.

The man who resigns after having been elected to an office must have a good deal of effrontery to ask a re-election.

The voters will say to him on election day "why did you not keep the office when you had it. If you did not think enough of the office to complete the term you should not ask a reelection. But you have lost your opportunity now; the people will elect Brady and Fifield."

Knox came to Lowell whining about the farmers on the Canadian border, about the lumber men of Maine and about the "outrage" of admitting cotton bands free while bands for binding hay are taxed. This he claims is in the interests of the south. Texas is the greatest wool growing state. Was wool put up on the free list to benefit that state?

Cotton hoops were put upon the free list because a combination took the duty imposed under the McKinley law out of the cotton planters and the hands that bind hay happen to be made in Worcester. Hay is bound by wire and very little American hay is shipped abroad.

William "Switchboard" Knox has made an ass of himself on the stump although he is spoken of as a man of great ability and intelligence.

Mr. Fifield is a man of business, a man who is in touch with the people, a man who has always been generous towards his employes. He never attempted to steal the invention of any of his workmen. Can this be said of William Switchboard Knox? Mr. Fifield wants no further tariff legislation. Mr. Knox wants the present tariff torn down and the McKinley duties restored.

***

There will be a ward rally in Ward Five Friday evening and Edward W. Rodgers will address the voters.

***

A big ward rally will be held in Ward Six Friday evening at which Thomas F. Hoban will preside. The speakers will be Ed Pierce and Philip J. Farley.

Rallies will be held on the same night in wards three and five and good speakers will be present.

***

The A. P. A. held forth in large numbers last night. It was an A. P. A. farewellite Rev. Mr. Raboteau and all the incompetent ministers of whom he spoke last Sunday were there. The leader of these and decidedly the most incompetent was Montgomery. He had to tell of the "rum-soaked crowd" that came from the republican rally on the previous evening. He knows he prevaricates when he makes such a statement. No more respectable gathering of working people could be found anywhere than that which was present in Huntington hall, Tuesday evening. The fact is that this Apaphobian leader is so much accustomed to vilifying and abusing the masses of the people in this city that he rarely can speak fairly of anybody. He exaggerates the good qualities of his followers and the bad of those he persecutes until he grossly misrepresents both. Verily, as Lincoln said, we are progressing rapidly in degeneracy. Rev. Dr. Court, D. D., degraded himself by appearing as the tail to Montgomery's kite. Exit Rev. Mr. Raboteau. Next.

***

Hon. George Fred Williams and Congressman Joseph O'Neil will wind up the democratic campaign in this city next Saturday night. It will be a great rally. Nathan D. Pratt will preside. The fallacies of republican speakers will be exposed by sound democratic arguments.

***

Thomas F. Saunders of Ward One, the well known blacksmith, is a candidate for the council. Tim Reynolds, another blacksmith, is a candidate for the council from Ward Three. Patrick H. Clifford and Patrick Barry are candidates for the council from Ward One.

***

The A. P. A. divines accuse the Catholic church of being in politics. Can they point out where a single Catholic clergyman in this city ever interfered in politics. Do they degrade their pulpits by making political stump speeches when expected to preach the gospel? Do they claim that in a short time they will have the city, the state and the nation? No! All the A. P. A. movement is a disguised movement for political office by men who are not now, never have been and never will be true Americans because they would deprive Catholics of their religious and political rights.

Resolutions To M. Mercier.

Le Cercle Canadian at its next meeting will take action on the death of ex-Premier Mercier of Quebec. The French republican club will take action on his death at its meeting on Sunday.

Eighteenth Street Sewer.

A gang of men will be set at work on the Eighteenth street sewer in a few days, the committee having instructed Supt. Crowley to commence work on its construction.

Why Not.

If you are economizing why not look over your printing bills and see if you are not paying too much for printing. Call at this office and get prices on your work, and see if we cannot save money for you.

When you need printing, remember THE

SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

Interest Begins Monthly.

Money deposited in the savings department of the Traders' National bank of this city, before 9 o'clock, p. m., Saturday November 3d, will draw interest from November 1st at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, compounding semi-annually. This bank is open continuously from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., Saturdays from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

MARSHALL--SCRIPTURE.

Marriage of a Lowell Lawyer to One of Rockport's Fair Daughters.

The marriage of William S. Marshall, Esq. of the law firm of Marshall, Burke and Marshall, to Miss Emma B. Scripture of Rockport, was a fashionable event last evening.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. Frank Scripture, manager of the Pigeon Hill granite company of Rockport.

The wedding took place at the bride's house. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Israel Ainsworth of Rockport.

The bride was dressed in heavy white silk, cut en train, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were two little girls, Misses Blanche Davis and Helen Fisher of Gloucester, and each carried a basket of bride roses.

The best man was Mr. Edward Marshall, brother of the groom, and Messrs. Arthur B. Sewell, Harry Rogers and Geo. Rogers, all of Rockport, were the ushers. After a short wedding trip the bridal couple will reside in Lowell.

HURT BY AN ELEVATOR.

Bridget Nestor, a Scrubber, Had a Narrow Escape From Death Yesterday—Two Other Less Serious Accidents.

Bridget Nestor, a middle aged woman, employed as a scrubber in the Massachusetts mills, was so badly injured yesterday afternoon that her life was despaired of during the night at the corporation hospital whither she was taken in the ambulance. Her collar bone is badly broken and her head hurt which rendered her unconscious for six hours. She is reported comfortable and partially conscious this noon.

As far as can be learned the accident occurred at the elevator shaft where she was sweeping. She was known to be there, but in getting out of the way of the elevator her dress is thought to have caught in the rope preventing the stopping of the elevator. It is not clear whether she was hit by the elevator or the gate, but apparently she was first struck on the head. It would appear that she had a narrow escape from death.

John Stewart, an assistant oiler in the Merrimack print works bleach house, fell through a floor trap to the floor below, Monday, escaping with a bad shaking up and a cut finger.

An oiler in the same mill and same department was badly bruised in being caught in the shafting.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.

Large Congregations at the Catholic Churches in Attendance at Morning Mass.

The feast of All Saints is observed today and is a holyday of obligation in the Catholic churches. This evening vespers and vespers for the dead will be sung in the Catholic churches of the city. Tomorrow will be All Souls' day, a day of devotion.

At St. Patrick's church today mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Gleason, who also spoke briefly on the observance of the feast.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

KELLEY—The funeral of Sabina Kelley took place this afternoon from her late home, 26 Andover street, and was largely attended. The remains were taken to the Immaculate Conception church, where services were held. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Beef Contract Given Out.

The regular meeting of the overseers of the poor was held at the city farm yesterday afternoon. The principal business was the awarding of the contract to furnish fresh beef to the city institutions during the year.

There were three bidders, Jewett & Swift, the Poolic Market (S. P. Pike) and Daniel J. Donovan.

The bids were on chucks, flanks, shanks shins, rump and loin.

Jewett & Swift were awarded the contract at the following prices: Chucks and flanks, 3 cents; shanks and shins, 2 cents; rump and loin, 10 cents.

Three purifons were granted.

The board then enjoyed one of Mrs. Collins' fine dinners.

A Rainy Season

Is promised from the New Hampshire oracle who prophesied so correctly last winter. Rubber Coats, Waterproof Canvas Coats, Macintoshes and Umbrellas will be in great demand, and we are amply prepared with a good stock such as we can confidentially recommend to our customers. Our Blanket Lined Coats in Brown Waterproof Canvas at $1.25 are splendid property for cold rainy weather. Sheepskin Fleece Lined goods are warmer. Umbrellas, Fast Black, 50c to $3.

-THE-

Merrimack Clo' Co.

OPPOSITE CITY HALL

AN A. P. A. MANTLE

Left to the Faithful by Rev. Claude Raboteau.

A LEADER WANTED WHO WILL REDEEM OUR CITY.

Remarkable A. P. A. Demonstration at a Farewell Reception.

It cannot be denied that Rev. Claude Raboteau has a host of friends in Lowell. This being so it would seem that his field of duty as a minister of the gospel was in Lowell.

It is not in the ordinary course of events to send a Lowell pastor into other fields by the medium of a mass meeting of citizens. The farewell meeting to Mr. Raboteau was something remarkable, last night.

Every available inch in Huntington hall was jammed with humanity, although the admission was by ticket. It was not denied at the time that the meeting was an A. P. A. farewell to the most ardent pulpit advocate of the order, and from the tenor of remarks made the impression was confirmed that it was a "patriotic" meeting.

Tribute by Other Pastors.

Rev. H. W. O. Millington presided and in calling to order eulogized Mr. Raboteau's devotion to the principles of patriotism. Rev. C. J. Reevil of the Moore street P. M. church offered prayer and Rev. Mr. Morang sang.

Resolutions offered by Rev. Hugh Montgomery were adopted. They endorsed the retiring pastor, praised him for not lowering the dignity of the pulpit, the church or the state, for his work in behalf of religious liberty and the defence of patriotic principles, for his tolerance toward all creeds while fearlessly opposing a church or party claiming absolute control over children growing up under the stars and stripes, and in conclusion bidding him godspeed.

Rev. E. T. Curnick of the Worthen Street M. E. church seconded the resolution, saying that Mr. Raboteau's departure will be the city's loss.

The American orchestra played and then Rev. Dr. Robert Court spoke in eulogistic terms of the clergyman's "patriotic" work. He said: "Free discussion in this country is one of the recognized rights of American citizenship. As rational beings we have the right to reason. God gave man this faculty in order that we may arrive at the truth. There is no recognition in God's word of the maxim that "Ignorance is the mother of devotion." In reference to Mr. Raboteau he said he was to be honored because he stood up for freedom of thought, first, last and always for American principles.

Rev. E. S. Wheeler of Boston, state representative of the A. P. A., hoped that the pastor would be restored to health for future service. He claimed that the A. P. A. is not the miserable travesty people make it out to be.

Rev. O. H. Denney claimed that the pastor's name should be inscribed with those of the nation's heroes on the roll of fame.

Letters of regret were read from Rev. A. Blackburn of Cambridge, Rev. Dr. St. John Chambre of this city, Rev. E. S. Bailey of Haverhill, Rev. G. H. Johnson, Rev. Dr. J. O. Campbell, Rev. J. A. Wigren and Rev. W. W. Harris of this city.

Rev. Mr. Hand of Keene, N. H., an intimate friend of Mr. Raboteau, paid a compliment to him and closed with a statement of the A. P. A. principles, not America for Americans but Americans for America.

A poem written by H. A. Deal was read by that gentleman. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Raboteau, next spoke. His heart was filled to overflowing, he said, and as he stood before the people for the last time to lead them to victory. He came here as a simple preacher and became identified with a movement which is so prominent. If he had acquired notoriety as an A. P. A lecturer it was not from his seeking; nor had he shirked from the duty of espousing its principles, although he knew that by so doing he was shaking a red rag to certain sections of this city. When he entered this contest against the Romish-politico machine he did not do it without mature and prayerful deliberation. It is a serious business to enter such an undertaking, and at times he was more than half inclined to reconsider his intention.

One evil in our city, he claimed, was the organized system of the Romish church to gain control of our municipality. "The one way to bring municipal reform is to throttle the Romish giant."

The democratic papers say the A. P. A. is a republican appendage. The speaker said he was a democrat and that more democrats were identified with the movement than the papers supposed.

"I love the A. P. A., and would die for it if need be," said Mr. Raboteau.

"Rome claims she has as much right as any other church; nobody ever denied it; they can have a church on every street if they want it, and will pay taxes on it. Who dares to say Rome has given up temporal power? Show me this and the A. P. A. will go out of business."

Mr. Raboteau dwelt on the importance of educating children in the public schools. "In our municipal affairs we want an American recognized as well as an Irishman and the A. P. A. will not giveup until this city is rescued from the hands of the enemy that is grabbing at its throat. We shall have the city yet, the state and the country and before the 20th century, a man will sit in the first place in the nation who has been identified with this great movement. (loud applause.)

In closing he delivered an eloquent farewell and the meeting closed at eleven o'clock. Afterwards half the audience went up and shook hands with Rev. Mr. Raboteau.

DEATHS.

BROWN—Daniel Brown, an old and life long resident of Tyngsboro, passed away at his home yesterday, aged 85 years.

McManmon, florist, Prescott & Merr'k sts

Close of October Devotions.

The October devotions in the Catholic churches closed last evening with the usual service. The attendance at the different churches during the month has been very large.

Will Sing the Prodigal Son.

The High street choir with a sacred chorus will sing Sir Arthur Sullivan's "Prodigal Son," Sunday evening, Nov. 11.

Sent up to Manchester.

Fred Bushle who recently escaped from the Manchester jail was arrested in an empty tenement in Little Canada Tues-

5 O'CLOCK

CZAR IS DEAD

Passed Away at 3 P. M. After Supreme Agony.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CZAREWITCH IS DISCOVERED.

Latest News by Wire From the Old World Capitals.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Daily News had a despatch from Livadia today, stating that the Czar is dead, but at 4.30 p. m. the Russian embassy had not had this report confirmed.

The London correspondents have been unable to obtain the least information.

The morning bulletin stated that the Czar had not slept all night and that the action of his heart has decreased. His majesty is suffering extreme torture.

A Conspiracy Found

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A special from St. Petersburg states that the police have discovered a conspiracy against the Czarewitch and are arresting Nihilists by the wholesale.

The Czar refused to go to Corfu, because he wanted to die in Russia.

The Czar's Death.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The despatches sent to the United States saying that the Czar died this morning were wrong, and were anticipated. The Czar passed away at 3 p. m. The Russian and German embassies were not notified until 6 p. m. A private despatch from the Queen of Denmark, mother of the Czarina, was the first official information given out of the death.

Particulars of his dying moments have not yet been given out.

ALL SINNER'S DAY IN COURT.

JUDGE HADLEY GIVES SOME MEN A CHANCE TO DO BETTER.

A Man Explains How He Got a Damaged Face—A Woman Made Up Her Bed on Westford Street—More Sunday Dealers in Court.

Two drunks were released. One of them a man named McEnany had about as badly a damaged face as one would care to see. He explained to the court that it was an accident that destroyed his facial beauty as he had collided with the sidewalk during his travels.

Susan Collins lives on the Appleton corporation but while on her way home last night became confused and went to sleep on Westford street where Officer Cawley found her. She accepted a sentence of five months in jail.

Three other drunks were fined.

Margaret Walsh was tried today for alleged larceny of a pair of shoes from Glidden's store. Margaret claimed she bought the shoes in the summer for a little girl, and the latter going away she pawned them. She told several different stories and finally requested that she be fined. She was sentenced to jail for a term of three months.

Elizabeth Hall pleaded guilty to the charge of being a common drunkard. Her husband and Officer Riley testified to the woman's weakness for liquor. She was placed on probation.

More Sunday dealers are in court.

Robert H. Holly pleaded guilty to keeping open shop on Sunday. Officers Goodwin and Donaldson testified that Holly keeps a frankfort shop at 1 Liberty square and that the defendant admitted having sold frankforts on the sabbath. Holly was granted a common victuallars license last spring, but never took it out.

The court said there are a good many foreigners here who are ignorant of the laws and keep open shop. "I am surprised," the court said, "at the criticisms of the sabbatical law of this country. I found in the big cities of England, Ireland and Scotland that the Sunday laws are far more rigid than those of this country which are very liberal indeed." The court then read the Sunday law for the benefit of the defendant, who is a Nova Scotian. He was fined $5 which he paid.

The High School battalion went by this morning and as usual started to play while passing. Lawyer McVey ran to the window and gave the boys the tip to keep quiet.

Joseph Madore was summoned into court for keeping open shop on Sunday, but he failed to appear and was defaulted.

Abraham Israel pleaded guilty to a charge of cruelty to a horse. It seems Abraham has been using a horse with a "game leg," and did not obey Agent Drury's instructions to have the animal attended to. He was fined $10.

Margaret Walsh appealed from her two months' sentence and was held in $200 for the Superior court.

NEW PASTOR THERE.

Many Lowell People Were at the Reception Tendered Him.

Rev. Ernest Bartlett, who will occupy the pulpit at the Central Congregational church at Chelmsford Centre for the coming year, was tendered a reception by the parishoners last evening. Many Lowell people assisted. The interior of the church was prettily decorated and the refreshment table was adorned with a very beautiful bouquet presented by Mr. H. E. Hudson. The Harmonic orchestra furnished music.

The Horse Was Killed.

A horse attached to the delivery wagon of A. A. Robinson, the provision dealer of Middlesex street, ran away yesterday down Howard street. The animal dashed across Middlesex street without accident but in turning into Middlesex place, the wagon struck a lamp-post and went through the window of the shop of Charles T. Kaskell smashing it to atoms. The animal finally was overcome by exhaustion and died in a short time.

Mrs. H. B. Bailey leaves this city tomorrow for San Mateo, Florida, her winter home. Mr. Bailey went in September. A little later a number of Lowell people will follow for San Mateo is a winter home

A PROSPECTIVE BRIDE.

If the Old Saying About the Cake and the Ring Come to Pass.

A very pleasant Halloween party was held at the home of the Misses Kelley on Gorham street, last evening. There were vocal selections by Messrs Peter Clune and Owen Gilday; piano solos by Miss Coleman, Miss Annie and Miss Lizzie Kelley; recitations by Mr. James Coughlin, the well known elocutionist; songs by Mr. Henry Cuff and Miss Lizzie McLaughlin. All of the selections were well received, the special numbers being those of Mr. James Coughlin and the witticisms of Mr. Peter A. Clune and Owen Gilday.

Then there were two tables of whist, prizes won by Miss McLaughlin and Mr. Coughlin, and Mr. Clune and Miss Annie Kelley.

The supper tables were spread and were waited on by Misses Lizzie and Ella Kelley and Miss Coleman. Cutting the cake and the finding of the ring by Miss Annie Kelley was the feature at the supper. After supper the party played games and the evening closed in a duet from Messrs. Clune and Gilday. The party broke up at an early hour after spending a very pleasant halloween.

Fixing the Approaches.

Supt. Crowley will macadamize at each end of the East Merrimack street bridge and the paving will be done in the spring. He fears that the paving blocks would sink during the winter were they laid now.

Mr. Crowley is anxious to have one side of the bridge ready for Sunday, for the convenience of those who take part in the Burke's memorial parade. If the bridge people and the water works rush their portion of the work he feels certain it can be done.

FROM THE WIRE.

Burglars blew open and robbed a bank safe at West Winfield, N. Y.

Another train robbery is reported from Birmingham, Ala.

McKee and Demeyers, won the rock drilling championship of the world at Louisville, Col., today. They drilled 35 5-8 inches in five minutes into solid granite.

LUNGS GIVING WAY.

Condition of the Czar Indicates That Death is Near at Hand.

YALTA, Nov. 1.—The official bulletin issued last evening says: "The emperor has taken little nourishment. The congestion of the left lung continues. Breathing is difficult, and pulse is weak. The general weakness of the patient has greatly increased.

The czar suffers fits of suffocation. Yesterday he was unconscious for several hours. Early in the morning he tried to read state dispatches, but he was too weak. During his violent fits of coughing, particles of lung were brought away.

The bulletin issued Tuesday night was not published here until yesterday. It caused a feeling of intense apprehension. It was noticed that yesterday not one of the doctors in attendance upon the czar was seen here, though usually they are observed walking in the streets daily.

Grand Duke Alix Michaelevitch, cousin of the czar, who was disgraced and banished to Caucasus several years ago, arrived here recently, wishing to see the czar and ask his pardon before he died. The czar declined to see him, and the grand duke disappeared after seeing his other relatives.

The newspapers have been prohibited from mentioning the visit until the grand duke's father shall have ordered the censor to allow the fact to be published.

The czar's treatment by his physicians is unchanged. He takes digitalis and aconite and drinks a great deal of milk.

Seriously Stabbed.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 1.—Tom Malloy, a prominent politician was crossing the bridge from Berkeley when he was met by Eugenio Gandeiri, who, without any warning, attacked him with a knife, cutting him severely in the right thigh and across the right side of the abdomen. Malloy became insensible, but before he could bleed to death he was discovered. Malloy's condition is serious. Gandeiri fled to this city and has not been captured.

Thieves Fired Two Shots.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—Thieves entered the general stores of Campion & Caulkins and J. A. Rowland at Old Lyme. The safes were blown open and $117 was obtained at the first named place and $5 at Rowland's. S. P. Martin saw a light in Campion & Caulkins' and rapped on the door, but he was ordered to throw up his hands and two shots were fired through the door. He ran for help, but the robbers escaped.

A Gratifying Announcement.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 1.—It is stated that a large part of the work of the General Electric company, which was taken from here and transferred to Schenectady, will be returned to this city. The railway work will also be increased.

Floor Fell at a Caucus.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—The Republican caucus at Portland was the largest ever held in the old town hall. During the balloting the floor gave way, precipitating the voters into the basement, and pandemonium reigned.

Steamer Wrecked.

SYDNEY, Nov. 1.—Steamer Wairarapa, plying between this port and Auckland, was wrecked on Great Barrier Island Sunday night. A few of her passengers were saved, but 112 were drowned.

Falcon Given Up As Lost.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 1.—The Poary steamer Falcon, from Philadelphia for this port, which has been out four weeks, was yesterday officially given up by the owners as lost.

Reorganization Favored.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—At the office of the Finance company, depository of Reading securities under reorganization plan, it was said holders of 850,000 general mortgage bonds assented. President Earle confirms the report that holders of four million bonds in London agreed to assent.

Negroes Sail For Liberia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The New African Steamship company recently contracted for six steamships, and the first sailed from here today. This company proposes to carry negroes from the United States to Liberia to form a big colony there.

A Cutdown Expected.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 1.—A rumor is current that the New Jersey Central Railroad company is about to make a general reduction in the wages of its employes, making the basis the same as the wages paid by the Lehigh Valley company.

Seamen Rescued.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 1.—The Danish bark Aurora arrived at Holyhead and landed 12 of the crew of the abandoned Norwegian bark Fin, who were picked up at sea. The Fin was bound from Lisbon for Halifax,

LATEST

NORMAL SCHOOL SITE FOUND.

BOARD OF EDUCATION VOTES IN FAVOR OF PEABODY ESTATE.

Ward Six and the Land Syndicate Appears to Have Been Badly Shut Out By the Decision.

The state board of education met in Boston this morning and decided on the site for the Normal school in this city. They voted to accept the J. G. Peabody estate.

This estate is at the corner of Wilder street and Broadway, extending to the railroad track on the south.

MRS. WICKES' DIVORCE.

She Wants One From Her Husband Who is Second Vice President of the Pullman Company.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. T. H. Wickes has filed an application for divorce from her husband, who is second vice president of the Pullman company, alleging cruelty.

GALLUS MILLER DEAD.

He Was Known All Over the Country as a Prison Official.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 1.—Gallus Miller, chief clerk of the Joliet penitentiary, committed suicide this morning. He was known all over the country as he brought here the Berthillon system of identification of criminals. He was highly educated and spoke several languages. The cause of his suicide is a mystery.

More Turkey Riots.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 1—The American board of Foreign missions has received word that depredations in Turkey have left missionaries and 2000 people homeless, their homes having been distroyed by fire.

Paris is All Astir.

By Associated Press to THE SUN

PARIS, Nov. 1.—This city is all up in arms over the latest sensation. Capt. Dreyfus of the staff corps is under arrest for giving out official plans for mobilization of troops in event of war and plans of fortifications.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

The performance of Old Jed Prouty, last night, at the Opera house, was thoroughly satisfactory, even if Richard Golden did not play as Old Jed. The company was good and this Down East story was told charmingly.

On Saturday the realistic thrilling comedy drama "The Engineer," will be given. The scenes are laid in Missouri. The company carries its own scenery. Special mention should be made of the third act, which represents a mill, with engine in full view of the audience. The climax of this act is exciting in the extreme, and excites applause for the heroine, who rescues her lover just as the heavily loaded cars are about to crush his body into a shapeless mass. Incidental to the second act the Missouri whoopers whoop in the Plumbersville Cornet band. The specialties include songs, dancing and musical selections on violin, mandolin, cornet and other musical instruments.

At Music Hall.

"Enemies for Life" is as thoroughly pleasing yet as on its first night, and the company being more at home do better work in this excellent drama.

Talk About "Rabies."

The quarterly meeting of the M. N. D. Medical society was held at the American house, yesterday, about 40 members being present. After dinner Dr. Huntress read a paper on "Rabies" and Dr. Nichols read one by Dr. Amasa Howard on "Oxygen." Attention was called to the fact that the Y. W. C. A. in the Bowdich building, Central street, has opened a bureau where a registry of trained nurses is kept and the request was made that the medical men encourage the movement by applying there when such service is desired.

Remembered Their Former Pastor.

Mrs George N Howard's former Sunday school class at the Paige street church held a pleasant reunion and Hallowe'en party, last evening, at the resident of Misses Flora R. Small and Maud C. Lewis, 83 Chestnut street. Rev. Mr. Howard and wife were present. The class presented Mrs. Howard a sum of money to be used on Rev. Mr. Howard's new church at Melrose.

The Receiver Won.

The jury in the case of John C. Burke vs Emma B. Marr and William J. Blake, one of the Annual Friend cases, gave a verdict for Mr. Burke, the receiver, having found that the property attached had been illegally transferred to place it beyond the possession of the receiver. This established the defendant's writ of entry to the property. The case may go to the Supreme court on exceptions.

Paid $20 For Assault.

In police court yesterday, Henry Woodworth was fined $20 for assault on Martin Howard, on Sunday. Michael and James McHale, accused of being concerned, were discharged as it was shown that they were endeavoring to separate Howard and Woodworth. All the parties live in Centralville.

This Club's a Corker.

The Ward Six Independent club met last night, and seven new members admitted. The club endorsed Hon. Peter J. Brady for senator, Hon. George W. Fifield for congress, Thomas F. Hoban for representative after enthusiastic speeches.

Dummer Democratic Club.

This body had a rousing meeting last night, various committees were appointed to help the democratic cause.

Next meeting Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. in Ward One, precinct 3 polling booth

Mother of the Late Steve Nestor.

Mrs. Bridget Nestor, who was hurt in No. 2 weave room of the Massachusetts mills yesterday, is mother of Steve Nestor who was killed in Chicago last summer.

YOUR WATCH needs cleaning. Bring it to Tower & Sparks, 285 Central Street. We will put it in order and do a clean it requires for a year for $1.50. We take no chances; if the watch is smashed the charge will be $1.50 and no more. Watch loaned during re

To put it on a common-sense basis,—it's to your advantage to see what our good ready-made clothing is like, how it's made, how it fits, what it costs,—before you give your tailor an order.

Maybe after you've looked it over and tried it on, you'll stick to the tailor, wait for him to make you a suit, and pay twice as much for it as we charge.

Frankly, we don't believe anything of the kind.

PUTNAM & SON,

ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

Central Street, Cor. Warren.

FROM OUR 6 O'CLOCK EXTRA Of Yesterday.

CAUSED BY AN OPEN SWITCH.

WRECK ON THE RAILROAD NEAR SCRANTON, PA.

Three Trainmen Killed When the Express Crashed Into the Freight—Collision Occurred Near Foster, Pa.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Three persons were killed and a dozen injured at Foster, 25 miles north of here on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, at 1 o'clock this morning.

The accident was caused by an open switch, into which an express train dashed while running at a high rate of speed, crashing into the rear of a freight train, which had taken the siding to allow the express to pass.

The names of the killed and injured have not been ascertained.

THE BUNCO CASE.

John C. Burke, Receiver of the Annual Friend, the Plaintiff at Law.

The evidence is all in in the case of John C. Burke, receiver of the Annual Friend, against Emma R. Marr and William J. Blake. This was a suit growing out of Mr. Burke's attachment of Herbert R. Marr's wife's property, for the benefit of the certificate holders of the order. Marr was an ex-supreme. It was a lively hearing in which Lawyer O'Connell figured, as well as Harvey & Pickman, counsel for the defence.

CZAR'S DYING MOMENTS.

He Must be Suffering Terribly If the Stories Told are True.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Oct. 31—The Pall Mall Gazette's dispatch from Livadia says:

"Throughout yesterday the Czar's condition was most distressing. There was an increase in the spitting of blood, with violent shivering. His limbs were numb, his breathing was oppressed, and his legs were swollen more than ever."

A later dispatch says: "The czar is dying. His death may be expected at any moment."

A dispatch from Berlin to the Globe says that Prof. Leyden has telegraphed from Livadia to Count Schouvaloff, the Russian embassador to Germany, as follows: "I am in despair. A catastrophe is inevitable."

Funeral of a Little One.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Wm. H. and Mrs. Harrigan occurred yesterday from their home on Central street. There were many floral tributes. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Lamps.

We carry the most complete line of lamps and fixtures of any house in Lowell. Notice our display prices from 20c to $5.00 each. The U. S. Tea Co., corner of Central and Prescott street.

All the latest designs in fine pleasure vehicles.

Our Business Wagons are specially constructed to withstand the wear of pavements and car tracks.

We can save you money. Get our prices and look over our assortment before you purchase elsewhere.

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD.

JOHN W. McEVOY, 187 Central St., Opp. American House. Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

FRANCIS W. QUA, No. 3 Barristers' Hall. Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

M. KINGSBURY, No. 373 Bridge Street. Meats and Provisions. (Successor to Stront & Kingsbury.)

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD, Nos. 333 to 345 Central St. Fine Carriages, Sleighs, etc.,

LOWELL DAILY SUN.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Publisher.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Issued Daily; Sundays excepted.

Per Year $3.00 - - - Per Month, 25c.

City delivery and postage free.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON.

Southern Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
5.45	6.56	6.00	[illegible]
6.30	7.45	6.30	[illegible]
6.50	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
§7.01	7.58	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	8.10	[illegible]
[illegible]	8.12	[illegible]	[illegible]
7.45	[illegible]	9.15	[illegible]
8.50	9.42	10.40	11.12
10.00	10.33	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	1.00	§1.47
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	3.36
3.50	4.25	3.30	[illegible]
[illegible]	4.45	4.15	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	5.25	[illegible]
[illegible]	6.29	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	6.15	[illegible]
§7.52	8.25	[illegible]	[illegible]
		[illegible]	[illegible]
		10.15	11.24
		‡11.22	12.25

Sunday Trains.

[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	2.55
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	10.30	[illegible]	[illegible]
§4.25	5.02	[illegible]	[illegible]
§6.05	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
		[illegible]	[illegible]

‡From Middlesex St. station only.

Western Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
6.50	8.03	7.30	8.32
8.15	9.12	9.25	10.33
[illegible]	10.51	10.25	11.42
[illegible]	[illegible]	11.30	1.07
[illegible]	[illegible]	2.15	3.25
12.15	[illegible]	3.30	4.28
[illegible]	3.45	3.40	4.55
3.25	[illegible]	4.30	5.42
4.10	5.22	5.01	6.15
5.10	6.31	6.01	7.12
6.15	[illegible]	6.35	7.45
7.00	8.02	9.30	10.30
[illegible]	10.43	[illegible]	12.12

Sunday Trains.

[illegible]	9.26	8.00	9.18
[illegible]	[illegible]	11.45	12.53
[illegible]	[illegible]	5.30	6.26
5.35	6.56	7.00	8.22
7.25	8.45

Trains by this division leave Lowell from Central street station.

Leave Boston from the new Union Station, Causeway Street.

§ Wednesdays and Saturdays only.

For Governor:

HON. JOHN E. RUSSELL of Leicester.

For Congressman:

HON. GEO. W. FIFIELD of Lowell.

For Senator:

HON. PETER J. BRADY of Lowell.

FASHION is bringing cats' tails into use. It is better to untail cats than to behead birds of beautiful plumage.

THE PROTECTED speak-easies are all working for Mr. Foss, but Senator Brady will be elected despite their underhanded efforts.

FIFIELD WANTS no more tariff legislation for the present. Knox wants a new bill, which would cause a year's trouble and depression.

THE REPUBLICANS have not thus far repudiated the A. P. A. Both organizations have been merged in one. The A. P. A. in part and parcel of the republican party.

SENATOR BRADY will be reelected despite the efforts of Foss and his friends to enlist democrats by promises of licenses and despite the efforts of populist candidates to defeat him and elect a republican.

ARE THE French citizens going to cast their lot with the A. P. A. or with the democratic party? Cyrille Constantineau is said to be working for republicans. He wants a license next year, but the commissioners says they will not make good such promises.

THE REPUBLICAN rally of Tuesday night was a tame affair throughout. Mayor Pickman's defence of the high tax rate will not be appreciated by the tax payers. It is no excuse for extravagance to say that there is on record one other instance equally bad.

LORD ROSEBERY'S proposition to submit a plan for the reform of the house of lords to the people may eventually be adopted. If it does an unexpected advance in constitutional government will have been made. The referendum in England would drive Queen Victoria off her throne and the lords out of existence.

HON. JOHN E. RUSSELL would make a model governor of Massachusetts. A man of profound scholarly attainments, familiar with the history of every struggle in the politics of this country, a staunch democrat and a genuine patriot, he would bring to the office the highest capacity possessed by any candidate for governor in this state during the past score of years.

MR. MERCIER, ex-premier of Quebec, who has recently passed away, was the leader of the independence movement in Canada. He had been ignominiously dismissed from office on charges of malfeasance, which the courts could not sustain. This attempt to crush him but made him more determined in his agitation against British tyranny, which he kept up till the time of his death.

SOME POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS.

If you want an ideal democratic governor, a patriot, a statesman and a scholar, vote for Hon. John E. Russell of Leicester. If you want the new tariff law to get a fair trial, if you want free coal and iron ore as soon as the business interests of the country will permit; if you want a representative in congress who is himself a factor in the industrial welfare of our city, if you want practical men rather than thorists vote, for Hon. George W. Fifield for congress.

If you want a friend of labor in the senate next year vote for Brady.

If you want an active energetic worker in the senate vote for Brady.

If you want a man who can exert his influence with the members of the house as well as with the senate, vote for Brady.

If you want to reward the man who did most for the normal school, for the weavers' particulars bill and other measures, vote for Brady.

But if you do not want such a representative, if you do not want a friend of labor, a friend of popular measures; if you do not want an energetic worker—if you want a man who will vote for corporation interests as opposed to labor, if you want a senator who will support monopolies when he happens to be present, a man who will absent himself two-thirds of the time and who will resign if he sees an opportunity of procuring a position on any commission, then vote for Mr. Foss or what amounts to the same thing, vote for Thomas F. Connolly, the populist candidate.

THE A. P. A. ISSUE.

The republican party tries to make light of the A. P. A. issue as if the organization was in abeyance. It is quite active, but is now so merged in the G. O. P. as to be beyond recognition. It is of some importance whether the constitutional provision against a religious test of citizenship is to stand or to be torn down, whether Catholics shall be disfranchised or retain their rights undisturbed by a lot of hypocritical pharisees parading their fanaticism and their desire for office as real patriotism. They are wolves in sheeps' clothing, a menace to the peace of the community and undeserving of the freedom they enjoy.

THE MCKINLEY bill brought about a depression in business which led the people of this country to relegate the republican party to private life. The democrats came into power but the depression went on until the republican laws which caused the depression were changed. Now prosperity has returned to stay under the fostering effect of the new tariff bill. Republicans want to restore McKinleyism, democrats want to give the present bill a fair trial. The country wants no more tariff legislation for the present. Vote the democratic ticket if you want to maintain this policy.

THE MAIL says that Mr. Fifield, although credited with never having a strike, should not be sent to congress lest he help to enact legislation that will cause strikes. It also says that were Mr. Courtney a manufacturer he would have different views on labor matters. But Mr. Fifield is a manufacturer; why not trust him on such matters? The Mail's arguments in the premises are decidedly weak and inconsistent.

WILL THE Lowell Citizen, which seems to be the Knox organ hereabouts, please explain how he came to be dubbed "Switchboard" Knox.

ANTI-DOUBLE TAX LEAGUE,

IS NOT A SECRET ORDER AND BIG MEN ARE IN IT.

It Differs Materially From the Single Tax Idea—The Future Prosperity of the Commonwealth at Stake—Borrowers Will Be Relieved of Heavy Burdens.

The Massachusetts Anti-Double-Taxation League is by no means a secret order. It has given to the public through the press its platform and its list of officers, and it has secured for these the widest circulation. The name of the league tells the difference between its contention and that of the single tax men. The league does not advocate that personal property shall not be taxed, but only that peculiarly intangible evidences of property, now by law twice taxed, shall be relieved from the second tax in Massachusetts, and two men shall not be taxed for the same property.

The platform begins:

"Double taxation is essentially unjust and injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth."

Double taxation is wrong. There is no possible argument that can make it right for the state to compel one man to pay twice upon property similar to that on which another man is compelled to pay but once; or to compel two citizens to pay taxes upon the same property. Whatever is wrong in the system of laws is of itself injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth; and this particular injustice which tends to discourage the residence here of capitalists is especially harmful.

The platform goes on: "The object of the league is the abolition of double taxation,—" This language is not in the least uncertain or ambiguous. The league means to do away with a wrong and Harmful Feature of the Laws.

The sentence partly quoted is continued thus: —"whether this (double) taxation falls upon property protected elsewhere and already taxed.—"

This phrase clearly refers to the taxation of shares of foreign corporations. Such shares are only the paper representatives of property that somewhere exists, and is there protected and taxed. The law which requires the owner of shares to pay a tax on them, although the property itself has already paid taxes, is similar to the law which formerly required the owner of a mortgage to pay another tax although the real estate which the mortgage represented in part had already been fully taxed. This old law was amended in 1882 so that now real estate pays but one tax, and the enormous advance in value of real estate and the great reduction in interest rates on mortgages is the direct result of this act of 1882. The league would extend the healthy change to personal property as well.

The second plank in the platform declares that the league would abolish double taxation when it falls —"upon both borrower and lender in respect of the same property."

Every merchant or manufacturer has felt the injustice of the law which compels him to pay full taxes upon his stock in trade without permitting him to deduct from its valuation the amount he owes upon it. It is practically impossible in these modern days of active competition for a merchant to do a successful business and sell goods cheap enough to satisfy the public demands entirely on his own capital. He must buy, to some extent, on credit, and for this credit he must pay interest. As the lender is taxed for his money at interest, the borrower should be permitted to deduct the money he owes from the value of his stock; or it would come to the same thing if the lender were exempt, the borrower would secure the advantage in a lower rate of interest. As it now is, the merchant borrower pays full taxes on his goods, and pays interest on his borrowed capital at a rate based upon the idea that the lender must also pay. As a matter of fact, the lender seldom does pay, as he avoids the tax gatherer precisely as the mortgagee under the old law used to avoid him.

The Third Plank Declares

that the league urges such a change in the law as will prevent the taxation of —"income derived from property already taxed." The law now says distinctly that "no income shall be taxed which is derived from property already taxed," but under a twisted construction of this peremptory language certain incomes so derived continue to be taxed. The league would make the plain intent of this statute so much plainer that there would be no chance of misconstruction.

The fourth plank advocates the exemption of municipal obligations. It is common knowledge that interest on city and town loans must be paid by the taxpayers of the debtor cities and towns. If it were possible to compel every holder of municipal bonds to contribute in the shape of taxes a part of the interest to which he is entitled, it would make no difference whether the bonds were taxable or exempt, but in fact a great part of every municipal loan is sold to non-residents. Our own taxpayers are prevented from buying these securities, because whatever the rate of interest promised, nearly one-third of it must be reckoned as liable to be demanded back for taxes; and so it happens that every city or town in the commonwealth actually pays higher rates (which increase the tax bills) than it would pay if the bonds or notes were legally free of taxes.

The platform closes with a form of mutual association for promoting the main objects of the league, and with great significance declares the purpose to be also "strenuously to oppose any of those changes in the laws now advocated which would tend to aggravate

The Evils of Double Taxation."

Among the changes that the league opposes is conspicuous the proposition urged in the legislature of 1894 to repeal the law of 1882 whereby mortgaged real estate is now taxed the same as though it was not mortgaged. Among the million or more depositors in savings banks, or among the fifty thousand shareholders of co-operative banks, or among the quarter million borrowers on mortgage of real estate, there is not one who would voluntarily return to the old system. Nevertheless, a certain party of impracticables profess to believe that this law should be repealed. (If the league does no better work than to prevent this it will have justified its existence.)

Another measure opposed by the league is the proposition to compel those few foreign corporations which still retain a place of business in Massachusetts to annually disclose a list of their shareholders. Still another is the proposal to compel every person resident within the state to declare under oath under penalty of possible imprisonment every item of his holdings in these companies so unjustly taxed. It is a simple business truth that if the first suggestion could be carried out before next May there would be no foreign corporations "having a usual place of business" in Massachusetts. All the great western railroads, the mining companies and the manufacturing companies, with all their multitudes of clerks, would depart instantly rather than to be used as spies and informers upon their own stockholders.

As regards the other it is certain that if enforced it would deprive the state of many of her most valuable citizens. It would be a revival of the inquisition. Exactly as the undue enforcement of the doomage law drove out of Boston the multitude of citizens who have created Manchester, Beverly, Nahant, Cohasset and dozens of other beautiful towns that might be named, so would the turning of the thumbscrews make New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York more desirable than Massachusetts.

Every patriotic citizen should rejoice that so many strong men have taken hold of this vital question, and should hasten to join the league.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE

gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery

is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Breach, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations.

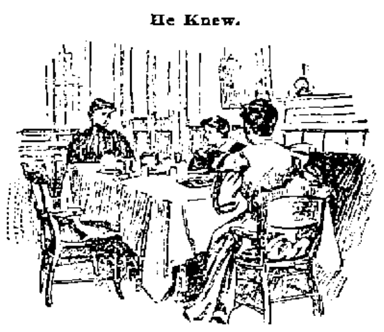

PILE TUMORS, however large, Fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.

STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. For pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

SUNBEAMS.

He Knew.

Mrs. Twickenham—I am sorry my table doesn't look any better, but all my silver is at the Safe Deposit company.

Mrs. Dimpleton—I think it looks lovely. What company do you go to?

Mrs. Twickenham—I really don't know. My husband attended to it.

Willie Twickenham—Why, it's papa's uncle's.—Brooklyn Life.

Better Than "Pap."

There was an excursion down from Shelbyville, Ind., yesterday, and the Hoosiers were scattered all over the city looking with wide, staring eyes at everything. On the ferryboat Hite was a group of the most rural looking of them.

There was one big, rawboned fellow that I noticed particularly. He wanted to talk, I could plainly see by his manner, and I smiled encouragingly at him. Then he said:

"I guess yer folks is s'prised to see so many of us fellers down here."

I remarked that we were all greatly surprised, but that we were also pleased, because they all looked so intelligent and seemed so sociable.

"Well, I'll jest tell you how I came ter come," resumed my rural acquaintance, becoming confidential. "Yer see the folks out our way ain't never seed anything 'ceptin cricks. an thet man what's seed er real river is some pumpkins. Dad he seed the Wabash when he was a boy, an he ain't done nothin sense but talk about that there river, an the swellin waves, an the dancin boats, an tur'bel storms. Course ever'body had to stop soon as he got started, 'cause nobody'd seed er river, an he could jest tell whatever he thought of, an nobody could argy with him. When I heerd that there was goin ter be an excursion, I went ter the postmaster, an I asked him if there was airy river 'bout Louisville. He says there was, an that it were the Ohier. He says it were a heap sight bigger'n the Wabash, an I jest got me a ticket an started ter git ahead of pap. Ain't I goin ter see it? Well, I reckon!"

With a triumphant stride he stalked down the levee to get on one of the boats at the Mail line wharf and see the wonders.—Louisville Commercial.

The Theater Hat.

Slumm—Have you seen the new arrangement for ladies' theater hats?

Glumm—No. What is it?

Slumm—It's a stepladder attachment so a man can climb up and look over.—Detroit Free Press.

INDAPO THE GREAT HINDOO REMEDY PRODUCES THE ABOVE RESULTS in 30 DAYS. Cures all Nervous Diseases, Failing Memory, Paresis, Sleeplessness, Nightly Emissions, etc., caused by past abuses, gives vigor and size to shrunken organs, and quickly but surely restores Lost Manhood in old or young. Easily carried in vest pocket. Price $1.00 a package. Six for $5.00 with a written guarantee to cure or money refunded. Don't buy an imitation, but insist on having INDAPO. If your druggist has not got it, we will send it prepaid. Oriental Medical Co., Props., Chicago, Ill., or our agents. SOLD by Ellingwood & Co., Cor. Central & Merrimack Sts., and Carleton & Hovey, 161 Merrimack Street, LOWELL, MASS., and leading druggists elsewhere.

A Colossal Harp.

The largest harp ever made, so far as is known, was that invented and constructed by M. Veritan, provost of Burkli, near Basle. It was known as the gigantic meteorological Æolian harp. It was 320 feet in length and was erected in the garden of its inventor in 1787. This harp consisted of 15 iron wires, 320 feet in length, stretched between two poles. The wires were from two to three inches apart, the largest being one-sixth of an inch in thickness and the smallest one-twelfth of an inch. They were placed in the direction of north and south and inclined in such a manner as to form an angle of from 20 to 30 degrees with the horizon, being stretched by means of rollers properly disposed for the purpose. Whenever the weather changed, the wires sounded with such loudness that it was impossible to go on with a concert in the house. The sound sometimes represented the hissing noise of water in rapid ebullition, sometimes that of a harmonicon and sometimes that of distant chimes or an organ.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A King's Retort.

King Victor Emmanuel used often to tire before the termination of a day's sport, and mules and horses being out of the question in the precipitous mountain paths he would mount on the back of his chief huntsman, an Alpine Hercules, named Borretta. One day Borretta, having the king on his back, was crossing a torrent. The king having raised his foot to avoid getting his gaiter wet, the sudden movement almost capsized Borretta. Unmindful for a moment of the rank of his burden, he growled out, "Tente au, bourie" ("Hold steady, you jackass"). Without manifesting the least irritation or surprise, the king replied, "You apparently ignore, friend Borretta, that the jackass is the one who carries the load." And nothing more was said about the matter.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Potatoes.

When you have strained your plain boiled potatoes, take them at once to the open door or window and give them a vigorous shaking in the draft. They will become white and mealy. Try it once, and you will do it always, so great is the improvement, says the New York Telegram.

P. H. SKELON, 557 and 559 Gorham St. Boarding, Hack and Livery Stable.

JAMES H. CARMICHAEL, No. 97 Central Street, Counsellor at Law and Notary Public

You Can Recover

From the shock and insure

Good Spirits

By eating the new Pettijohn's Breakfast Gem, 12c. per pkg.; and by drinking Old Grist Mill Coffee.

THE BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY

Old No. 199 Middlesex St. New No. 455.

Opp. Northern Depot. Telephone 374-3, Brass Signs.

CALEB L. SMITH..............Proprietor

BACHELLER, DUMAS & CO.

Paper Ruling, Book and Pamphlet Binding. Blank Books a Specialty

42 CHURCH STREET.

MULLIN & WINSLOW,

Dealers In

COAL

At Summer Prices

1018 Gorham Street.

Telephone 21-6.

Will You Have One?

We have a glass dish suitable for piccalily, berries of any kind, or for a hundred and one uses on the dining-room table, which we are selling for

Only 5c. Each

These dishes are a lot we bought at wholesale in New York, and the price asked barely covers cost. Come in and see them.

French & Puffer.

245 Central Street.

Arthur M. Bertrand,

(Successor to F. W. Sargent,)

MERCHANT TAILOR.

FINE TAILORING A SPECIALTY.

24 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

Dress Suits to Let.

Great Removal Sale.

We are about to remove to more commodious quarters and find it necessary to close out our present stock of Harnesses of every description. The greatly reduced prices will place our stock within reach of everybody in need of Harnesses. Have leased for a term of years the "Old Brabrook Stand," established in 1827.

J. C. DONOVAN,
57 Market street.

Have You Seen The

Climbing Monkey?

PRICE 25c.

Look in our Window.
Toys of all kinds in great variety.

Bartlett & Dow.

No. 216 Central Street.

PHILIP J. FARLEY, Room 11 Barristers' Hall.
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JOHN A. McQUADE & CO., Room 12, Mansur Block, Central St.,
Constable and Collecting Agency,
And Auctioneer.

JOSEPH W. LEACH, Room 12, Shedd's Block
Soloist and Teacher of Singing.

P. J. HOAR, Merrimack, Cor. Palmer,
Attorney at Law.
O'Donnell & Gilbride's Block.

BOOT'S OLD 64 CIGAR, For Sale by all Dealers.
For a Good Smoke Try One.
No. 9 Merrimack St. Henry Boot, Prop

LOWELL AGENCY FOR

FRANK JONES' ALE.

—AND THE—

Celebrated Anheuser Busch Beer.

The Trade and Families Supplied at Lowest Prices.

Orders by mail or telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN LENNON,

NO. 302 MARKET Street.

TELEPHONE—No. 38-2.

WM. E. LIVINGSTON,

DEALER IN

Coal, Wood, Lime,

CEMENT, SAND, GRAVEL,
HAIR, KAOLIN, PLASTER,
BRICKS, FERTILIZERS.
Straw, Hay Grain, Flour
&c., &c.

NO. 15 THORNDIKE STREET,

Branch office, 49 Merrimack street,—Calderwood's cigar store.

$50.00

A Fine Square Piano, just right for beginner. $8 cash and $5 a month. Stool and Cover.

GARDNER'S

Music Store,

45 PRESCOTT ST., LOWELL, MASS.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

Wholesale Prices to the Consumer. Best Minnesota Haxall Flour,

$4.00 Per Bbl.

50c. 1-8 Bbl. Sack. A printed Guarantee with every barrel or sack bought. Other goods sold on a small margin but we are selling Flour just now.

F. M. BARNEY & CO.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers,

415 MIDDLESEX ST., LOWELL, MASS.

WATSON BAKERY

Every evening at 5 o'clock Hot Tea Rolls and Cream Bread, also all kinds of Cake and Pastry. Only the best stock used in the manufacture of our goods. Parties supplied at short notice at

Nos. 24 to 30 CHARLES STREET.

Peter Watson, Prop.

PETER J. BRADY,

GROCER.

448 Gorham Street.

Choice, Teas, Coffees and Spices. Try our "BIG TWELVE," brand of flour, the best in the city.

NEW LUMBER YARD.

No. 255 HILDRETH STREET.

Best Quality. Lowest Prices. Cedar Posts a Specialty.

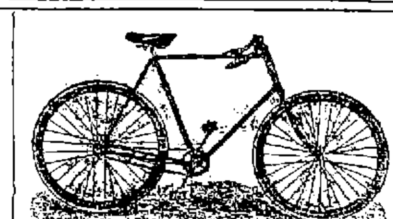

P. V. Allen & Co.,

Telephone 568-5.

FISHER H. PEARSON, Room 44 P. O. Block,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JAMES A. CAWLEY, Moore Street
COAL.
Telephone for Summer Prices. All orders promptly delivered. (Late of firm of Cawley Bros

CHARLES E. FROST, 78 Central Street
Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry,
Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, Ammunition, Fire-arms, etc. Fine Watch repairing.

CLEVELAND WHEELS.

Callahan & Sanborn

Merrimack Square, Bridge St.

DRS. CUFF & CONSTANTINEAU

Surgeon Dentists

Rooms 5, 6, 7 8, Bon Marche Build'g, 159 Merrimack Street.

SCOTT & O'DAY,

Plumbers and Sanitary Engineers.

Steam, Gas and Water Piping.

JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

54 Appleton Street,

Opposite New Post Office.

Dancing - School.

Associate Hall. MR. BANTA will be at this hall every Wednesday after 3, to give Private Lessons in the Highland Fling, Hornpipe, Spanish Dance, Skip Rope, Sword Dance, Skirt Dance, Irish Reel, Jig, Clog Dance, Winging, &c., also Waltz, Schottische, Galop, Polka, any style dancing desired, $1 per lesson. Class in Ball Room Dancing meet at 8 every Wednesday Ev'g. Patrons may join this class by the lesson. 50c. per lesson

What?

The "VICTOR" Boiler is for Heating.

The "WELSBACH" Burner is for Lighting.

-THE-

H. R. Barker M'f'g Co.

THERE IS

no brand of high grade beers that smacks of better flavor, than the "Premier" or "Bavarian."

NO BETTER

stimulating and healthgiving beverage in the market than Smith's Philadelphia

ALE

for which we are sole Lowell agents.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF,

55 Middle Street.,

Parker block, Near Palmer Street.

G. W. Harrington & Bro.,

Manufacturers of the Finest Carbonated Soda Beverages in the City. The choicest line of

Lager and Stock Ales

In the city. Family Trade a Specialty. Order by Telephone 346-4.

CORNER WINTER AND DAVIS STS

Do You Go To Lawrence?

If So, Call At

THE HOTEL BRUNSWICK,

Which now has the Finest Dining Rooms in the city. They have been recently renovated. The Cuisine is Unsurpassed

Now Is the Time to Buy.

PICTURES, DIPLOMAS FRAMED,
85c. TO $1.00.
LARGE LINE OF MOULDINGS.
Our Prices Are Always One-third Off.

GEO. E. MAKER,
No. 2 John St., Marble Bank Building.

JAMES MEEK,

HAY, GRAIN AND POULTRY FOOD.

Little Stone Mill foot of Anne St.

LOWEST PRICES. TELEPHONE 9-22

Farrell & Conaton

248 DUTTON ST.,

Practical Plumbers

AND

Sanitary Engineers.

Also Steam, Gas and Water Fitters. We also carry a large line of Gas Fixtures at lowest price.

JAMES MARREN,

Real Estate and Insurance Agent,

121 CENTRAL STREET.

Insurance placed in the most reliable companies.

All orders sent to P. O. Box 486 shall be promptly attended to.

DOORS,
BLINDS,
GLAZED
WINDOWS.

Regular sizes in stock, odd sizes made to order. Goods first quality. Prompt delivery.

J. H. HOWARD,

COMMISSION MERCHANT.

Cor. Market & Shattuck Sts.

DO YOU WANT THE BEST?

The Richmond Range

It is the Best in the World.

AND IS WARRANTED.

ARE YOU IN NEED OF A

PARLOR - STOVE?

We can show you a fine line of Elegant Heaters Up to Date.

Peter Davey.

134 MARKET STREET - - OPPOSITE PALMER.

TELEPHONE: RESIDENCE, 458-2. STORE, 314.2.

NO - DULL - TIMES - AT

YOUNG'S

Ever Popular Bargain Store, 111 Central Street.

TRADE INCREASING EVERY WEEK. No wonder. Look at the Bargains we offer for Friday and Saturday—

25 doz Gent's Night Robes, made in first-class style of the best New England Cotton, 58 inches long, for 50 Cents Each, offered as a great bargain in other stores at 75c each.

22 doz Ladies' Night Robes, such as we have been selling at 59c each and you cannot buy the same class of goods elsewhere under $1.25. To make short work of the lot our price will be 50 Cents Each.

3 cases Ladies' Heavy Fleeced Jersey Ribbed Vests and Pants, only 25c each; also better grades 38 and 49c. each.

Ladies' All-Wool Scarlet and Camel Hair Vests and Pants, 75c each, worth $1.

A full line of Children's Merino and All wool Vests and Pants from 8c upwards.

Gent's Heavy Merino and Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers, 25, 38, 40, 45, and 49c each. Gent's All-Wool Scarlet Vests and Pants 49c each, worth 75c.

120 doz Ladies' Fast Black and Natural Wool Seamless Hose, advertised as a great bargain elsewhere at 19c.; our price 15 Cents a pair. 86 doz. Children's Fast Black Hose (double knee), 15c a pair; regular price 25c. a pair. Large Skein Best Scotch Yarn 20c. a skein. Best Spanish Yarn 15c a Skein. Best Saxony Yarn 9c. a Skein. Best Germantown Yarn 12 1-2c. a Skein. Special Bargains in stamped goods. Large Tidies, Tray Cloths, Splashers, 8c each. You can't buy the same class of goods in this city less than 10c. each, and lots of other Bargains at YOUNG'S, 111 Central Street.

TEETH

$5 TO $10 A SET.

To our patients who do not find it convenient to call during the day, please call at noontimes, or Saturday afternoons as our office is not open evenings. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

NO CHARGE FOR EXTRACTING.

Every Set warranted to be the same Teeth that other dentists ask $16 and $18 for, and every Set warranted to fit. Gold Fillings and Gold Crown work a specialty. Teeth Filled with Gold by Electricity. No Pain. Teeth extracted Without Pain by our new method. 30 years experience. DRS. J. K. BICKELL & SON. Painless Dentists, Rooms 24, 25, and 32 Runels' Building, Cor. Merrimack and Bridge Sts

A MAN
WITH HALF
AN IDEA OF WHAT
IS THE CORRECT THING,
WOULD SAY THAT OUR WALL
PAPERS ARE SURELY THE BEST. - -

A. L. Kittredge & Co., 208 CENTRAL ST.

BARGAINS. —IN— BARGAINS

H-O-S-I-E-R-Y.

BROWN ∴ BROTHERS,

OPP. MONUMENT SQUARE.

1 Case Ladies' Fast Black Hose, 10c, regular price 12½c a pair.
49 doz. Ladies' Balbriggan Fleeced Lined Hose, 10c, down town price 20c pair
63 doz. Ladies' Fancy Striped Hose, 10c, former price 15c a pair.
90 doz. Ladies' Black All-Wool Hose, 20c, worth 25c a pair.
59 doz Ladies' Natural Wool and Oxford Grey Hose, 25c, sold elsewhere for 38c
1 case Children's Fast Black Hose, 10c, a bargain at 15c a pair.
120 doz. Children's Fine Wool Hose, 20 and 25c a pair.
2 cases Gent's Cotton Hose, 10c, 3 pairs for 25c.
1 case Gent's Seamless Hose, 12½c, cheap at 15c.
150 Gent's Wool Hose, 15c a pair.
2 cases Gent's Blue and Gray Ribbed Hose, 25c, a bargain at 35c. Don't forget to stop here before going down town.

BROWN BROS., OPPOSITE MONUMENT SQUARE.

YOU ARE SURE

To have them during the next six weeks. We refer to the customary coughs and colds which always appear with the change from summer to fall weather. Taken in time they are easily shaken off, but if allowed to run may last all winter, and end with some serious complaint like consumption. Do you remember some of the marvelous cures performed by

Ellingwood's

Cough Balsam

Last winter? All we want now is to remind you of the best preparation in the world for coughs and colds, and later we shall publish testimonials from some of our well known and reliable citizens which must convince you of its value as a curer.

Price 25c., 50c., and $1 a Bottle.

DR. KELLEY, SURGEON DENTIST

THE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

OFFICE:

22 Shattuck Street, Corner Middle.

SEWALL G. MACK, President; JACOB ROGERS Treasurer; D. B. BARTLETT, Clerk.

Directors: Sewall G. Mack, Levi Sprague, Jacob Rogers, Alex. G. Cumnock, George S. Motley Edward M. Tucke, James Francis.

PRICE OF GAS,

With the Discount Off for Prompt Payment, is

$1.00 ONE THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Cooking Stoves set up and rented at a low rate per year, piping included. COKE, broken, screened and delivered at $4.50 per chaldron, $2.25 per half chaldron, cash.

No charge made for the use of meters.

No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar.

Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

E. H. DONOVAN, Office: 58 Gorham Street.
Constable and Auctioneer.

ABOUT THE HOUSEHOLD LORE.

BEDSTEADS AND PILLOWSLIPS OF VARIOUS COLORS.

Some New Styles of Madras Muslin—Piano Decorations—Deviled Ham—Odd Picture Frames.

Renaissance lace spreads and round bolsters covered with the same are the bed trimmings most in vogue among the wealthy folk, but there are a host of simple things which are charming and have the merit of being available as well. Splendor may be desirable, but somehow it does not appeal to every one's sense of desirableness.

In a young girl's room, completed not long since, the spread is described in the New York Herald as of finest mull, dotted here and there with tiny rosebuds. It is finished with a full frill, and with it are used pillowslips of sheer linen lawn, embroidered with flowers, like those of the mull, and drawn over pale pink silk. The whole outfit costs very little money, but is simply delightful and has just that air of dainty perfection which belongs to the perfect bed.

Another attractive spread is of fine Madras muslin, cream colored, with a figure in warm reds and browns, and is also finished with a frill. The bolster is round, but not hard, and the spread, which is of extra length, is pulled up over it as well as the bed proper. The effect is most charming, and as the cover is only laid lightly over the whole the bed seems always invitingly ready for use.

Pure white is used by many women, and just now is urged by some authorities, but unless for summer or in the lightest colored rooms it seems cold and unsatisfactory. The old fashioned Marseilles or pique cover is very far from desirable, and the lighter, daintier fabrics require such frequent change as to make them more costly than silk. White is only good when it is absolutely pure. Anything approaching a condition of soil entirely spoils its effect.

Deviled Ham.

Cut a thick slice of ham from the leanest part. Mild, slightly smoked ham is the best for this operation. Dip the slice in warm lard, so that every portion of the lean is covered. Dredge it with dry curry powder or black pepper. Broil over a clear fire, turning frequently and taking care not to cook too much. Serve with the following sauce poured over the ham: One teaspoonful of black pepper mixed with 2 of mustard flour. Melt an ounce of butter in a saucepan and work in the mustard. Dilute with 4 tablespoonfuls of meat stock or water; add a tablespoonful of minced gherkin or capers and a few drops of vinegar. Make this boiling hot. Add more vinegar if not acid enough. Pour the sauce on to a very hot meat dish. Lay the broil on it. None of the sauce must touch the upper surface of the broiled meat. Garnish with lemon rings and serve.

An Odd Picture Frame.

Although the following has a somewhat homely sound, Good Housekeeping says the effect will be novel and give the impression of a handsomely carved and very unique frame:

Take an old flat frame, or one nearly so, and cover it in all sorts of fantastic shapes with small oyster shells, rough side out, and then gild them about two coats. The shells should be washed thoroughly with a brush to get off all particles of dirt and two holes drilled in each. This last operation will require patience to avoid breaking. Still broken pieces will be necessary to fill in the odd chinks, as the whole should be covered. Large tacks or lath nails will hold them on firmly.

By varnishing the whole with copal varnish after gilding it can always be washed free from the dust which is bound to collect on any rough surface.

Piano Decoration.

In refurnishing a parlor it is ofttimes a matter of difficulty to bring the old piano into harmony with the newer surroundings. A means suggested by The Decorator and Furnisher for conforming it to the changed conditions is to place the instrument with the back facing outward, in which case there develops numerous ways of treatment. A drapery may be arranged, as suggested in the illustration, and the angle formed by the piano and wall made to form a cozy corner, or a low three fold screen, with panels of silkaline, may be disposed against it. Very pleasing effects in this connection may be obtained by the use of growing or artificial plants of the palm variety.

A PIANO BACK ARRANGEMENT.

But when it is not possible to thus place the piano, and it is necessary to have it set in the usual manner, other methods of adornment will have to be devised. The top can be covered and the ends concealed by a drapery reaching to the floor. The space above the keyboard may be treated with a suitable textile fabric gathered on rods placed top and bottom and over this arranged in graceful folds a festoon drapery. This may be in one, two or three sections or may be a simple silken scarf artistically arranged from time to time.

Oyster and Celery Salad.

Chop sufficient oysters for the dish into dice and shred finely some good crisp celery. Now toss these two in some rich mayonnaise dressing and put it all in a glass dish. Mask it all thoroughly over with more mayonnaise and serve garnished with celery tufts. The secret of this salad is to have it made just as it is wanted, with materials that, though not iced, should yet be perfectly cold. This salad is also very good if lobster is used instead of the oysters.

Water Power Gun.

What is called a "water power machine gun" has been patented. It is described as having a number of circumferentially arranged barrels in the rear of which is a feed wheel carrying a cartridge belt and operatively connected with a water wheel, in connection with mechanism for exploding the cartridges. There is little mechanism liable to get out of repair in the gun, which is designed to automatically fire a continuous stream of bullets. It may be operated by hand if the water supply fails.

How to Test Nutmegs.

Prick them with a pin, and if they are good the oil will instantly spread around the puncture.

A SOLDIER'S DOOM.

Bitten by a Mad Horse, It Was Only a Question of Time.

One day at the fort a sudden cry was raised that the major's horse had gone mad, but it was not until the wild eyed and foam flecked animal had been shot as he rushed back and forth across the parade ground that we learned he had bitten Corporal Wallace on the arm when he first gained his liberty. Some said the horse had been bitten by reptile or insect and was only frenzied with pain. Others dropped their voices to a whisper as they recalled the suspicious actions of a strange dog which had been fired upon and driven away a week or two before. The teeth of the horse had torn cloth and flesh and drawn blood. He had not bitten like a horse, but snapped like a dog.

"Pooh, man, no danger, no danger!" the surgeon had said as he dressed the wound.

"It's only a scratch, and we won't talk about it," the corporal made answer to all his comrades.

We had nothing more to say, except among ourselves, but from that hour every trooper in "C" company felt that Corporal Wallace was a doomed man, just as surely doomed as if a court martial had sentenced him to death and the president had refused to interfere with the findings. You will say it was curious that we avoided him. So it was, and yet we could not but feel that he was a dead man walking about among us. We heard him speak, we saw him in apparent good health, we listened to his songs and stories at night, and yet every man who heard and saw and listened kept repeating over and over to himself:

"The corporal was bitten by a mad horse, and sooner or later he will go mad and die."

The man sought to blind himself to the situation, but he could not. We had the feeling upon us, and we could not shake it off. Each morning we looked at him and wondered if the terrible virus would show itself before night. Each night we looked at him and wondered why he did not rush out on the broad plains in the darkness and try to run away from the specter. He was a big, brave hearted fellow, carrying the scars of half a dozen battles. He sang and whistled and was merry, and yet he did not deceive us. We knew the haunting fear and terrible thoughts which came to him at night when wrapped in his blanket and the barracks were quiet.

Days passed away, and yet men whispered when they spoke of Corporal Wallace. Weeks passed away, and yet men looked at him askance and still regarded him as walking in the shadow of death. April, May, June, and then the restless Indians broke away from the reservation, and the troops were sent out to find and drive them back. When "C" company was drawn up in line for departure, there was Corporal Wallace in his proper place. Why not? There was no bigger, healthier man in the troop, nor one whose saber or carbine could be depended on to do more execution. And yet we wondered that he should go, and there were murmurs of dissatisfaction as we rode away. He was a doomed man, a dead man sitting in the saddle as if he were one of us.

Days and nights of hard riding and hunger and thirst, and we turned the Indians back. It had been a week of wild haste and constant excitement, and the troopers were bruised and sore and exhausted as we made camp after an all day's ride. We had no fuel for fires and little to eat, but there was a grand spring at which man and beast quenched their thirst. The darkness was falling and we had huddled together when some one whispered that Corporal Wallace was sitting alone by himself. Then another drew us closer together and said he had seen the corporal kneel down to drink at the spring and start back as if he had caught sight of a serpent. We whispered and wondered and peered at him through the gloom, but no man approached him. By and by he arose, stood for a moment as if undecided and then walked with faltering step to the spring. When he reached it, he turned his head away and knelt down. Then he made as if he would drink, but sprang to his feet, with a cry of horror, and rushed away into the darkness.

"It has come! The corporal is mad!" was shouted through the camp, and for a moment confusion reigned supreme. Then there came a sudden silence, broken after a few seconds by the voice of our captain making a detail to secure the man and by the blood curdling yells of the corporal as he raced away into the black night with death keeping pace at his side.

Five, ten, twenty men pursued him within the hour. He ran here and there, dodged and turned, always escaping the hands which sought to clutch him, and again and again returning to the spring to quench the awful thirst upon him, but always shrieking at the sight of the water bubbling up. For more than an hour we pursued him as if he were some wild animal we sought to capture. Then at last he broke through our lines again, circled back to the spring, and with a cry of agony which was heard all over the camp he fell down and writhed and twisted about for a moment or two and died. He had been a doomed man for weeks and months. We bent over the body and saw the look of horror on the face growing pale, the hard shut teeth, the blood and froth on his lips, and we were glad that death had come at last.

M. QUAD.

How Eagles Catch Sage Hens.

A gentleman who has cruised through the Powder river valley tells an interesting tale in regard to the manner in which the eagles contrive to catch sage hens. These birds, like the grouse family, fly with great swiftness, and in a stern chase an eagle is not in it at all with one of them. In order that the eagle may dine on sage hen some hard work is necessary, and the eagle has solved the problem.

As the gentleman was driving along the side of a mountain he started a covey of sage hens, which flew away down toward the valley. Suddenly an eagle, which had been sitting on the low ground, rose up under the birds, which immediately rose high in the air, while the eagle flopped up after them. When they had risen high enough, another eagle swooped down from above. The terrified birds scattered in all directions, but the eagle singled out one, and as an eagle on the swoop goes like a shot out of a gun he soon seized his bird, and the pair flew off to a neighboring cliff to dine.—Portland Oregonian.

There Were Two Kinds of Fish.

Mr. Broker says he has changed his restaurant down town, "so he can know what he's getting." His mind got uncertain about his old place after an experience he had last Friday. Friday is "fish day" at this place, and Mr. B. likes fish when it is "just right." So he cast his eye over the bill of fare and remarked: "Lizzie, how is the boiled codfish today? If it is good, you may bring me some; but, you mind, if it isn't good I don't want it. Do you see?"

Lizzie saw and departed, and then Mr. Broker says he heard her call down the shaft of the dumb waiter in the rear, "One boiled cod, please, off the new fish!"—New York Tribune.

The famous Da Vinci regarded painting as the least of his talents. He was a physician, a surgeon, an anatomist, a mathematician, a military and civil engineer, a goldsmith, a sculptor, a poet, an architect, a machinist and an inventor.

SCIENTIFIC AND PROGRESSIVE.

SOME REMARKABLE PLANTS AND FLOWER GROWTHS.

Natural Curios in Various Parts of the World—How They Came About—A Type Writer for Bookkeepers.

A Canadian climber, the Physianthus albens, has received the name of "cruel plant" from its ill treatment of butterflies. It flowers in the month of August, and the butterflies, attracted by the perfume, hover round it in large numbers and push their trunks into the corollas to sip

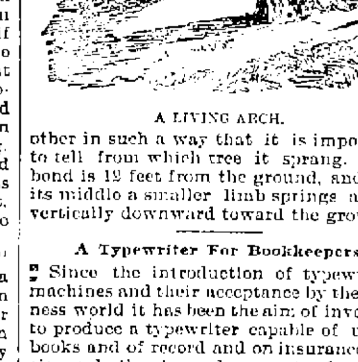

THE CRUEL PLANT.

the honey. A pair of sensitive vegetable pinchers in the heart of the flower grips the delicate proboscis, and in spite of struggles to get free the butterfly hangs suspended until it dies. Apparently the plant has nothing to gain by the death of the insect, as it is not "carnivorous," like the Venus flytrap. In fact, if the butterfly were allowed to come and go, it would tend to foster the species by assisting cross fertilization. It appears, however, that the "cruel plant" came originally from Brazil, where the butterflies are much stronger and extricate their suckers from the trap. We may add that another Canadian plant, the Cnicus discolor, is charged with cruelty. The flower has a gland which secretes a viscous liquid capable of liming insects which are fond of it. Moreover, they seem to be stupefied and poisoned by it, and no reason can as yet be assigned for the deadly consequence.

A remarkable tree growth described and illustrated, as is the foregoing, by Cassell's Magazine, exists in an arch between a private park and a public road at Middleboro, Mass. It is formed of three trunks, which coalesce, and a fourth has been added for symmetry by the owner of the park, but whether the trunks are independent trees or have sprung from one root has not been ascertained. Such a curio from the hand of nature is certainly more interesting than an artificial entrance.

Another curious tree growth reported consists of two beeches, over a foot in diameter and 20 feet apart, joined like the Siamese twins by a nearly horizontal branch, which appears to have grown out of one trunk and united itself with the other in such a way that it is impossible to tell from which tree it sprang. This bond is 12 feet from the ground, and near its middle a smaller limb springs almost vertically downward toward the ground.

A LIVING ARCH.

A Typewriter For Bookkeepers.

Since the introduction of typewriting machines and their acceptance by the business world it has been the aim of inventors to produce a typewriter capable of use on books and of record and on insurance policies and other large documents of varying sizes. According to the New York Sun, this is now accomplished in a machine which will receive a book of any required width or thickness, will write a line long or short and is so devised that the distance between lines may be scaled to suit the amount of space at hand. A noticeable feature also is the ribbon attachment for writing with ink of any desired color. The removal of a black ribbon, for instance, and the substitution of a red, purple or green ribbon is accomplished with both ease and celerity.

Where several copies of a manuscript are desired there is an arrangement by which the last copy of a dozen or 15 comes out as plain as the first. Finally this book writing machine includes in its scope of utility the work done by all other typewriters in general and a single sheet of note paper seems quite as much at home between its rollers as a double entry ledger.

An Indestructible Lamp Wick.

This wick, made entirely of clay, is rendered capillary by incorporating with the clay, while it is in a plaster state, filaments of unspun vegetable fiber, which are burned out in the process of baking. The burning out of the vegetable fiber leaves capillary tubes running longitudinally through the wick, through which the oil from the lamp will be raised to the flame by capillary attraction. Owing to the perfect combustion of the wick the flame is perfectly white in character, devoid of odor and smokeless. It is claimed that an indestructible wick is thus provided which possesses all the advantageous qualities of an ordinary cotton or fiber wick, and, in addition, lasts an indefinite time without renewal or necessity of trimming or care.

The Light of the Sun.

The light of the sun, according to Mr. Tesla, is the result of vibrations in 94,000,000 miles of ether, which separate us from the center of this solar system. "It is difficult for me," he said, "to give you an idea that you will readily grasp about this question of vibration. In ordinary life our minds do not deal with the figures that come up in such investigations, but take a 6 and put after it 14 zeros, then you will have the number of vibrations which occur in the ether every second, and which produce light." To duplicate sunlight by producing this number of vibrations here on earth by means of suitable apparatus is one of the problems which, according to an exchange, now engage Tesla's attention.

His Natural Disadvantages.

Rankin—Your trousers always bag at the knees. Why don't you keep them creased, as I do?

Fyle—Because it wouldn't do any good. My shin bone won't fit into a crease, and yours will.—Chicago Tribune.

WM. F. COURTNEY,
13 and 14 Mansur Block
Attorney at Law.

WANTED MONEY

Train Wreckers Wanted Money at Any Cost,

AN AWFUL JOB PLANNED BY ROBBERS.

Confession of a Conscience Stricken Individual.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 1.—A special to The Wisconsin from Merrill says that wholesale murder and robbery were the motives of the recent train wrecking on the "Soo" road. Two men charged with the murder of the man who lost his life were given a hearing yesterday and were held for trial. One of the prisoners confessed, and it is now known what prompted the wreckers to derail the Boston limited near Heafford Junction on the night of Oct. 7.

Fireman Cottrill was killed in the wreck. Leavitt Hazelton, the man who confessed, is only 20 years old. Frank Williams, his companion, denies any knowledge of the wrecking. Hazelton says he spent a week sawing the piles and stringers of the bridge. They sought to kill everyone aboard the train and then rob the safe in the express car.

Hazelton's Story.

It was last Friday that Hazelton signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Klutze, notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Payser, District Attorney Anderson and F. X. Holze. Hazelton said:

"About dark we set to work with the purpose of wrecking a passenger train, so we could rob the express car. We expected the wreck would be much worse than it was. We expected that the cars would be all thrown from the track, smashed up and the passengers and train crew all killed, so that we would have no one to prevent us from accomplishing our purpose. We thought mostly of the money we would get and not the loss of life.

"We began work west of the center of the bridge. We cut all the stringers across the bridge and two sets of them at the ends, and then sawed the piles or posts upon which they rested. We also cut a brace.

After a Train Passed Over

we sawed the outside post and the other brace, took the bolts out of the fishplates, the spikes next to the fishplates and removed the bolts from the fishplates at each end of the rail.

"We waited at the east end of the bridge until the westbound passenger train came and broke through the bridge. We were on the south side of the track at the east end of the bridge when the crash came. Then we walked westward to the point where the wreck was. We heard some one crying: 'Are you hurt?' The other man answered: 'A little.' Then we heard some one crying out again.

"We did not wait to hear more. A man was coming toward us, and that scared us. We walked away and went pretty near to the next town on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul track and went into a hay barn. We remained there three days and then started for Merrill."

Drew a Big Crowd.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The fierce fight which has been waged in the Tenth congressional district between M. J. McEttrick and W. S. McNary, the independent and regular Democratic nominees, culminated last night in a joint debate between the two men at Gray's hall. Fully 6000 people gathered outside the hall, and as its capacity is only 800 a great crush ensued. Several people were injured and store windows near the hall were broken in by the great pressure. The debate itself reached no satisfactory result.

A Peculiar Case.

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 1.—Clement Walls of Lubec has just had his reason restored after 45 years of idiocy. When a boy, his skull was fractured by a kick from a colt. Surgeons have just found that a bit of broken bone pressed on his brain, which being raised gave back to the organ its wonted vigor. Curiously enough, Walls' brain force seems to have been in complete suspension during his idiocy, for the first thing he asked the doctors was, "Did the colt get away?"

A B. Y. P. U. Anniversary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The Baptist Young People's union of Massachusetts held an anniversary last night in the Bowdoin Square tabernacle. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Walter Calley, Boston; vice presidents, W. W. Main, Boston; H. T. Bailey, Scituate, and Rev. H. S. Johnson, Pittsfield; secretary, Rev. M. F. Johnson, Middleboro; treasurer, C. P. Jameson, Boston.

Interesting Evidence.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 1.—At the Haverhill boodle trial yesterday several aldermen, it was shown, had been entertained by liquor applicants; a pool was formed, it was said, by one of the defendants, Mr. Smith of Boston, for "campaign expenses." The witnesses were told by aldermen that licenses would cost about $200.

The Y. W. C. A. Convention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Nearly all the city and college Young Women's Christian associations and Young People's societies in this state and adjoining states sent delegates to attend the eighth annual convention, which began today. The convention is held in Harlem. Dr. Torrey of Chicago presided at the opening meeting.

Big Banks Consolidated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Two of the oldest and largest of financial institutions of this city have consolidated. They are the Meridian National bank and Merchants' National bank. The capital stock is to be $1,000,000. The deposits of the two banks amounted to $2,800,000.

Sentenced, Though Absent.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Five anarchists, Reclus, Poste, Martin, Duprat and Pouget, were yesterday sentenced, in their absence, to 20 years' imprisonment. They were found guilty of belonging to a criminal association.

Strike Not Necessary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The journeymen plumbers of this city today adopted the eight-hour system. The master plumbers agreed to the change, and 400 men receive the benefit without a strike.

The Tariff a Stumbling Block.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Senor Muruaga, the Spanish minister, says the resignation of the Spanish cabinet was due to differences in relation to the new tariff bill. The ministers who have resigned represent the element opposed to low duties. Premier Sagasta favors freer trade relations with the outside world.

LOTHROP & CUNNINGHAM,
182 Merrimack Street,
Photographers,
Crayons, Pastels and Water Colors a specialty. All Work Guaranteed.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Crespo's speedy flight from Venezuela is predicted.

James B. Sutherland was suffocated by gas at Boston.

Three deaths were due to an open switch at Foster, Pa.

It is rumored that Crispi contemplates a raid on Tripoli.

About 30 sheep were killed by dogs at Watertown, Mass.

The Bettendorf wheel works at Davenport, Ia., were destroyed by fire.

S. P. Love was elected assistant manager of the Wesleyan baseball team.

Flour mills in St. Louis and the Northwest may shut down during December.

The will of Henry C. Hutchins of Boston gives $30,000 for charitable purposes.

During a gale the steamer Lewiston, coal laden, went ashore about a mile east of Oak Orchard, N. Y.

Michael Jennings, found dead at Boston, is thought to have been killed by taking an overdose of pills.

George R. Sargent was sentenced to 10 days in jail for disturbing a religious meeting on Boston common.

James Sullivan, the pitcher of last season's Providence nine, has signed with the Boston League management.

Employes of the Potomska mill at New Bedford, Mass., had a hard time putting out a fire in the picker room. Considerable loose cotton was destroyed.

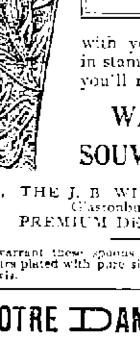

Joseph McKay of Lawrence, Mass., 60 years old, made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide last night by taking paris green. He had been drinking heavily of late.

Gorham grange at Gorham, Me., celebrated its 20th anniversary. An address was made by L. B. Dennett of Portland, who instituted the grange 20 years ago.

Mark R. Leavenworth, one of the best-known Masons in Connecticut, grand senior warden of the grand lodge of Connecticut, lies at the point of death at his home in Bridgeport.

Rev. Charles E. McKinley was ordained and installed a pastor of the First Parish Congregational church at Yarmouth, Me. Rev. Mr. McKinley came from Iowa, and has just completed a course at Andover Theological seminary.

Cut Me Out

Cut out this advertisement, and send it to the makers of

IVORINE Washing Powder

with your address and 14c. in stamps, and by return mail you'll receive their beautiful

WASHINGTON SOUVENIR SPOON.

Address, THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Ct., PREMIUM DEPARTMENT.

We warrant these spoons made of the best German silver, extra plated with pure silver, oxidized handles, gold lined bowls.

NOTRE DAME ACADEMY,
LOWELL, MASS.
Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies
ESTABLISHED 1852. --- CHARTERED 1865.
This school continues the careful training and thorough instruction in every department for which it has hitherto been so favorably known. For particulars address: The Superior.

HEATING STOVES

$5.00,
$7.00,
$12.00,
To $33.00.

ROBERTSON & CO.
100 CENTRAL STREET.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!
Wholesale Prices to the Consumer.
Best Minnesota Haxall Flour,
$4.00 Per Bbl.
50c. 1-8 Bbl. Sack. A printed Guarantee with every barrel or sack bought. Other goods sold on a small margin but we are selling Flour just now.
F. M. BARNEY & CO.,
Wholesale and Retail Grocers,
415 MIDDLESEX ST., LOWELL, MASS.

WATSON BAKERY
Every evening at 5 o'clock Hot Tea Rolls and Cream Bread, also all kinds of Cake and Pastry. Only the best stock used in the manufacture of our goods. Parties supplied at short notice at
Nos. 24 to 30 CHARLES STREET.
Peter Watson, Prop.

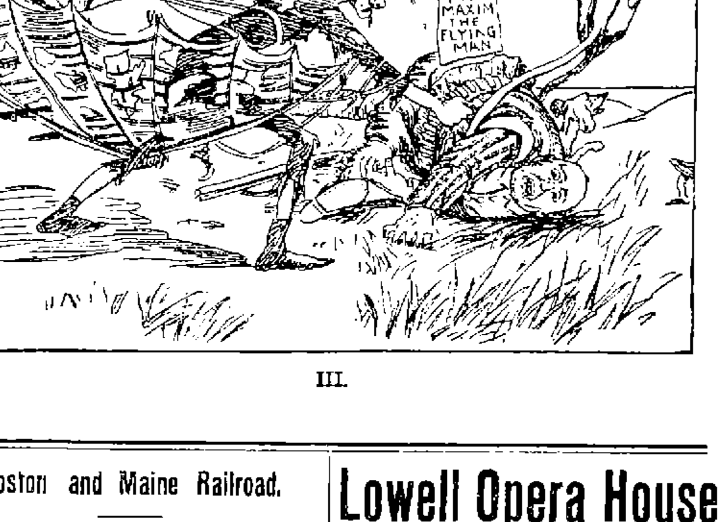

DR. WALKER DENTIST, Wyman's Exchange

I.

II.

III.

Boston and Maine Railroad.

Winter Arrangement.

WESTERN DIVISION

Commencing Sept. 30, 1894.

TRAINS LEAVE CENTRAL STREET DEPOT, LOWELL.

For Boston, at 6.50, 8.15, 9.30, 10.50 a. m.; 12.05, 12.45, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 4.15, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Lawrence, 8.30, 9.30, 10.50, a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Haverhill, 8.30, 9.30 a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30, (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Salem and Lynn, 12.05, 5.10 p. m.
For Newburyport and Amesbury, 12.05, 2.30, 4.10, 6.15 p. m.
For Exeter, and Dover, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.
For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m.
For Somersworth, N.H., Salmon Falls Saco and Portland 8.30 a.m.; 12.05, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p.m.
For Augusta, Bath, Lewiston, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.
For Bangor, Belfast, Waterville, Skowhegan, Rockland, 8.30 a. m., 12.05, 5.10 p.m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.
For St. John N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal, and Quebec, 8.30 a. m., 5.10 p. m. (5.10 does not run Saturdays): SUNDAY, 5.35 p. m.
For Eastport and St. John's (per steamer), on Mondays and Fridays at 12.05 p. m.
For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgwick and Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones at Rockland), Tuesdays and Fridays at 5.10 p. m.

Southern Division.

On and After Sept. 30, 1894, Trains Leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as Follows:—
For Boston—5 45, 6 30, ¶6 50, *7 45, *8 50, ¶9 00, *9 40, 11 00 a. m.; 1 40, ¶3.00, 4.30, ¶5 40, p. m. SUNDAYS, 8 45 a. m.
Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:
For Boston.—5 48, 6 34, ¶6 53, §7 01, §7 18, §7 27, *7 48, *8 57, 9 03, *9 50, 11 03, 12 00 a. m., 1 43, ¶3 03, 4 02, 4 33, *5 21, ¶5 43, *6 25, §7.52 p. m. SUNDAYS, *7 18, 7.27, 8 05, *9 16 a. m.; §4 25, §6 03 p. m.
For Woburn, §7 01, 7 45, 11 00 a.m.; 1 40, 4 30, 8 40 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8 45 a. m., §4 25, 6 03 p. m.
*Express. §Northern Depot only. ¶Via Bedford.
For Lawrence — 6.30, 10.00, 2.10, 4.15, 6.50 p. m.
For Salem and Way Stations—§7.38 a. m.; 1.25, 5.50 p. m.
☞Time below is from Middlesex street station.
For Ayer Junction and Way Stations—7.15 a. m.; 12.05, 5.00 and 5.47 p. m. SUNDAYS 2.15 p. m.
For Amherst, Milford and Wilton—9.14 a. m.; 1.50, 3.43, 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS 2 p. m.
For Greenfield, Peterboro', Bennington, Hillsboro' and Keene—9.14 a. m. and 3.43 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Greenfield, Antrim, Bennington and Hillsboro', 2.00 p. m.
For Nashua, Manchester and Concord 7.57, 9.14 (Nashua only), 9.45, a.m.; 12.11, 1.50, 3.43, 5.42, 6.21, 8.13, 8.43 p.m. SUNDAYS 10.09, a.m. (to Nashua only), 3 a.m., 2.00, 6.00 8.13, 8.43 p. m.
For Penacook, Franklin, Lebanon and White River Junction—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, 5.42, §8 13 p. m.
For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport, (N. H.), Claremont and Claremont Junction—1.50 p. m.
For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville via Wells River—9.45 a.m.; †8.43. p.m.
For Montpelier, Montreal, Essex Junction, Burlington and St. Albans, via Central Vermont line—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, †8.13 p. m.
For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line—9.45 a. m.; †8.43 p. m.
Quebec Express via White River Junction—8.13, p. m., daily except Sunday.
☞§Daily for Montreal.
D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Passenger and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT Gen. Ag't. Lowell.

CHARLES B. FROST,
78 Central Street
Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry,
Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, Ammunition, Fire-arms, etc. Fine Watch Repairing.

Lowell Opera House

Saturday Matinee and Evening November 3d.

Bertram's & Willard's New and Original Realistic American Comedy Drama

THE ENGINEER.,

under the direction of Johnson and Chapman.

A Great Kaleidoscope of Humane Nature.

SEE The Plumberville Band. The Fourth of July Celebration. The Great Engine Scene.

Prices, Matinee, 75, 50, 35, 25c. Evening $1, 75, 50, 25c. Seats on sale Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Monday, November 5th.

WALTER LAWRENCE
AND
Miss ENGEL SUMNER
Supported by a good company in AIDEN BENEDICT'S

FABIO ROMANI.
LIVING PICTURES

By the greatest ancient and modern masters, the latest craze of London and New York, and the FAMOUS
Stereopticon and Spanish Dances
—BY—
MISS GRACE HUNTER.
Regular prices. Seats on sale Friday.

Music Hall,

One Week, Commencing Monday, Oct. 29
R. E. DAVEY'S Realistic Melo-Dramatic Success
Enemies For Life.
By Chas. H. Flemming.
Presented by a Powerful Caste, including the Beautiful and Accomplished Actress,
Miss Joan Craven.
Notable features of this grand production: Realistic Storm Effect, Revolving Prison, Rescue in Mid-Ocean, Gypsy Camp Scene, with Beautiful Waterfall. Destruction of Camp by Lightning. Powerful Climaxes. Refined Singing and Dancing Specialties presented by a coterie of artists. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30.

M. W. MILLER,
House and Fresco Painter and Paper Hanger,
65 WILLIE STREET.
Wall Papers supplied at wholesale rates. Get my prices before going elsewhere.

EDWARD CAWLEY,
Office, 131 Central Street.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Coal of all kinds. Also dealer in Wood, Lime, and Cement. Agent for the celebrated Portland drain and sewer pipe. Elevator, Rogers-Street Bridge.

WANT COLUMN

☞ Advertisements inserted under this head for ONE CENT A WORD, first insertion; subsequent insertions HALF PRICE.

TENEMENTS TO LET

TO LET—Good, pleasant, convenient tenements of 2, 3, 4, 5 rooms, at 79 Chestnut St.

TO LET—A pleasant office in THE SUN building. Inquire at SUN office.

FOR SALE.—Sound young ferrets, $3 each; new stock, 15 months old, Brocher's, 9 Chestnut street.

FOR SALE.—In Centralville, cottage house of 7 rooms, near Bridge street. Price $1200, and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Capable men to represent our nurseries. Write Ellwanger & Barry, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Agents to take orders by sample at home or travel, expenses and good salary or commission to right party. Samples sent on application. Address with stamp Lock Box 420, New York city.

$900 AND EXPENSES PAID competent men first year, or large commission, selling by sample, staple goods to merchants. No peddling. Experience unnecessary. For sealed particulars send stamp. Household Specialty Co., 73 4th street, Cincinnati, O.

FOR SALE—Farm of 26 acres with stock, crops and tools, near village and depot, 7 miles from Lowell, nearly new building; cuts 12 tons of hay, 1½ acres wood land, 3 cows, 1 horse, 2 wagons, 175 fowls and all the farming tools that go with a farm. Price $2600; easy terms. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street, Lowell.

FOR SALE.—A bargain in a boarding house, 150 boarders, 30 roomers. This is a good chance if you want a boarding house. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Ladies to apply or address Room 5, 64 Central street, Lowell and find out how to make money easy.

CHILDREN'S SHOES soled and heeled 29c at Cunningham's, Bridge street, Merrimack square, and Palmer street.

FOR SALE—cottage of 6 rooms and pantry near Salem street, sewer connections, good lot of land, price $1800. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—In Cannan, N. H., farms of all kinds and all prices, from 5 acres to 500 acres, and prices from $300 to $2500. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street, Courier building.

GET YOUR SUMMER CLOTHES cleansed at the Merrimack Steam Dyeing and Cleansing house. Clothing dyed, cleansed and repaired at short notice, 477 Merrimack street, F.P. Lew, proprietor.

$75.00 PER MONTH easily earned without financial risk by reliable agents with team, at retailing our teas, coffees, standard extracts, baking powder, spices, etc., etc., packed in imported tea pots, ruby, crystal, enameled and engraved agate and glassware, etc., of extensive varieties and value. Address for illustrated circular, terms, etc., to wholesale house, N. E. Distributing Co., 78 Broad street, Boston.

FOR SALE.—In Belvidere, two-story two-tenement house, large lot of land. This place can be bought at a bargain; it is near Alder street. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A fruit, confectionery, tobacco and cigar store on one of the principal streets in this city. Excellent location, doing a large business. Best of reasons for selling. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FURNISHED AND UNFURNISHED—Rooms to let at 40 Bridge street.

FOR SALE.—In Ward 5, new cottage house of 7 rooms, large lot of land. Price $1250. $50 down, balance in rent. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A nice cottage house of 7 rooms and shed all in best of condition, gas, cemented cellar, sewer connections, concrete walks, good lot of land room for stable, situated in one of the best locations in the Highlands. Few steps from Coral street—Price $2000. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—Small farm of 8 acres, good buildings and near Lowell. Price $800. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A 10-acre farm only 2 miles from this city, near school, in an excellent neighborhood, 5 acres of heavy woodland timber, cut 2 tons hay. Good cottage of 6 rooms and pantry; house in best of repair; shed connected with ell. Fine farm, a large hennery. A fine place and cheap at price, $2000. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

VARIETY STORES use old papers for wrapping purposes. We sell them at this office for 5 cents a hundred.

FOR SALE.—A small farm seven miles from Lowell, one-half mile from the depot, near the school, one acre of blackberries, one quarter of an acre of strawberries, seventy-five apple trees, twenty pear trees, one and a half acres with three acres of planted. Rare bargain. For further particulars see C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street. Come quick or you will lose this chance.—200 acres of a farm, with a 20 room house; would make a fine summer boarding house. Cuts 50 tons of hay, plenty of fruit, one and a half miles from the depot, and ($1150) eleven hundred and fifty dollars will capture this place. Inquire of C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street.

Nudd The Engraver,
DOES WORK FOR
All the Leading Jewelers.
Nothing but Artistic Work Done at NUDD'S, 64 Central St., Room 5.

F. L. RICHARDSON,
Real Estate and Business Broker,
—AT—
56 CENTRAL STREET.

BOARDING HOUSES in all parts of the city. Prices from $250 to $1200.

MILK ROUTE, 20 cans, fine teams. Price $650.

HOUSE TO LET in Middlesex Village for $13.

TWELVE SMALL STORES, some cigar and tobacco, others variety, grocery, and some great bargains. Before you buy call at 56 CENTRAL STREET and see our list.

DANCING AND DEPORTMENT.

Monday evening, private class.
Tuesday evening, hall for rent.
Wednesday evening, advanced class and reception 7.30 to 11.
Wednesday afternoon, ladies class 3 to 5.
Thursday evening, advanced class (season tickets only) 8 to 10.30.
Friday evening, beginners class 7.45 to 10.
Friday afternoon, young people (advanced).
Saturday afternoon, children beginners 2 to 2.30.
Saturday afternoon, children advanced 3.30 to 5.
Saturday evening, intermediates 7.45 to 10 30.
Private lessons at any time not occupied by classes. Pupils received at any time. Office open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., every day.
Pianist, Mrs. Mary Darling; violinist, Emil Lavigneur; Mr. and Mr. Charles A. Lester, assistants; principal, D. C. Lester, G. M. D., 38 Prescott street. Take elevator.

Lowell Heating and Plumbing Co.
328-336 MIDDLESEX STREET.
Steam Heating, Hot Water Heating, Plumbing and Repairs.
Copper work of every description. First class work. Best material.

DR. BRETON
The eminent Specialist, will be glad to see all his former patrons and any who desire his services at
44 Central Street.
Office Hours—1 to 8 p. m. Sundays and Holidays by appointment only.

What would Lowell be without the spindle? The city is known the world over as "The Spindle City."
The Spindle Cigar
is made by HENRY FLOOD: best smoke in town.

SUN WEATHER BULLETIN.

ALMANAC FOR THURSDAY, NOV. 1.

SUN RISES..... 6 15 | MOON SETS..... 6 58 PM
SUN SETS..... 4 57 | FULL SEA..... 1 30 AM
LENGTH OF DAY..... 10 42 | FULL SEA..... 1 50 PM

For Maine and New Hampshire: Showers, followed by clearing weather in southern portion; high winds, shifting to westerly; colder.

For Vermont: Showers, followed by fair weather and colder westerly winds.

For Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Generally fair, with colder westerly winds.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr Delphir Giroux to Miss Delia Renaud, Nov. 12.

Walter Perham has been elected president of the Village Improvement association of Chelmsford Center.

The Hamilton drug store for years run by Ellingwood & Co., has been sold to Leroy M. Turner, who for a long time has been associated with Goodale & Co.

At the eighth annual convention of the Union Veterans union held at Worcester, Tuesday, Col. Brigham invited the union to hold its next convention in Lowell and the invitation was accepted.

Fred Olert, the cocaine fiend arrested in his city, and afterwards arrested in Cambridge for forging physicians' orders for drugs and narcotics, was sent to the house of correction for six months, Monday.

The regimental staff of Col. Lambert of the U. S. regiment is: Lincoln, adjutant; quartermaster, Russell; quartermaster sergeant, Hall; sergeant major, Swan; color sergeants, Caverly and Libby; drum sergeant, Phelan.

The Ariel Mandolin and Guitar club consists of Mrs. W. L. Stratton, mandolin; Miss Mollie Raymes, mandolin; Mr. Arthur Spalding, mandolin; Mr. A. S. Prescott, pianist; Mr. W. P. Hovey, guitar; Mr. W. L. Stratton, guitar; Miss Lena Fletcher, pianist.

Lecture by T. D. Sullivan, M. P., at Huntington hall, postponed from this evening till later in November.

Foot Ball Game Saturday.

The high school team will play the Ballardvale Athletic club at foot ball on the Fair grounds, Saturday.

Gifts to an Institute.

The Marlow Temperance institute of North Billerica has received a gift of $50 from Misses Annie and Abbie Faulkner, former residents of North Billerica.

Will Be Heard for Murder.

Before Judge Blodgett at Cambridge this afternoon, Patrick Foley, Patrick Sullivan and Cornelius Nagle were brought up for a hearing on the Duroy Foster murder case.

Will be Welcome Here.

Herr Fitz Borjes, brother of Prof. E. J. Borjes is in New York after finishing his musical education at the Frankfort Conservatory of Music. He will come to Lowell and may play the 'cello at the recital of the Orchestral society.

Lowell Man in Trouble.

William Redman of Lowell was arranged in the Lawrence police court yesterday charged with drunkenness and larceny of a coat and vest from a "dummy" in front of a clothing store on Essex street. He got 30 days for drunkenness and 5 months for larceny.

The Winners at Whist.

The whist tourney at the Highland club last night for members and ladies was a lively affair of 2½ hours in length with 15 tables. Mr. and Mrs. Abel Wheeler were winners of a silver salver and cut glass decanter, and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jones were second, prizes a silver olive fork and seal pocketbook.

The Acmes Won Again.

The Acmes defeated the Raleighs' on the Columbian alleys last evening, by the following score:

Acmes—Dodson 408, Monson 478, Carney 459, Harlon 501, Parson 447; total 2143.

Raleighs—Plaived 462, Ryder 351, Collin 457, Stevens 383, sub. 446, total 2049.

An Excellent Scottish Concert.

The Geddes family gave an exceptionally fine concert in Odd Fellows' hall last evening in aid of the Caledonian charitable fund. There were 18 Scotch selections on the program and the greatest applause greeted Miss Sue Geddes in the Highland Fling and Misses Nellie and Minnie Geddes in the sailor's hornpipe.

At the conclusion of the concert the members of the club and their friends adjourned to the club rooms on Middle street where supper was served and vocal and instrumental music enjoyed.

Farewell to Rev. Mr. Davis.

The farewell reception to Rev. A. Q. Davis and his wife by the parishioners of the House of Prayer, was held in the church parlor last evening.

An informal musical entertainment was followed by a supper which all enjoyed.

Last week Mrs. Davis was presented several beautiful oil paintings, an elegant chain and charm, and a purse of money. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will go from here to Quincy and afterwards to New York.

PRIZES WON.

Two Suburbs of Lowell Capture Honorable Mention and the Station Agent's Money.

The B. & M. railroad each year awards prizes to the agents maintaining the best appearing grounds around the stations. The award has been eagerly awaited. It was made yesterday and Cliftondale got $50 in the first class.

Billerica, and Main street, Billerica, in the fourth class, each get $15; Tewksbury, west depot, in the sixth class, gets $5.

TWO YEARS OLD

And the Anniversary Was Well Observed by a Complimentary Ball.

Court Columbus, A.O.F., passed the second milestone in its existence yesterday, and the event was appropriately observed in Foresters' hall, last evening.

Five hundred tickets to a complimentary ball were issued, and the hall was crowded during the evening, the young people being greatly in the majority. The Manhattan orchestra occupied seats on the platform and dispensed sweet and lively tunes for the merry dancers.

The order contained twenty numbers and it seemed as though all the dancers remained to see it out.

Joseph Laflamme was general manager, James A. McCusker, assistant; Alderic Poissant, floor director; Louis P. Turcotte, assistant.

There was a corps of ten aids and a reception committee, with Wm. J. Savage, chairman; James Madden, secretary; and Byron McFadden, secretary. Chief Ranger Bourbonniere had general charge.

Dr. Coburn DENTIST 251 MERR'K ST.

A delicious smoke—Old Hundred cigar. Wall paper at 18 Church street.

T. C. Lee, Fire Insurance, Donovan Bl'dg.

E. A. Wilson, coal dealer, is selling coal at lowest cash prices; call at 51 Merrimack street.

Patten & Co. have the finest potted and cut flowers in the city, Shedd's block, Central street.

William J. Heeland, tonsorial artist, room 1, Mansur block. Hair cutting up to date. Shaving best in the city.

A true, life-like photo is something everybody admires. Marion makes that kind. Visit his studio in Barristers' hall and have a sitting made.

McElroy' Orchestra

Commences a series of socials at Highland hall commencing Saturday, Nov. 3.

Coal Only Five Dollars a Ton.

Just the thing for a kitchen stove. Our No. 2 chestnut pleases them all. Order now.

D. W. HORNE & SON,
15 Central street.

Now Congratulate Them.

The engagement is announced of Miss Belle P. Miller to Henry C. Speed, both of this city.

The announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. James Grant Hill to Miss Flora M. Lewis, who sings in the choir of the Fifth Street Baptist church.

Played Old Time Games.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Highland Congregational church held a Halloween social in the vestry last evening. The old time games of "ducking for apples" "blowing soap bubbles" etc., were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served and Miss Irene Osgood dispensed Halloween lemonade. The social committee arranged the entertainment.

'TWAS HOLLOWE'EN.

Young America Cut up Shines in all Parts of the City.

Young America was in its glory last night and never before was Holloween more thoroughly observed in the residential districts. All over the city come tales of pranks of youngsters, but in Centralville the liveliest time occurred. By ten o'clock Officer John Fox had confiscated about 50 bean blowers, while he had been sprinting all evening to catch up with gates which seemed to be running away. The mix up of gates and blinds was something surprising. One house on Reed street lost all the blinds on the street floor.

Up in Ward Five around Mt. Washington and Varney streets the boys appeared to be having a good time.

A CLEVER AD.

How an Enterprising Firm Advertises a Remedy—It Puts a Frog Pond in the Store Window.

The reason why so many people stop in front of Ellingwood's store in Merrimack square is to admire the picturesque scene in the window. In miniature a patch of country is there presented, a mountain rill, its waters purling over boulders until it forms a pond which winds in and out among the rocks and knolls. The water is spanned by little bridges, while the clear waters reflect the mossy bank and fringe of hemlock, spruce and balsam trees. The novel window show is to call attention to the firm's lozenge "Frog in the throat," a remedy for irritated throats. It also brings prominently before the public over several other excellent remedies of the firm. The work was done by George E. Hull who has received much congratulation for his skill as a landscape gardener and civil engineer.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

One in a Church Vestry and Another by a Secret Society.

The A. C. F. of the Paige street Baptist church, gave one of their delightful entertainments in the church vestry, last evening. Supper was served during the early part of the evening. The children of the A. C. F. presented to Mrs. Fletcher an hand painted placque;

The sales tables were arranged around the vestry, and were in charge of a corps of young ladies.

The entertainment was fully appreciated by the large audience. The numbers were as follows: piano and harmonica selections by Gertie Dunlap, Sewell and Enos Campbell; recitation, Bertha Bond; solos, Edith and Roy Greenleaf; girls' flower drill, participated in by Lizzie Jewett, Elma McMonagle, Bernice Jones, Glenna Housan, Mabel Allen, Grace Hatch, Mamie McNiel; sword drill by boys in sailor costume, Roy Greenleaf, Ernest Munn, Leon Brown, Fred Norton, Lee Emerson and Arthur Rawson.

The Rathbone sisters held a delightful entertainment and fair in Pythian hall, last evening. Sales tables were arranged around the hall and were very liberally patronized.

The entertainment program included the following numbers: Piano solos, Miss Lizzie Noonan; readings, Mrs. Belle Harrington Hall; cornet solos, Gertrude Pratt; vocal solos, Jennie Burns, Howard Galloupe, Mrs. Elizabeth Morrissey and Nellie Studley.

The following committee had charge of the entertainment: Mrs. Charles Glidden, Miss Stella Stewart, Miss Ella Lockhart, Miss Cora Stiles, Mrs. Benjamin McLane, Mrs. Frank Tinker, Mrs. M. E. Tinker, Mrs. Dexter, Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Young, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Potter.

Friends of Mercier.

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 1.—The Musical and Literary club of this city, an organization composed of the representative French-Canadian citizens of Lewiston, held a meeting last evening to take action upon the death of ex-Premier Mercier. Delegates were appointed to attend the funeral. A committee on resolutions were instructed to condemn the editorials in an evening paper against Mercier.

Evening Things Up.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The discriminating stumpage dues upon spruce logs cut in the province of Quebec and exported to the United States have been removed by the Dominion government. This action will enable Canadians to get the benefits of the free lumber provisions of the new tariff law.

Politics Don't Trouble Them.

The following intentions were recorded at the city clerk's office yesterday:

James Brennan 30, to Ellen Hurlihier 30.

William J. Heeland 23, to Jeannette G. Elvin 22.

Armin Faddis 26, to Lila M. Hope 26.

George W. Chase 21, to Margaret E. Vale (nee Ambler) 28.

Louis Alexander,

Importer and tailor, 55 Central street, is a first class practical cutter of long experience in fine New York houses. Is up with the times and guarantees satisfaction. Fall importations now ready.

We Feel First Rate

about our pure teas and coffees, because it is no trouble to sell the goods. We have only to get a customer to try a pound once, and when they call again, name the price and it is gone. Dickson Brothers, 68 Merrimack street.

Money loaned on endorsed notes, personal securities and second mortgages on real estate by J. B. Swift, 9 Barristers hall. Telephone 425-4.

DISASTROUS FIRE

Big Shoe Factory and Car Shops Burned.

NEIGHBORING CITIES RENDERED PROMPT ASSISTANCE.

Many Hundred Men Will be Forced Into Idleness.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Nov. 1.—The most serious fire in 15 years was experienced here yesterday. The Newburyport Car company's works, the Burley & Stevens boot and shoe factory and John P. Leary's dwelling were destroyed, while the Eagle House was so badly burned that the building is little better than a charred shell. Several other pieces were scorched.

The direct loss is estimated in round numbers at $250,000. Beyond this, there will be the loss of wages to several hundred employes, who, at the best, will be idle for some weeks.

The location of the fire is on the north side of Merrimac street, with the Merrimac river and its wharves in close proximity to the back of the buildings swept away by the flames.

The cause was the explosion of an oil stove used for heating purposes in the car company's office. The explosion occurred during the brief absence of Charles Brown, who was there alone. Returning to the office, he found the Floor and Woodwork Blazing Fiercely.

He gave a moment to attempt to check the spread, but, seeing it was useless, the alarm was given.

Everything about the works was favorable for a quick fire, and almost before it was realized a great wave of flame enveloped the entire shop. This building was known as the "setting-up" one, the cars being put together there. To the east was the wood-working shop; that was speedily ignited. The Burley & Stevens factory on the other side was also on fire.

Two more alarms were turned in, and help asked for from Salem, Portsmouth, N. H., and Haverhill. An engine and corps of 10 men from Salem were the first to arrive, they having a stream on in 55 minutes from the time the call was sent them. Portsmouth sent an engine and 30 men and Haverhill an engine and 30 men.

Newburyport has but three engines, but they did splendid work. Valuable assistance was rendered by the tug Uhlor, recently fitted with a pump for fire use, and when the three out-of-town companies added their strength the fighting force began to make itself felt.

The Scarcity of Water

was felt badly. The city supply gave out at the outset almost, and the engine companies had to fall back on the old reservoir and river.

At the beginning the Burley & Stevens factory pump was started, and poured out a terrific volume of water, holding the fire fairly in check. But the well in connection was dry in eight minutes, and, with no way to reach the river, nothing more could be done.

The car shops burned were two-story and covered about 8000 square feet. Before the outside engines could reach the scene, the Burley & Stevens building was one furious blaze. It was over 300 feet long, about 50 wide and seven stories high. The spectacle was a grand one.

The Heat Was Intense,

the firemen having to use doors as screens in order to get anywhere near. A number of men were temporarily prostrated by smoke and heat.

Over 250 people were at work in the Burley & Stevens factory, but all got out of the building in safety.

Among the incidents of the fire was the fall of Pipeman James Delano from a ladder, breaking his collar bone. Herbert Currier had one hand badly cut by falling glass at the Eagle House. Captain Knight was severely burned in the face by flying sparks.

Burley & Stevens estimate their loss at fully $175,000; that far exceeds the insurance. Considerable new machinery and stock had recently been put in that was not insured. The company manufactured boots and shoes for both men and women.

Flotsam and Jetsam.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Nov. 1.—Captain Fisher of High Head Lifesaving station reports that within the past two days an immense quantity of wreckage, portions of a vessel's bulwarks and other parts of vessels have passed by. There is nothing by which the wreckage can be identified. Captain Fisher also states that a part of a vessel's hull drifted by, but it was too far off shore to examine. Some of the wreckage was saved by the lifesaving men.

"You're a Liar."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Police Commissioner Sheehan was on the witness stand nearly all day yesterday in the Lexow investigation. In the closing scene Mr. Goff worked up a climax by denouncing Sheehan as a bribe-taker, grand larcenist and defaulter. "You're a liar," was the response of the baited Tammany commissioner. With that the curtain was rung down for the day.

Doings of the Berkeley Temple Gathering.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The morning session of the fourth day of the conference week at Berkeley Temple was devoted to the reading of reports and other routine work. The Open or Institutional Church League conference occupied the remainder of the day and evening.

Struck by a Train.

HINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 1.—Herbert Tinker, 29 years old, while driving across the tracks of the Consolidated road last night, was struck by a train. His wagon was demolished and several of Tinker's ribs broken, besides receiving other injuries.

Another Minister Steps Out.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—Herr Henrich von Heyden-Cacow, Prussian minister of agriculture, domains and forests, has tendered his resignation to the emperor and it has been accepted. The ex-minister will receive another state appointment.

Lost Off Wales.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The British steamer Tormes foundered off Pembroke, Wales. Fourteen of her crew were drowned. The Tormes sailed from Liverpool Sept. 22 for Barcelona.

To Test a Tax.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—The distillers of this city have taken action to test the constitutionality of that section of the new tariff law increasing the tax on whisky in bond.

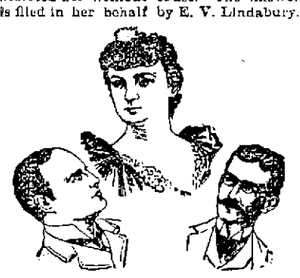

Without Arbitration.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 1.—An important question of frontiers is about to be settled without the usual assistance of foreign arbitration. The plenipotentiaries of the Argentine and the Bolivian republics have signed the protocol appointing the special commissioners charged with the technical survey of the disputed frontier. They met

"UNTRUE AND CRUEL."

Mrs. Drayton's Answer to the Charges Brought by Her Husband.

TRENTON, Nov. 1.—The answer in the James Coleman Drayton divorce suit was filed late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Drayton denies the charges of marital infidelity by her husband and accuses him of having deserted her without cause. The answer is filed in her behalf by E. V. Lindabury.

MRS. DRAYTON. MR. BORROWE. MR. DRAYTON.

Mrs. Drayton, in her answer, admits her marriage to her husband in New York on Oct. 20, 1879, where they resided until 1886. Then they removed to Bernardsville, where they continued to live until Oct. 1, 1891. After that they traveled in Europe until some time early in 1892.

She denies that she left her husband while they were temporarily sojourning in London in January, 1892, but that he left her, through cruel and unjust suspicions as to her marital fidelity. Mrs. Drayton makes specific denial to each and every charge in her husband's bill charging her with adultery with Hallett A. Borrowe, and says that she was never guilty of adultery with Borrowe or any other person whatsoever, either in New York, London, Bernardsville or any other place.

The charges, she says, are wholly untrue, and a most cruel and unfounded imputation.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

President's Proclamation Sets Aside the Twenty-Ninth Day of This Month.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The president yesterday issued the following:

A PROCLAMATION.

The American people should gratefully render thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the universe, who has watched over them with kindness and fostering care during the year that has passed:

They should also with humility and faith supplicate the Father of All Mercies for continued blessings according to their needs, and they should by deeds of charity seek the favor of the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Therefore I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let our ordinary work and business be suspended and let us meet in our accustomed places of worship, and give thanks to Almighty God for our preservation as a nation, for our immunity from disease and pestilence, for the harvests that have rewarded our husbandry, for a renewal of national prosperity and for every advance in virtue and intelligence that has marked our growth as a people.

And with our thanksgiving let us pray that these blessings may be multiplied unto us, that our national conscience may be quickened to a better recognition of the power and goodness of God, and that in our national life we may draw nearer see and closer follow the path of righteousness.

And in our places of worship and praise, as well as in the happy reunions of kindred and friends on that day, let us invoke divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely he who have given us comfort and plenty will look upon our relief of the destitute and our ministrations of charity; of the hearts truly grateful as proof of the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States, which I have caused to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, on the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1894, and of the independence of the United States the 119th. GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the president: W. Q. GRESHAM, secretary of state.

The Finest Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The loan exhibition of ladies' portraits opened today at the Academy of Design for the benefit of the St. John's guild and the New York Orthopedic hospital. It surpasses anything of this kind ever seen in this country. Nearly 400 portraits, exclusive of miniatures, are shown, and about as many miniatures. The works of the best modern men of all schools make it more remarkable than the London exhibition of "Fair Women," where the old pictures were most prominent.

Have Many Grievances.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—A protracted session of the executive committee of the West End Street railway employes was held last night. A large number of grievances against the road were discussed at length, and it was decided to call a mass meeting of all employes not on duty next Friday night to take a vote on a proposition to tie up the road. A general strike on the West End means the paralysis of the entire street car system of Boston and half a dozen other towns.

A Fiendish Trick.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Michael Salvator placed a dynamite cartridge under a house in which Eugene Gove and his wife were sleeping. He then fired four shots through the window, but missed his mark. The shots awakened Genova and his wife, and they reached the adjoining room just as the dynamite exploded. Part of the house and the furniture were demolished, the man and wife being badly bruised. Salvator escaped.

Was Prepared to Die.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—Ex-Premier Mercier is lying in state at his residence. Ten thousand people have viewed the body. Enormous quantities of flowers are received by the family. Mercier's last words were: "I am prepared to die, but it is a sad thing to leave my wife and children. Tell my friends that my last thoughts were for them; tell my opponents that I have forgotten all, and tell all that I worked for my country."

Seventy-Five Years Old.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—The celebration of the 75th anniversary of Christ Church cathedral begun today. One of the chief features of the celebration was consecration of the "Mary E. Bohinger Memorial chapel," adjoining the main structure. Very Rev. M. Schuyler, dean of the cathedral, who was called as rector Oct. 1, 1854, preached the anniversary sermon, and Bishop Tuttle and the clergy of the city and state participated.

Course Boats Designated.

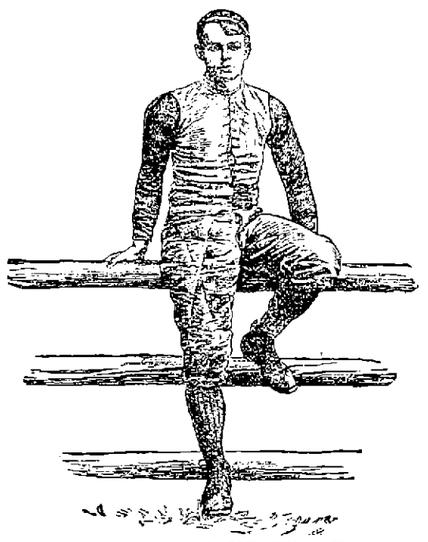

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The navy department has arranged for the speed trial of the torpedo boat Ericsson on the 8th inst., and has designated the Dolphin, Cincinnati, Nana, Fern, Fortuna and Iwana to serve as course boats.

Sent to Hoffman Island.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Two deck stewards of the Lucania refused to be vaccinated, and were removed to Hoffman island, where they will be kept for 14 days.

Insane Asylum Burned.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 1.—An asylum for the insane at Joenkoping was destroyed by fire. Fifteen inmates of the institution were burned to death.

CAPTAIN FRANK A. HINKEY OF YALE.

Captain Frank A. Hinkey, who was in control of the Yale 'Varsity Football team last year, is again in command this year. The great annual game with Harvard will be played in Springfield, Mass., on November 24. Mr. Hinkey is popularly known as "The Silent Man."

IN THE EMPIRE STATE.

EX-PRES. HARRISON PLEADS FOR MORTON'S ELECTION.

Democrats Are Vigorously Denounced by Speaker—Holloran Will Bet $20,000 on Strong and Goff.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—At the Democratic headquarters the canvass books have just been put in. It is said that the total show a list of 65,000 for the Democrats in New York and 11,000 in Kings. Governor Flower, a most astute political observer, gives Senator Hill a clear majority of 35,000 north of the Harlem. For some time, under the cover of a modest and quiet campaign, it has been known that the Democratic prospects were daily growing brighter. Now for the first time figures are given out.

John Holloran was present at the state Democracy headquarters yesterday afternoon with $20,000 to bet on the election of Strong and Goff. He exhibited the amount of money named, but although he remained there until after dark, no one appeared to take up any of his offers, which were $5000 to $4500 on Strong and Goff each, and $10,000 even on the election of both.

Harrison and Morton.

Ex-President Harrison spoke at Carnegie Music hall last evening, and it would appear that half of New York turned out to hear him. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Republican state committee to ratify the nomination of Morton and Saxton.

The hour fixed for the meeting was 8 o'clock, but a tremendous crowd began to assemble as early as 5:30.

When ex-President Harrison and Mr. Morton arrived, the audience stood up, and it was fully 10 minutes before the cheering ceased.

Soon afterwards G. W. Stevens made a short address, introducing Mr. Morton as the chairman of the meeting. When Mr. Morton stepped to the chair and prepared to speak, the audience would not let him do so until he had acknowledged their plaudits for fully 10 minutes. Mr. Morton said:

"It has been foreign to my inclinations to take part in public meetings after my own nomination to public office. I desire to be judged by the record I have made, rather than by any professions manufactured for an occasion. If I am not worthy to administer the great trust which will be committed to me, when the will of the Republican state convention is ratified by the people, nothing I can say now will relieve the situation.

"Because of this widespread hope, and in the earnest desire to advance its fulfillment, a citizen of Indiana, resolute in war and accomplished in the civil councils of the nation, has come to this metropolis to lend you the encouragement of his salutation and give you the ripe results of his observation and experience. I have the pleasure of presenting Benjamin Harrison."

Harrison's Address.

After some preliminary remarks, Mr. Harrison said:

"I cannot say very much about the last administration, and it is somewhat delicate for me to speak about the present. But men are of little consequence in the administration of our public affairs, they do not determine events.

"The important matter is the principle or policy that the respective parties represent, and of these I feel very free to speak, and I will give you my views as to the tendencies of the policies of the Republican party, which I believe to be beneficent, helpful and politic, and the tendencies of the Democratic party, which I believe to be hurtful and destructive.

"This great country of ours has such interminglings influences that no election can properly be said to be local.

"It is of consequence, and ought to be of concern to the people of the United States from St. John to Puget Sound, whether the governor of the state of New York shall be a man of clean personal life, a man who illustrates in his own life the history, the virtue of high American citizenship; whether he shall be a man who loves our free institutions, who preserves the sanctity of the ballot box and the equality of men before the law; or whether he shall be a man who consorts with those who prostitute the ballot box, degrade public office and public administration.

"It is of consequence to the whole people whether the great state of New York shall have at the head of your executive department a typical American citizen, or one who regards these things from a low standpoint, and looks only to party advantage rather than the public weal.

"I believe the candidate of the Republican party is altogether worthy of the support of his fellow-citizens, and is altogether qualified for the exercise of the high duties of governor of this great state.

"There are national questions as well involved in the city of New York; a congress is to be chosen, and these constituencies in the great city of New York are to exercise an important influence in deciding the question whether the control of the house of representatives at Washington shall be wrested from the Democratic party."

Mr. Harrison said that for 30 years the Democratic party had been an irresponsible party, but in 1883 it had been called to a position of responsibility.

The trouble with the Democratic party was that it was an incoherent party. Who could tell what it was going to do; what its position upon the tariff question was.

The ex-president discussed the recent tariff legislation and created considerable laughter by humorous allusions to the manner in which the Democratic party took up the work of revising the tariff.

He next discussed with some sarcasm the Hawaiian affair. Further on, the ex-president said the Democratic party was uninstructed and inexperienced. In concluding, he said:

"Let the greatest of the manufacturing states, by her people in this election, speak in the voice that shall be heard from ocean to ocean in condemnation of those who have brought these disasters upon the country."

Disastrous Year For Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—The whole number of Gloucester vessels lost during the year ending Oct. 31, 1894, has been 30, of a total tonnage of 3423.43 tons, representing a value of about $175,000, on which there was $157,625 insurance. The number of lives lost, including deaths on shipboard and in hospitals, during the year, has been 137, against 71 for the previous year.

Mrs. Howe Presides.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 1.—The second annual congress of the Association for the Advancement of Women met here yesterday, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe of Massachusetts presiding. The congress was given an elaborate reception at the Hotel Imperial. The body will remain in session throughout the week.

A Widow's Good Fortune.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Frank Brush, a needy soldier's widow, with three children, has received word that she has been bequeathed $20,000 by Mrs. Eunice Duffee of Chicago, who died leaving over $1,000,000. Mrs. Duffee was an aunt of Mrs. Brush.

Not Considered Important.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Guatemala officials here do not attach importance to renewed reports of war preparations along the Mexican border. No official advices have been received, as they would be if trouble had reached a critical stage.

It Is Marsh Gas.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Nov. 1.—The report that a wonderful deposit of natural gas had been stirred up from the Connecticut river proves on chemical analysis to be nothing but marsh gas.

Contractors Get $50,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The secretary of the navy has accepted the machinery of the Maine, and authorized the payment of about $50,000 to the contractors.

LADIES WHO VALUE
A refined complexion must use Pozzoni's Powder. It produces a soft & beautiful skin.

FALL MILLINERY.
Miss Sarah Cahill.
New Store, New Goods, New Ideas, and in fact the Latest in Millinery, at the beautiful new store at
113 CORHAM STREET,
Just above the new Post Office. The display of Novelties is quite remarkable.
You are cordially invited to call. Be sure and inquire for our prices.
MISS SARAH CAHILL, 113 Gorham Street.

When in Need of Real Fine
MILLINERY
Call at the New Store of
ABBIE M. SMITH
Where the most complete assortment of Novelties and Exquisite Trimmings may be found. All New Goods.
175 Merrimack St., Welles' Block.
MRS. M. E. DUDLEY, Assistant.
Fine Mourning a Specialty.

Suits to Order, - $20.00.
Pants " " - $5.00.
SHARROW & BAXANDALL
TAILORS,
93 - Gorham - Street.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY?
If so call at the
TEMPLE OF DESIGN,
—FOR YOUR—
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
There you will find the correct styles and newest novelties at the lowest possible prices.
14 and 16 Merr'ck Square, Runels' Block

McCARTIN'S BAKERY,
107 Gorham Street.
Domestic Bread, Cake and Pastry.
Orders for Wedding Cake promptly filled. Beans received for baking.

T. M. BOLTON,
139 Market Street, Gates' Block.
Saddle and Harness Maker,
Fine Repairing at the Lowest Rates

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report
Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Warning to Mariners.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The captain of the schooner Pombina, from Porto Rico, reports on Oct. 29, when in lat. 38.40 N. and long 71.20 W., sighted a large three-masted schooner, abandoned and waterlogged. The main and mizzen masts, bowsprit and the stump of the foremast were standing. The water was too rough at the time to ascertain particulars. It is a dangerous obstruction to navigation.

Baltimore's New Music Hall.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—Baltimore's new music hall was dedicated last night in the presence of one of the largest audiences that has assembled here in many years. The Boston Symphony orchestra and the Melba Concert company provided the inaugural program.

An Ex-Mayor's Testimony.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—President Capen addressed the Municipal league last night, and after a general criticism of the expenditures of the city officials, and the condition of the government, showed that 59 of the 75 members of the city council paid a poll tax only, and suggested many reforms in municipal government. Ex-Mayor Martin, in advocating a four-year term for mayor, said: "I would not take the mayoralty if I got the vote of every citizen; a man cannot afford to, and maintain his dignity, character and integrity."

Railway Changes Hands.

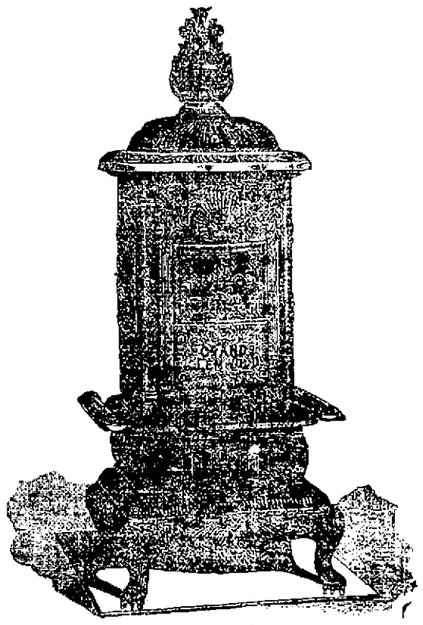

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 1.—The Kentucky railroad passed into the hands of its new owners today and was rechristened the Lexington and Eastern.

THE "DOMESTIC"
Parlor Stove is the best stove on the market. Has more practical points than any other stove made. Come and see it and you will be convinced of the truth of the above statement.
Wood Stoves, $3; Coal Stoves, $4 and upwards. And, as for Ranges, we have the best Range you ever saw for $20. Every Range warranted.
Chamber Sets, Parlor Sets' Easy Chairs, Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloth, etc.
Remember that we carry the "Electric Oil Heater," which is acknowledged to be the best Oil Heater on the market.
J. J. CAYNOR & CO.,
New Number. 35 Prescott Street.

Smiling Faces - - - - On the Sabbath
Are always the result of purchases made at the
UNION :: MARKET.
Join the Crowd and See Us Today.
WALSH'S UNION MARKET, Middlesex St, Foot of South St.

NEW HOLIDAY EDITION,
THE LAST LEAF,
By Oliver Wendell Holmes.
Illustrated by George Wharton Edwards and F. Hopkinson Smith. It is very handsomely bound, and will be a leading book for the holidays. You will want to see it.
LAWLER, Fashionable Stationer and Bookseller, 79 Merrimack and 15 John Streets. Telephone 373-4.

FURNITURE.

New goods for fall trade now in; new Carpets, new Chamber, Parlor and Dining-room Furniture. A fine stock to select from and the prices lower than ever before.
We wish to call your attention to our line of Glenwood Ranges and Parlor Stoves for which we are the agents in Lowell. The Glenwood goods are the acknowledged superior of all other makes of stoves. See our Grand Glenwood heater before you purchase. The beautiful designs, fineness of finish and simple construction, together with elegant embellishment of Nickle and Bronze, makes it the most beautiful as well as the most useful heater ever offered to the public.
Cookin Bros., NO. 66 PRESCOTT ST.

FARLEY'S :. CASH :. GROCERY,
New No. 140 Corham St.

-BEST-
HAXALL FLOUR
$4 per bbl.

Choice St. Louis, -	$3.00 Per Bbl.
Bag of Haxall, - -	.55 Per Bag
Bag of St. Louis - -	.40 Per Bag
Tub Lard - - -	.8 lb.
Canned Peas - - -	.7 Per Can
" Tomatoes - -	.8 Per Can
" Salmon - -	.11 Per Can
" Blue Berries -	.10 Per Can
" Clams - -	.8 Per Can
6 Boxes Sardines - -	.25

These prices guaranteed while the advertisement is displayed.
70-72 Middlesex St.
Old Wooden Building.
P. F. Devine, Prop.

LOWELL
Trunk Manufactory
An elephant cannot get along without his trunk, and you will find that you will have almost as much difficulty to get along without a trunk as the elephant—that is if you are rooming out, and like everything else the BEST is the CHEAPEST always, and the best in quality and lowest in price to be found is at 70-72 Middlesex St.
Old Wooden Building.
P. F. Devine, Prop.
N. B.—Repairing is a specialty with us. Work first-class, and low prices is our business motto. Old trunks taken as part payment for new ones.

THE LOWELL DAILY SUN.

VOL. XXIV. NO. 52. LOWELL, MASS., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1894. PRICE ONE CENT.

THIRD EDITION

☞THE SUN is the only paper in Lowell receiving The Associated Press, cable and telegraphic despatches. Most of the news items in this issue can be found in the other local papers tomorrow, if you are willing to wait till then.

UNCLE SAM'S HUSTLING P. M.

WHO IS GIVING LOWELL THE BEST OF MAIL SERVICE.

New Schedule Went Into Effect Today With Additional Deliveries and More Collections—New Routes Laid Out From the New Federal Building.

When Postmaster General Bissell once said that young men are the best fitted to make progressive postmasters he knew what he was saying, and right here in Lowell the truth of his statement is proven in Postmaster Pearson since his appointment to office has given evidence of being a capable and progressive head and has placed the Lowell office in a position far ahead of that occupied by most of the cities of her size.

With the department established in its new quarters, with the energetic postmaster in command, the Washington authorities will have a branch to be proud of.

While the office has been in good hands before, never in its history has so much towards meeting the demands of the public been accomplished as within the time that Mr. Pearson has had control. It was through his efforts that new carriers were added recently making it possible to have more deliveries and through him too, the pay of the employes was increased materially.

But the latest sign of the young postmaster's progressiveness was shown yesterday when a new program went into effect, whereby every resident of Lowell who does business with the post office department is considerably benefited.

Heretofore the deliveries have been three daily to business men and only one in the outskirts, while under the new operation the business men have four deliveries and the residents in the outskirts, two daily. Now not only have the number of deliveries been increased but the district in which the four deliveries will be made has been increased in size and will include besides the old district down town, East Merrimack, Church, Lawrence, to Greenwood Bros., Gorham from court house, to Davis' corner, Bridge to Seventh, Lakeview ave., Market to Dummer, and Middle streets, all the business sections about the Wamesit mills on upper Dutton street, to Mt. Vernon street, Broadway and Fletcher street. Where but four carriers were formerly needed seven are now put on.

The business trip carriers are Charles A. Holden, Frank G. Rundlett, William H. Wood, Daniel S. Crowley, John Ewing, Harry Pettengill and Charles A. Carey.

By the addition of all the substitutes to the regular force, Postmaster Pearson has to appointed a number of new substitutes. They are J. B. A. Le Brun, James Healey, Patrick F. Cahill, Leforest Beals, George F. Andrews and James William Maguire.

Thus it may be seen that a very large number of business places will have reason to thank Postmaster Pearson.

The system of collecting has been improved and besides the two mounted collectors, Messrs. Watson and Picard, Messrs. John Slack, William J. Lane and G. W. Bulmer have been appointed foot collectors and they will collect from the boxes in the city proper while the mounted men will take in the suburbs and letters will be sent more quickly than in the past. All routes have been laid from the new post office. To meet the demands made by the new appointments, seven improvised desks and as many pigeonholes have been erected in the old post office and work will go along without waiting for the more commodious quarters in the new building.

"Young Mr. Pearson" as some have facetiously called him is the right man in the right place and deserves the hearty congratulations of the public without respect to party for his great work at the head of the local department, and it is only fair to add that he is assisted greatly in his work by a corps of hustling assistants in each department.

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. Plunkett passed a comfortable night.

The railroad tracks on Central street are being repaired.

Eleven "ideal" ballot boxes have been received by City Clerk Dowd for use in the eleven new precincts.

Hon. A. W. Beard's son, Charles F. Beadr, was married in swell style at St. Stephen's, N. B., last night.

Work on the extension of the Lamb street sewer is now in progress. The extension will be about 360 feet long.

The improvement society of St. John's church held an enjoyable Halloween party in the chapel, at which the true Hallowe'en games were indulged in. After supper an entertainment was given.

Green is doing a big business in watch and jewelry repairing. Watches cleaned and main-springs replaced, $1.00. Warranted one year. Jewelry repaired as good and cheaper than any house in Lowell. Green's, 88 Merrimack street.

Notice to Precinct Officers.

Precinct officers will qualify at the city clerk's office tonight.

Reduction In

STEERAGE RATES

ONLY $10.

Boston to Queenstown, Liverpool, London, Belfast, Glasgow, Londonderry.

James F. O'Donnell,

Agent, Lowell, Mass.

Cor. of Worthen and Market Sts.

YOUR WATCH needs cleaning. Bring it to Bower & Sparks, 285 Central street. We will put it in order and do all that it requires for a year for $1.50. We take our chances; if the watch is smashed the charge will be $1.50 and no more. Watch loaned during repairs. INSURE YOUR WATCH.

POLITICAL JOTS

Knox Stultifies Himself On Tariff Issues.

THE A. P. A. LOSE A PROMINENT LEADER.

The Democratic Ranks Closing for Brady and Fifield.

The democrats of the city are moving forward with closed ranks for the election of Fifield and Brady. But a few who have been workers with the party lag behind or reconnoitre at the Foss headquarters. What they can be doing there it is difficult to say with any positive certainty but the average democrat may surmise.

The liquor dealers of the city were never more loyal to the democratic party than on this occasion. One or two men have grievances but it seems they are determined to overlook these and work for the success of the ticket.

The few malcontents who are gulled by promises of licenses will find their mistake later on. They are not now in the liquor business; but they want the opportunity to enter it. But these are of little importance compared with the support coming from the opposition for Fifield and Brady. Ward Four is not for Foss, and the republicans of that stronghold are fully justified in opposing the election of a man who imagines that his chief duty is to draw his salary and make his appearance when his vote is wanted by a monopoly.

The man who resigns after having been elected to an office must have a good deal of effrontery to ask a re-election.

The voters will say to him on election day "why did you not keep the office when you had it. If you did not think enough of the office to complete the term you should not ask a reelection. But you have lost your opportunity now; the people will elect Brady and Fifield."

Knox came to Lowell whining about the farmers on the Canadian border, about the lumber men of Maine and about the "outrage" of admitting cotton bands free while bands for binding hay are taxed. This he claims is in the interests of the south. Texas is the greatest wool growing state. Was wool put up on the free list to benefit that state?

Cotton hoops were put upon the free list because a combination took the duty imposed under the McKinley law out of the cotton planters and the bands that bind hay happen to be made in Worcester. Hay is bound by wire and very little American hay is shipped abroad.

William "Switchboard" Knox has made an ass of himself on the stump although he is spoken of as a man of great ability and intelligence.

Mr. Fifield is a man of business, a man who is in touch with the people, a man who has always been generous towards his employes. He never attempted to steal the invention of any of his workmen. Can this be said of William Switchboard Knox? Mr. Fifield wants no further tariff legislation. Mr. Knox wants the present tariff torn down and the McKinley duties restored.

***

There will be a ward rally in Ward Five Friday evening and Edward W. Rodgers will address the voters.

***

A big ward rally will be held in Ward Six Friday evening at which Thomas F. Hoban will preside. The speakers will be Ed Pierce and Philip J. Farley.

Rallies will be held on the same night in wards three and five and good speakers will be present.

***

The A. P. A. held forth in large numbers last night. It was an A. P. A. farewell to Rev. Mr. Raboteau and all the incompetent ministers of whom he spoke last Sunday were there. The leader of these and decidedly the most incompetent was Montgomery. He had to tell of the "rum-soaked crowd" that came from the republican rally on the previous evening. He knows he prevaricates when he makes such a statement. No more respectable gathering of working people could be found anywhere than that which was present in Huntington hall, Tuesday evening. The fact is that this Apapobian leader is so much accustomed to vilifying and abusing the masses of the people in this city that he rarely can speak fairly of anybody. He exaggerates the good qualities of his followers and the bad of those he persecutes until he grossly misrepresents both. Verily, as Lincoln said, we are progressing rapidly in degeneracy. Rev. Dr. Court, D. D., degraded himself by appearing as the "fall" to Montgomery's kite. Exit Rev. Mr. Raboteau. Next,

***

Hon. George Fred Williams and Congressman Joseph O'Neil will wind up the democratic campaign in this city next Saturday night. It will be a great rally. Nathan D. Pratt will preside. The fallacies of republican speakers will be exposed by sound democratic arguments.

***

Thomas F. Saunders of Ward One, the well known blacksmith, is a candidate for the council. Tim Reynolds, another blacksmith, is a candidate for the council from Ward Three. Patrick H. Clifford and Patrick Barry are candidates for the council from Ward One.

***

The A. P. A. divines accuse the Catholic church of being in politics. Can they point out where a single Catholic clergyman in this city ever interfered in politics. Do they degrade their pulpits by making political stump speeches when expected to preach the gospel? Do they claim that in a short time they will have the city, the state and the nation? No! All the A. P. A. movement is a disguised movement for political office by men who are not now, never have been and never will be true Americans because they would deprive Catholics of their religious and political rights.

Resolutions To M. Mercier.

Le Cercle Canadian at its next meeting will take action on the death of ex-Premier Mercier of Quebec. The French republican club will take action on his death at its meeting on Sunday.

Eighteenth Street Sewer.

A gang of men will be set at work on the Eighteenth street sewer in a few days, the committee having instructed Supt. Crowley to commence work on its construction.

Why Not.

If you are economizing why not look over your printing bills and see if you are not paying too much for printing. Call at this office and get prices on your work, and see if we cannot save money for you.

When you need printing, remember THE SUN.

SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

Interest Begins Monthly.

Money deposited in the savings department of the Traders' National bank of this city, before 9 o'clock, p. m., Saturday November 3d, will draw interest from November 1st at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, compounding semi-annually. This bank is open continuously from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m., Saturdays from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

MARSHALL--SCRIPTURE.

Marriage of a Lowell Lawyer to One of Rockport's Fair Daughters.

The marriage of William S. Marshall, Esq. of the law firm of Marshall, Burke and Marshall, to Miss Emma B. Scripture of Rockport, was a fashionable event last evening.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. Frank Scripture, manager of the Pigeon Hill granite company of Rockport.

The wedding took place at the bride's home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Israel Ainsworth of Rockport.

The bride was dressed in heavy white silk, cut en train, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaids were two little girls, Misses Blanche Davis and Helen Fisher of Gloucester, and each carried a basket of bride roses.

The best man was Mr. Edward Marshall, brother of the groom, and Messrs. Arthur B. Sewell, Harry Rogers and Geo. Rogers, all of Rockport, were the ushers. After a short wedding trip the bridal couple will reside in Lowell.

HURT BY AN ELEVATOR.

Bridget Nestor, a Scrubber, Had a Narrow Escape From Death Yesterday—Two Other Less Serious Accidents.

Bridget Nestor, a middle aged woman, employed as a scrubber in the Massachusetts mills, was so badly injured yesterday afternoon that her life was despaired of during the night at the corporation hospital whither she was taken in the ambulance. Her collar bone is badly broken and her head hurt which rendered her unconscious for six hours. She is reported comfortable and partially conscious this noon.

As far as can be learned the accident occurred at the elevator shaft where she was sweeping. She was known to be there, but in getting out of the way of the elevator her dress is thought to have caught in the rope preventing the stopping of the elevator. It is not clear whether she was hit by the elevator or the gate, but apparently she was first struck on the head. It would appear that she had a narrow escape from death.

John Stewart, an assistant oiler in the Merrimack print works bleach house, fell through a floor trap to the floor below, Monday, escaping with a bad shaking up and a cut finger.

An oiler in the same mill and same department was badly bruised in being caught in the shafting.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.

Large Congregations at the Catholic Churches in Attendance at Morning Mass.

The feast of All Saints is observed today and is a holyday of obligation in the Catholic churches. This evening vespers and vespers for the dead will be sung in the Catholic churches of the city. Tomorrow will be All Souls' day, a day of devotion.

At St. Patrick's church today mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Gleason, who also spoke briefly on the observance of the feast.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

KELLEY—The funeral of Sabina Kelley took place this afternoon from her late home, 26 Andover street, and was largely attended. The remains were taken to the Immaculate Conception church, where services were held. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Beef Contract Given Out.

The regular meeting of the overseers of the poor was held at the city farm yesterday afternoon. The principal business was the awarding of the contract to furnish fresh beef to the city institutions during the year.

There were three bidders, Jewett & Swift, the Public Market (S. P. Pike) and Daniel J. Donovan.

The bids were on chucks, flanks, shanks shins, rump and loin.

Jewett & Swift were awarded the contract at the following prices: Chucks and flanks, 3 cents; shanks and shins, 2 cents; rump and loin, 10 cents.

Three pardons were granted.

The board then enjoyed one of Mrs. Collins' fine dinners.

A Rainy Season

Is promised from the New Hampshire oracle who prophesied so correctly last winter. Rubber Coats, Waterproof Canvas Coats, Macintoshes and Umbrellas will be in great demand, and we are amply prepared with a good stock such as we can confidentially recommend to our customers. Our Blanket Lined Coats in Brown Waterproof Canvas at $1.25 are splendid property for cold rainy weather. Sheepskin Fleece Lined goods are warmer. Umbrellas, Fast Black, 50c to $8.

-THE-

Merrimack Clo' Co.

OPPOSITE CITY HALL.

AN A. P. A. MANTLE

Left to the Faithful by Rev. Claude Raboteau.

A LEADER WANTED WHO WILL REDEEM OUR CITY.

Remarkable A. P. A. Demonstration at a Farewell Reception.

It cannot be denied that Rev. Claude Raboteau has a host of friends in Lowell. This being so it would seem that his field of duty as a minister of the gospel was in Lowell.

It is not in the ordinary course of events to send a Lowell pastor into other fields by the medium of a mass meeting of citizens. The farewell meeting to Mr. Raboteau was something remarkable, last night.

Every available inch in Huntington hall was jammed with humanity, although the admission was by ticket. It was not denied at the time that the meeting was an A. P. A. farewell to the most ardent pulpit advocate of the order, and from the tenor of remarks made the impression was confirmed that it was a "patriotic" meeting.

Tributes by Other Pastors.

Rev. H. W. O. Millington presided and in calling to order eulogized Mr. Raboteau's devotion to the principles of patriotism. Rev. C. J. Keevil of the Moore street P. M. church offered prayer and Rev. Mr. Morang sang.

Resolutions offered by Rev. Hugh Montgomery were adopted. They endorsed the retiring pastor, praised him for not lowering the dignity of the pulpit, the church or the state, for his work in behalf of religious liberty and the defence of patriotic principles, for his tolerance toward all creeds while fearlessly opposing a church or party claiming absolute control over children growing up under the stars and stripes, and in conclusion bidding him godspeed.

Rev. E. T. Curnick of the Worthen Street M. E. church seconded the resolution, saying that Mr. Raboteau's departure will be the city's loss.

The American orchestra played and then Rev. Dr. Robert Court spoke in eulogistic terms of the clergyman's "patriotic" work. He said: "Free discussion in this country is one of the recognized rights of American citizenship. As rational beings we have the right to reason. God gave man this faculty in order that we may arrive at the truth. There is no recognition in God's word of the maxim that "Ignorance is the mother of devotion." In reference to Mr. Raboteau he said he was to be honored because he stood up for freedom of thought, first, last and always for American principles.

Rev. E. S. Wheeler of Boston, state representative of the A. P. A., hoped that the pastor would be restored to health for future service. He claimed that the A. P. A. is not the miserable travesty people make it out to be.

Rev. O. H. Denney claimed that the pastor's name should be inscribed with those of the nation's heroes on the roll of fame.

Letters of regret were read from Rev. A. Blackburn of Cambridge, Rev. Dr. St. John Chambre of this city, Rev. E. S. Bailey of Haverhill, Rev. G. H. Johnson, Rev. Dr. J. O. Campbell, Rev. J. A. Wigren and Rev. W. W. Harris of this city.

Rev. Mr. Hand of Keene, N. H., an intimate friend of Mr. Raboteau, paid a compliment to him and closed with a statement of the A. P. A. principles, not America for Americans but Americans for America.

A poem written by H. A. Deal was read by that gentleman. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Raboteau, next spoke. His heart was filled to overflowing, he said, and as he stood before the people for the last time to lead them to victory. He came here as a simple preacher and became identified with a movement which is so prominent. If he had acquired notoriety as an A. P. A lecturer it was not from his seeking; nor had he shirked from the duty of espousing its principles, although he knew that by so doing he was shaking a red rag to certain sections of this city. When he entered this contest against the Romish-politico machine he did not do it without mature and prayerful deliberation. It is a serious business to enter such an undertaking, and at times he was more than half inclined to reconsider his intention.

One evil in our city, he claimed, was the organized system of the Romish church to gain control of our municipality. "The one way to bring municipal reform is to throttle the Romish giant."

The democratic papers say the A.P.A. is a republican appendage. The speaker said he was a democrat and that more democrats were identified with the movement than the papers supposed.

"I love the A.P.A., and would die for it if need be," said Mr. Raboteau.

"Rome claims she has as much right as any other church; nobody ever denied it; they can have a church on every street if they want it, and will pay taxes on it. Who dares to say Rome has given up temporal power? Show me this and the A. P. A. will go out of business."

Mr. Raboteau dwelt on the importance of educating children in the public schools. "In our municipal affairs we want an American recognized as well as an Irishman and the A. P. A. will not give up until this city is rescued from the hands of the enemy that is grabbing at its throat. We shall have the city yet, the state and the country and before the 20th century, a man will sit in the first place in the nation who has been identified with this great movement. (loud applause.)

In closing he delivered an eloquent farewell and the meeting closed at eleven o'clock. Afterwards half the audience went up and shook hands with Rev. Mr. Raboteau.

DEATHS.

BROWN—Daniel Brown, an old and life long resident of Tyngsboro, passed away at his home yesterday, aged 85 years.

McMahmon, florist, Prescott & Merrick sts

Close of October Devotions.

The October devotions in the Catholic churches closed last evening with the usual service. The attendance at the different churches during the month has been very large.

Will Sing the Prodigal Son.

The High street choir with a sacred chorus will sing Sir Arthur Sullivan's "Prodigal Son," Sunday evening, Nov. 11.

Sent up to Manchester.

Fred Bushle who recently escaped from the Manchester jail was arrested in an empty tenement in Little Canada Tuesday and sent back to Manchester yesterday.

LATEST

5 O'CLOCK.

NORMAL SCHOOL SITE FOUND.

BOARD OF EDUCATION VOTES IN FAVOR OF PEABODY ESTATE.

Ward Six and the Land Syndicate Appears to Have Been Badly Shut Out By the Decision.

The state board of education met in Boston this morning and decided on the site for the Normal school in this city. They voted to accept the J. G. Peabody estate.

This estate is at the corner of Wilder street and Broadway, extending to the railroad track on the south.

MRS. WICKES' DIVORCE.

She Wants One From Her Husband Who is Second Vice President of the Pullman Company.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. T. H. Wickes has filed an application for divorce from her husband, who is second vice president of the Pullman company, alleging cruelty.

GALLUS MILLER DEAD.

He Was Known All Over the Country as a Prison Official.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 1.—Gallus Miller, chief clerk of the Joliet penitentiary, committed suicide this morning. He was known all over the country as he brought here the Bertillon system of identification of criminals. He was highly educated and spoke several languages. The cause of his suicide is a mystery.

More Turkey Riots.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

BOSTON, Nov. 1—The American board of Foreign missions has received word that depredations in Turkey have left missionaries and 2000 people homeless, their homes having been destroyed by fire.

Paris is All Astir.

By Associated Press to THE SUN

PARIS, Nov. 1.—This city is all up in arms over the latest sensation. Capt. Dreyfus of the staff corps is under arrest for giving out official plans for mobilization of troops in event of war and plans of fortifications.

THEATRICAL NEWS.

The performance of Old Jed Prouty, last night, at the Opera house, was thoroughly satisfactory, even if Richard Golden did not play as Old Jed. The company was good and this Down East story was told charmingly.

On Saturday the realistic thrilling comedy drama The Engineer, will be given. The scenes are laid in Missouri. The company carries its own scenery. Special mention should be made of the third act, which represents a mill, with engine in full view of the audience. The climax of this act is exciting in the extreme, and excites applause for the heroine, who rescues her lover just as the heavily loaded cars are about to crush his body into a shapeless mass. Incidental to the second act the Missouri whoopers whoop in the Plumbersville Cornet band. The specialties include songs, dancing and musical selections on violin, mandolin, cornet and other musical instruments.

At Music Hall.

"Enemies for Life" is as thoroughly pleasing yet as on its first night, and the company being more at home do better work in this excellent drama.

Talk About "Rabies."

The quarterly meeting of the M. N. D. Medical society was held at the American house, yesterday, about 40 members being present. After dinner Dr. Hunt ress read a paper on "Rabies" and Dr. Nichols read one by Dr. Amasa Howard on "Oxygen." Attention was called to the fact that the Y. W. C. A. in the Bowditch building, Central street, has opened a bureau where a registry of trained nurses is kept and the request was made that the medical men encourage the movement by applying there when such service is desired.

Remembered Their Former Pastor.

Mrs. George N. Howard's former Sunday school class at the Paige street church held a pleasant reunion and Hallowe'en party, last evening, at the resident of Misses Flora R. Small and Maud C. Lewis, 89 Chestnut street. Rev. Mr. Howard and wife were present. The class presented Mrs. Howard a sum of money to be used on Rev. Mr. Howard's new church at Melrose.

The Receiver Won.

The jury in the case of John C. Burke vs Emma B. Marr and William J. Blake, one of the Annual Friend cases, gave a verdict for Mr. Burke, the receiver, having found that the property attached had been illegally transferred to place it beyond the possession of the receiver. This established the defendant's writ of entry to the property. The case may go to the Supreme court on exceptions.

Paid $20 For Assault.

In police court yesterday, Henry Woodworth was fined $20 for assault on Martin Howard, on Sunday. Michael and James McHale, accused of being concerned, were discharged as it was shown that they were endeavoring to separate Howard and Woodworth. All the parties live in Centralville.

This Club's a Corker.

The Ward Six Independent club met last night, and seven new members admitted. The club endorsed Hon. Peter J. Brady for senator, Hon. George W. Fifield for congress, Thomas F. Hoban for representative after enthusiastic speeches.

Mother of the Late Steve Nestor.

Mrs. Bridget Nestor, who was hurt in No. 2 weave room of the Massachusetts mills yesterday, is mother of Steve Nestor, who was killed in Chicago last summer.

FRANCIS W. QUA, No. 3 Barristers' Hall, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

WM. F. COURTNEY, 13 and 14 Manser Block Attorney at Law.

A PROSPECTIVE BRIDE.

If the Old Saying About the Cake and the Ring Come to Pass.

A very pleasant Halloween party was held at the home of the Misses Kelley on Gorham street, last evening. There were vocal selections by Messrs Peter Clune and Owen Gilday; piano solos by Miss Coleman, Miss Annie and Miss Lizzie Kelley; recitations by Mr. James Coughlin, the well known elocutionist; songs by Mr. Henry Cuff and Miss Lizzie McLaughlin. All of the selections were well received, the special numbers being those of Mr. James Coughlin and the witticisms of Mr. Peter A. Clune and Owen Gilday.

Then there were two tables of whist, prizes won by Miss McLaughlin and Mr. Coughlin, and Mr. Clune and Miss Annie Kelley.

The supper tables were spread and were waited on by Misses Lizzie and Ella Kelley and Miss Coleman. Cutting the cake and the finding of the ring by Miss Annie Kelley was the feature at the supper. After supper the party played games and the evening closed in a duet from Messrs. Clune and Gilday. The party broke up at an early hour after spending a very pleasant halloween.

Fixing the Approaches.

Supt. Crowley will macadamize at each end of the East Merrimack street bridge and the paving will be done in the spring. He fears that the paving blocks would sink during the winter were they laid now.

Mr. Crowley is anxious to have one side of the bridge ready for Sunday, for the convenience of those who take part in the Burke's memorial parade. If the bridge people and the water works rush their portion of the work he feels certain it can be done.

FROM THE WIRE.

Burglars blew open and robbed a bank safe at West Winfield, N. Y.

Another train robbery is reported from Birmingham, Ala.

McKee and Demegers, won the rock drilling championship of the world at Leadville, Col., today. They drilled 35 5-8 inches in five minutes into solid granite.

LUNGS GIVING WAY.

Condition of the Czar Indicates That Death Is Near at Hand.

YALTA, Nov. 1.—The official bulletin issued last evening says: "The emperor has taken little nourishment. The congestion of the left lung continues. Breathing is difficult, and pulse is weak. The general weakness of the patient has greatly increased.

The czar suffers fits of suffocation. Yesterday he was unconscious for several hours. Early in the morning he tried to read state dispatches, but he was too weak. During his violent fits of coughing, particles of lung were brought away.

The bulletin issued Tuesday night was not published here until yesterday. It caused a feeling of intense apprehension. It was noticed that yesterday not one of the doctors in attendance upon the czar was seen here, though usually they are observed walking in the streets daily.

Grand Duke Alix Michaelovitch, cousin of the czar, who was disgraced and banished to Caucasus several years ago, arrived here recently, wishing to see the czar and ask his pardon before he died. The czar declined to see him, and the grand duke disappeared after seeing his other relatives.

The newspapers have been prohibited from mentioning the visit until the grand duke's father shall have ordered the censor to allow the fact to be published.

The czar's treatment by his physicians is unchanged. He takes digitalis and aconite and drinks a great deal of milk.

Seriously Stabbed.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 1.—Tom Malloy, a prominent politician, was crossing the bridge from Berkeley when he was met by Eugenio Gandeirl, who, without any warning, attacked him with a knife, cutting him severely in the right thigh and across the right side of the abdomen. Malloy became insensible, but before he could bleed to death he was discovered. Malloy's condition is serious. Gandeirl fled to this city and has not been captured.

Thieves Fired Two Shots.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—Thieves entered the general stores of Campion & Canfkins and J. A. Rowland at Old Lyme. The safes were blown open and $110 was obtained at the first named place and $51 at Rowland's. S. P. Martin saw a light in Campion & Caulkins' and rapped on the door, but he was ordered to throw up his hands and two shots were fired through the door. He ran for help, but the robbers escaped.

A Gratifying Announcement.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 1.—It is stated that a large part of the work of the General Electric company, which was taken from here and transferred to Schenectady, will be returned to this city. The railway work will also be increased.

Floor Fell at a Caucus.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 1.—The Republican caucus at Portland was the largest ever held in the town hall. During the balloting the floor gave way, precipitating the voters into the basement, and pandemonium reigned.

Steamer Wrecked.

SYDNEY, Nov. 1.—Steamer Wairarapa, plying between this port and Auckland, was wrecked on Great Barrier Island Sunday night. A few of her passengers were saved, but 11½ were drowned.

Falcon Given Up As Lost.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 1.—The Peary steamer Falcon, from Philadelphia for this port, which has been out four weeks, was yesterday officially given up by the owners as lost.

Reorganization Favored.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—At the office of the Finance company, depository of Reading securities under reorganization plan, it was said holders of $30,000 general mortgage bonds assented. President Earle confirms the report that holders of four million bonds in London agreed to assent.

Negroes Sail For Liberia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The New African Steamship company recently contracted for six steamships, and the first sailed from here today. This company proposes to carry negroes from the United States to Liberia to form a big colony there.

A Cutdown Expected.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 1.—A rumor is current that the New Jersey Central Railroad company is about to make a general reduction in the wages of its employes, making the basis the same as the wages paid by the Lehigh Valley company.

Seamen Rescued.

LIVERPOOL, Nov 1.—The Danish bark Auroita arrived at Holyhead and landed 12 of the crew of the abandoned Norwegian bark Fin, who were picked up at sea. The Fin was bound from Lisbon for Halifax, with a cargo of salt.

THE SUN EXTRA

6 O'CLOCK

AND THE HANGING WENT ON.

ED. MARTIN LOST HIS LIFE TO SAVE HIS FRIEND.

Lynchers Offered to Save Him If He Would Tell Where His Friend Was—Let the "Hanging Proceed," Was His Reply.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

PRINCETON, Ky., Nov. 1.—News has reached here of the lynching of Eddy Martin in Crittenden county, Tuesday morning, by a mob estimated at 100 men.

The scene of the lynching is remote, and the best obtainable information is that Martin was called upon after midnight. His door was opened, and he was seized by a dozen men, who asked for information of Bill Goode, the pauper commissioner of Crittenden county. The mob told him it had come to hang him, but if he would turn state's evidence upon Bill Goode he would be spared.

"If these are the only terms, gentlemen," said Martin, "let the hanging proceed. Bill Goode has been my friend and I will shield him."

The mob quickly did its work, and left the dead body swinging from a limb of a tree.

Every One Enjoyed Themselves.

Chaplain James J. Quinn and wife of the city farm, entertained a party of young people at their home on Chelmsford street, last evening. There were about thirty present, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mr. Quinn, with his usual care, looked out for the enjoyment of the guests. Refreshments were served and many enjoyed dancing.

There were vocal selections by Misses Margaret and Kate McCaffrey, Annie Delmore, Maria Cullen, Annie Tighe and Messrs. John Murrany and Timothy Dwyer. Mr. John Lonergan gave several pleasing selections.

A Teacher of Cooking.

Miss S. Alice Sheldon, daughter of Mr. Arthur H. Sheldon of North Chelmsford, has received an appointment as teacher of cooking at a salary of $60 a month at a large manufacturing company in New Jersey.

Must Keep at Work.

Philip J. Farley, Esq., has been consigned by the state central committee to speak in Brockton and Witham. He has also been requested to make three speeches for Hon. W. S. McNary tonight.

The Latest Arrival.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William T. White, of Huntington street today.

Receives a Pension.

George O. Goodwin of Dracut was today granted a pension.

ALL SINNER'S DAY IN COURT.

JUDGE HADLEY GIVES SOME MEN A CHANCE TO DO BETTER.

A Man Explains How He Got a Damaged Face—A Woman Made Up Her Bed on Westford Street—More Sunday Dealers in Court.

Two drunks were released. One of them a man named McEnnany had about as badly a damaged face as one would care to see. He explained to the court that it was an accident that destroyed his facial beauty as he had collided with the sidewalk during his travels.

Susan Collins lives on the Appleton corporation but while on her way home last night became confused and went to sleep on Westford street where Officer Cawley found her. She accepted a sentence of five months in jail.

Three other drunks were fined.

Margaret Walsh was tried today for alleged larceny of a pair of shoes from Glidden's store. Margaret claimed she bought the shoes in the summer for a little girl, and the latter going away she pawned them. She told several different stories and finally requested that she be fined. She was sentenced to jail for a term of three months.

Elizabeth Hall pleaded guilty to the charge of being a common drunkard. Her husband and Officer Riley testified to the woman's weakness for liquor. She was placed on probation.

More Sunday dealers are in court.

Robert H. Holly pleaded guilty to keeping open shop on Sunday. Officers Goodwin and Donaldson testified that Holly keeps a frankfort shop at 1 Liberty square and that the defendant admitted having sold frankforts on the sabbath. Holly was granted a common victuallars license last spring, but never took it out.

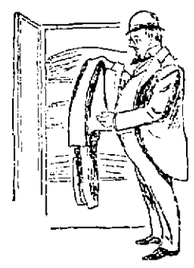

The court said there are a good many foreigners here who are ignorant of the laws and keep open shop. "I am surprised," the court said, "at the criticisms of the sabbatical law of this country. I found in the big cities of England, Ireland and Scotland that the Sunday laws are far more rigid than those of this country which are very liberal indeed." The court then read the Sunday law for the benefit of the defendant, who is a Nova Scotian. He was fined $5 which he paid.

The High School battalion went by this morning and as usual started to play while passing. Lawyer McVey ran to the window and gave the boys the tip to keep quiet.

Joseph Malore was summoned into court for keeping open shop on Sunday, but he failed to appear and was defaulted.

Abraham Israel pleaded guilty to a charge of cruelty to a horse. It seems Abraham has been using a horse with a "game leg," and did not obey Agent Drury's instructions to have the animal attended to. He was fined $10.

Margaret Walsh appealed from her two months' sentence and was held in $200 for the Superior court.

To put it on a common-sense basis.—it's to your advantage to see what our good ready-made clothing is like, how it's made, how it fits, what it costs,—before you give your tailor an order.

Maybe after you've looked it over and tried it on, you'll stick to the tailor, wait for him to make you a suit, and pay twice as much for it as we charge.

Frankly, we don't believe anything of the kind.

PUTNAM & SON.

ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

Central Street, Cor. Warren.

CZAR IS DEAD

Passed Away at 3 P. M. After Supreme Agony.

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CZAREWITCH IS DISCOVERED.

Latest News by Wire From the Old World Capitals.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Daily News had a despatch from Livadia today, stating that the Czar is dead, but at 4.30 p. m. the Russian embassy had not had this report confirmed.

The London correspondents have been unable to obtain the least information.

The morning bulletin stated that the Czar had not slept all night and that the action of his heart has decreased. His majesty is suffering extreme torture.

A Conspiracy Found.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—A special from St. Petersburg states that the police have discovered a conspiracy against the Czarewitch and are arresting Nihilists by the wholesale.

The Czar refused to go to Corfu, because he wanted to die in Russia.

The Czar's Death.

By Associated Press to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The despatches sent to the United States saying that the Czar died this morning were wrong, and were anticipated. The Czar passed away at 3 p. m. The Russian and German embassies were not notified until 6 p. m. A private despatch from the Queen of Denmark, mother of the Czarina, was the first official information given out of the death.

Particulars of his dying moments have not yet been given out.

NEW PASTOR THERE.

Many Lowell People Were at the Reception Tendered Him.

Rev. Ernest Bartlett, who will occupy the pulpit at the Central Congregational church at Chelmsford Centre for the coming year, was tendered a reception by the parishioners last evening. Many Lowell people assisted. The interior of the church was prettily decorated and the refreshment table was adorned with a very beautiful bouquet presented by Mr. H. R. Hudson. The Harmonic orchestra furnished music.

The Horse Was Killed.

A horse attached to the delivery wagon of A. A. Robinson, the provision dealer of Middlesex street, ran away yesterday down Howard street. The animal dashed across Middlesex street without accident but in turning into Middlesex place, the wagon struck a lamp-post and went through the window of the shop of Charles T. Haskell smashing it to atoms. The animal finally was overcome by exhaustion and died in a short time.

Mrs. H. B. Bailey leaves this city tomorrow for San Mateo, Florida, her winter home. Mr. Bailey went in September. A little later a number of Lowell people will follow for San Mateo is a winter home for many of our townspeople.

Dummer Democratic Club.

This body had a rousing meeting last night, various committees were appointed to help the democratic cause.

Next meeting Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. in Ward One, precinct 3 polling booth.

Lamps.

We carry the most complete line of lamps and fixtures of any house in Lowell. Notice our display prices from 20c to $5.50 each. The U. S. Tea Co., corner Central and Prescott street.

All the latest designs in fine pleasure vehicles.

Our Business Wagons are specially constructed to withstand the wear of pavements and car tracks.

We can save you money. Get our prices and look over our assortment before you purchase elsewhere.

FAY BROS. & HOSFORD.

LOWELL DAILY SUN.

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Publisher.

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Issued Daily: Sundays excepted.

Per Year $3.00 - - - Per Month. 25c.

City delivery and postage free.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON.

Southern Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
6 45	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
6 39	7 45	[illegible]	[illegible]
6 50	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
§7 [illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
§7 27	8 12	[illegible]	[illegible]
7 45	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	10 [illegible]	12 [illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	1 [illegible]	[illegible] 47
§12 [illegible]	12 [illegible]	2 [illegible]	[illegible]
1 40	[illegible]	3 [illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible]	4 [illegible]	[illegible]	4 [illegible]
§4 [illegible]	4 45	4 [illegible]	[illegible]
4 [illegible]	[illegible]	5 [illegible]	[illegible] 14
§5 21	6 15	5 25	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]	5 [illegible]	[illegible]
§6 [illegible]	7 [illegible]	[illegible] 15	[illegible]
§7 52	8 35	7 [illegible]	[illegible]
		[illegible]	[illegible]
		[illegible]	11 24
		11 22	12 23

Sunday Trains.

[illegible]	8 32	[illegible]	[illegible]
§7 27	8 12	[illegible]	[illegible]
[illegible] 45	[illegible]	1 [illegible]	1 57
§[illegible]	10 20	[illegible]	[illegible]
§4 25	[illegible]	7 [illegible]	[illegible]
§6 03	7 [illegible]	[illegible] 03	[illegible] 40
		[illegible]	10 [illegible]

§From Middlesex St. station only.

Western Division.

To Boston. Lve.	Arr.	From Boston. Lve.	Arr.
[illegible]	8 03	7 30	8 32
[illegible]	9 12	9 25	10 37
[illegible]	10 32	10 25	11 42
10 55	12 02	11 20	1 07
12 [illegible]	1 27	2 15	3 25
12 45	[illegible]	3 30	4 23
[illegible]	3 43	3 40	4 55
[illegible]	4 27	4 30	5 42
4 [illegible]	5 22	5 01	6 16
[illegible]	6 41	6 01	7 13
6 15	7 30	6 35	7 55
7 [illegible]	8 03	9 10	10 49
9 30	10 42	§11 15	§12 12

Sunday Trains.

[illegible]	9 26	8 00	9 18
12 05	1 23	11 45	12 53
4 15	5 26	5 00	6 29
5 45	6 56	7 00	8 22
7 25	8 45

Trains by this division leave Lowell from Central street station.

Leave Boston from the new Union Station, Causeway Street.

§ Wednesdays and Saturdays only

For Governor:

HON. JOHN E. RUSSELL of Leicester.

For Congressman:

HON. GEO. W. FIFIELD of Lowell.

For Senator:

HON. PETER J. BRADY of Lowell.

FASHION is bringing cats' tails into use. It is better to untail cats than to behead birds of beautiful plumage.

THE PROTECTED speak-easies are all working for Mr. Foss, but Senator Brady will be elected despite their underhanded efforts.

FIFIELD WANTS no more tariff legislation for the present. Knox wants a new bill, which would cause a year's trouble and depression.

THE REPUBLICANS have not thus far repudiated the A. P. A. Both organizations have been merged in one. The A. P. A. is part and parcel of the republican party.

SENATOR BRADY will be reelected despite the efforts of Foss and his friends to enlist democrats by promises of licenses and despite the efforts of populist candidates to defeat him and elect a republican.

ARE THE French citizens going to cast their lot with the A. P. A. or with the democratic party? Cyrille Constantineau is said to be working for republicans. He wants a license next year, but the commissioners says they will not make good such promises.

THE REPUBLICAN rally of Tuesday night was a tame affair throughout. Mayor Pickman's defence of the high tax rate will not be appreciated by the tax payers. It is no excuse for extravagance to say that there is on record one other instance equally bad.

LORD ROSEBERY's proposition to submit a plan for the reform of the house of lords to the people may eventually be adopted. If it does an unexpected advance in constitutional government will have been made. The referendum in England would drive Queen Victoria off her throne and the lords out of existence.

HON. JOHN E. RUSSELL would make a model governor of Massachusetts. A man of profound scholarly attainments, familiar with the history of every struggle in the politics of this country, a staunch democrat and a genuine patriot, he would bring to the office the highest capacity possessed by any candidate for governor in this state during the past score of years.

MR. MERCIER, ex-premier of Quebec, who has recently passed away, was the leader of the independence movement in Canada. He had been ignominiously dismissed from office on charges of malfeasance, which the courts could not sustain. This attempt to crush him but made him more determined in his agitation against British tyranny, which he kept up till the time of his death.

SOME POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS.

If you want an ideal democratic governor, a patriot, a statesman and a scholar, vote for Hon. John E. Russell of Leicester. If you want the new tariff law to get a fair trial, if you want free coal and iron ore as soon as the business interests of the country will permit; if you want a representative in congress who is himself a factor in the industrial welfare of our city, if you want practical men rather than thorists vote, for Hon, George W. Fifield for congress.

If you want a friend of labor in the senate next year vote for Brady.

If you want an active energetic worker in the senate vote for Brady.

If you want a man who can exert his influence with the members of the house as well as with the senate, vote for Brady.

If you want to reward the man who did most for the normal school, for the weavers' particulars bill and other measures, vote for Brady.

But if you do not want such a representative, if you do not want a friend of labor, a friend of popular measures; if you do not want an energetic worker—if you want a man who will vote for corporation interests as opposed to labor, if you want a senator who will support monopolies when he happens to be present, a man who will absent himself two-thirds of the time and who will resign if he sees an opportunity of procuring a position on any commission, then vote for Mr. Foss or what amounts to the same thing, vote for Thomas F. Connolly, the populist candidate.

THE A. P. A. ISSUE.

The republican party tries to make light of the A. P. A. issue as if the organization was in abeyance. It is quite active, but is now so merged in the G. O. P. as to be beyond recognition. It is of some importance whether the constitutional provision against a religious test of citizenship is to stand or to be torn down, whether Catholics shall be disfranchised or retain their rights undisturbed by a lot of hypocritical pharisees parading their fanaticism and their desire for office as real patriotism. They are wolves in sheeps' clothing, a menace to the peace of the community and undeserving of the freedom they enjoy.

THE MCKINLEY bill brought about a depression in business which led the people of this country to relegate the republican party to private life. The democrats came into power but the depression went on until the republican laws which caused the depression were changed. Now prosperity has returned to stay under the fostering effect of the new tariff bill. Republicans want to restore McKinleyism, democrats want to give the present bill a fair trial. The country wants no more tariff legislation for the present. Vote the democratic ticket if you want to maintain this policy.

THE MAIL says that Mr. Fifield, although credited with never having a strike, should not be sent to congress lest he help to enact legislation that will cause strikes It also says that were Mr. Courtney a manufacturer he would have different views on labor matters. But Mr. Fifield is a manufacturer; why not trust him on such matters? The Mail's arguments in the premises are decidedly weak and inconsistent.

WILL THE Lowell Citizen, which seems to be the Knox organ hereabouts, please explain how he came to be dubbed "Switchboard" Knox.

ANTI-DOUBLE TAX LEAGUE.

IS NOT A SECRET ORDER AND BIG MEN ARE IN IT.

It Differs Materially From the Single Tax Idea—The Future Prosperity of the Commonwealth at Stake—Borrowers Will Be Relieved of Heavy Burdens.

The Massachusetts Anti-Double-Taxation League is by no means a secret order. It has given to the public through the press its platform and its list of officers, and it has secured for these the widest circulation. The name of the league tells the difference between its contention and that of the single tax men. The league does not advocate that personal property shall not be taxed, but only that peculiarly intangible evidences of property, now by law twice taxed, shall be relieved from the second tax in Massachusetts, and two men shall not be taxed for the same property.

The platform begins:

"Double taxation is essentially unjust and injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth."

Double taxation is wrong. There is no possible argument that can make it right for the state to compel one man to pay twice upon property similar to that or which another man is compelled to pay but once; or to compel two citizens to pay taxes upon the same property. Whatever is wrong in the system of laws is of itself injurious to the best interests of the commonwealth; and this particular injustice which tends to discourage the residence here of capitalists is especially harmful.

The platform goes on: "The object of the league is the abolition of double taxation,—" This language is not in the least uncertain or ambiguous. The league means to do away with a wrong and Harmful Feature of the Laws.

The sentence partly quoted is continued thus: —"whether this (double) taxation falls upon property protected elsewhere and already taxed,—"

This phrase clearly refers to the taxation of shares of foreign corporations. Such shares are only the paper representatives of property that somewhere exists, and is there protected and taxed. The law which requires the owner of shares to pay a tax on them, although the property itself has already paid taxes, is similar to the law which formerly required the owner of a mortgage to pay another tax although the real estate which the mortgage represented in part had already been fully taxed. This old law was amended in 1882 so that now real estate pays but one tax, and the enormous advance in value of real estate and the great reduction in interest rates on mortgages is the direct result of this act of 1882. The league would extend the healthy change to personal property as well.

The second plank in the platform declares that the league would abolish double taxation when it falls —"upon both borrower and lender in respect of the same property."

Every merchant or manufacturer has felt the injustice of the law which compels him to pay full taxes upon his stock in trade without permitting him to deduct from its valuation the amount he owes upon it. It is practically impossible in these modern days of active competition for a merchant to do a successful business and sell goods cheap enough to satisfy the public demands entirely on his own capital. He must buy, to some extent, on credit, and for this credit he must pay interest. As the lender is taxed for his money at interest, the borrower should be permitted to deduct the money he owes from the value of his stock; or it would come to the same thing if the lender were exempt, the borrower would secure the advantage in a lower rate of interest. As it now is, the merchant borrower pays full taxes on his goods, and pays interest on his borrowed capital at a rate based upon the idea that the lender must also pay. As a matter of fact, the lender seldom does pay, as he avoids the tax gatherer precisely as the mortgagee under the old law used to avoid him.

The Third Plank Declares

that the league urges such a change in the law as will prevent the taxation of —"income derived from property already taxed." The law now says distinctly that "no income shall be taxed which is derived from property already taxed," but under a twisted construction of this peremptory language certain incomes so derived continue to be taxed. The league would make the plain intent of this statute so much plainer that there would be no chance of misconstruction.

The fourth plank advocates the exemption of municipal obligations. It is common knowledge that interest on city and town loans must be paid by the taxpayers of the debtor cities and towns. If it were possible to compel every holder of municipal bonds to contribute in the shape of taxes a part of the interest to which he is entitled, it would make no difference whether the bonds were taxable or exempt, but in fact a great part of every municipal loan is sold to non-residents. Our own taxpayers are prevented from buying these securities, because whatever the rate of interest promised, nearly one-third of it must be reckoned as liable to be demanded back for taxes; and so it happens that every city or town in the commonwealth actually pays higher rates (which increase the tax bills) than it would pay if the bonds or notes were legally free of taxes.

The platform closes with a form of mutual association for promoting the main objects of the league, and with great significance declares the purpose to be also "strenuously to oppose any of those changes in the laws now advocated which would tend to aggravate

The Evils of Double Taxation."

Among the changes that the league opposes is conspicuous the proposition urged in the legislature of 1894 to repeal the law of 1882 whereby mortgaged real estate is now taxed the same as though it was not mortgaged. Among the million or more depositors in savings banks, or among the fifty thousand shareholders of co-operative banks, or among the quarter million borrowers on mortgage of real estate, there is not one who would voluntarily return to the old system. Nevertheless, a certain party of impracticables profess to believe that this law should be repealed. (If the league does no better work than to prevent this it will have justified its existence.)

Another measure opposed by the league is the proposition to compel those few foreign corporations which still retain a place of business in Massachusetts to annually disclose a list of their shareholders. Still another is the proposal to compel every person resident within the state to declare under oath under penalty of possible imprisonment every item of his holdings in these companies so unjustly taxed. It is a simple business truth that if the first suggestion could be carried out before next May there would be no foreign corporations "having a usual place of business" in Massachusetts. All the great western railroads, the mining companies and the manufacturing companies, with all their multitudes of clerks, would depart instantly rather than to be used as spies and informers upon their own stockholders.

As regards the other it is certain that if enforced it would deprive the state of many of her most valuable citizens. It would be a revival of the inquisition. Exactly as the undue enforcement of the doomage law drove out of Boston the multitude of citizens who have created Manchester, Beverly, Nahant, Cohasset and dozens of other beautiful towns that might be named, so would the turning of the thumbscrews make New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York more desirable than Massachusetts.

Every patriotic citizen should rejoice that so many strong men have taken hold of this vital question, and should hasten to join the league.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE

gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

The Triumph of Conservative Surgery

is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Breach, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations.

PILE TUMORS, however large, Fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.

STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. For pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

SUNBEAMS.

He Knew.

Mrs. Twickenham—I am sorry my table doesn't look any better, but all my silver is at the Safe Deposit company.

Mrs. Dimpleton—I think it looks lovely. What company do you go to?

Mrs. Twickenham—I really don't know. My husband attended to it.

Willie Twickenham—Why, it's papa's uncle's.—Brooklyn Life.

Better Than "Pap."

There was an excursion down from Shelbyville, Ind., yesterday, and the Hoosiers were scattered all over the city looking with wide, staring eyes at everything. On the ferryboat Hite was a group of the most rural looking of them.

There was one big, rawboned fellow that I noticed particularly. He wanted to talk, I could plainly see by his manner, and I smiled encouragingly at him. Then he said:

"I guess yer folks is s'prised to see so many of us fellers down here."

I remarked that we were all greatly surprised, but that we were also pleased, because they all looked so intelligent and seemed so sociable.

"Well, I'll just tell you how I came ter come," resumed my rural acquaintance, becoming confidential. "Yer see the folks out our way ain't never seed anything 'ceptin cricks, an ther man what's seed er real river is some pumpkins. Dad he seed the Wabash when he was a boy, an he ain't done nothin sense but talk about that there river, an the swellin waves, an the dancin boats, an tur'bel storms. Course ever'body had to stop soon as he got started, 'cause nobody'd seed er river, an he could jest tell whatever he thought of, an nobody could argy with him. When I heerd that there was goin ter be an excursion, I went ter the postmaster, an I asked him if there was airy river 'bout Louisville. He says there was, an that it were the Ohier. He says it were a heap sight bigger'n the Wabash, an I jest got me a ticket an started ter git ahead of pap. Ain't I goin ter see it? Well, I reckon!"

With a triumphant stride he stalked down the levee to get on one of the boats at the Mail line wharf and see the wonders.—Louisville Commercial.

The Theater Hat.

Slumm—Have you seen the new arrangement for ladies' theater hats?

Glumm—No. What is it?

Slumm—It's a stepladder attachment so a man can climb up and look over.—Detroit Free Press.

A Colossal Harp.

The largest harp ever made, so far as is known, was that invented and constructed by M. Veritan, provost of Burkli, near Basle. It was known as the gigantic meteorological Æolian harp. It was 320 feet in length and was erected in the garden of its inventor in 1787. This harp consisted of 15 iron wires, 320 feet in length, stretched between two poles. The wires were from two to three inches apart, the largest being one-sixth of an inch in thickness and the smallest one-twelfth of an inch. They were placed in the direction of north and south and inclined in such a manner as to form an angle of from 20 to 30 degrees with the horizon, being stretched by means of rollers properly disposed for the purpose. Whenever the weather changed, the wires sounded with such loudness that it was impossible to go on with a concert in the house. The sound sometimes represented the hissing noise of water in rapid ebullition, sometimes that of a harmonicon and sometimes that of distant chimes or an organ.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A King's Retort.

King Victor Emmanuel used often to tire before the termination of a day's sport, and mules and horses being out of the question in the precipitous mountain paths he would mount on the back of his chief huntsman, an Alpine Hercules, named Borretta. One day Borretta, having the king on his back, was crossing a torrent. The king having raised his foot to avoid getting his gaiter wet, the sudden movement almost capsized Borretta. Unmindful for a moment of the rank of his burden, he growled out, "Tente au, bourie" ("Hold steady, you jackass"). Without manifesting the least irritation or surprise, the king replied, "You apparently ignore, friend Borretta, that the jackass is the one who carries the load." And nothing more was said about the matter.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Potatoes.

When you have strained your plain boiled potatoes, take them at once to the open door or window and give them a vigorous shaking in the draft. They will become white and mealy. Try it once, and you will do it always, so great is the improvement, says the New York Telegram.

TRADEMARK REGISTERED. Indapo Made a well Man of Me! PHOTOGRAPHED FROM LIFE. 1ST DAY 10TH DAY 20TH DAY 30TH DAY

INDAPO THE GREAT HINDOO REMEDY PRODUCES THE ABOVE RESULTS in 30 DAYS. Cures all Nervous Diseases, Failing Memory, Paresis, Sleeplessness, Nightly Emissions, etc., caused by past abuses, gives vigor and size to shrunken organs, and quickly but surely restores Lost Manhood in old or young. Easily carried in vest pocket. Price $1.00 a package. Six for $5.00 with a written guarantee to cure or money refunded. Don't buy an imitation, but insist on having INDAPO. If your druggist has not got it, we will send it prepaid. Oriental Medical Co., Props., Chicago, Ill., or our agents. SOLD by Ellingwood & Co., Cor. Central & Merrimack Sts., and Carleton & Hovey, 151 Merrimack Street, LOWELL, MASS., and leading druggists elsewhere.

You Can Recover

From the shock and insure

Good Spirits

By eating the new Pettijohn's Breakfast Gem, 12c. per pkg.; and by drinking Old Grist Mill Coffee.

THE BOSTON BRANCH GROCERY

Old No. 199 Middlesex St. New No. 455.

Opp. Northern Depot. Telephone 374-3, Brass Signs.

CALEB L. SMITH..............Proprietor

BACHELLER, DUMAS & CO.

Paper Ruling, Book and Pamphlet Binding, Blank Books a Specialty

42 CHURCH STREET.

MULLIN & WINSLOW,

Dealers in

COAL

At Summer Prices

1018 Gorham Street.

Telephone 21-6.

Will You Have One?

We have a glass dish suitable for piccalily, berries of any kind, or for a hundred and one uses on the dining-room table, which we are selling for

Only 5c. Each

These dishes are a lot we bought at wholesale in New York, and the price asked barely covers cost. Come in and see them.

French & Puffer.

245 Central Street.

Arthur M. Bertrand,

(Successor to F. W. Sargent,)

MERCHANT TAILOR.

FINE TAILORING A SPECIALTY.

24 Middle Street, Lowell, Mass.

Dress Suits to Let.

Great Removal Sale.

We are about to remove to more commodious quarters and find it necessary to close out our present stock of Harnesses of every description. The greatly reduced prices will place our stock within reach of everybody in need of Harnesses. Have leased for a term of years the "Old Brabrook Stand," established in 1827.

J. C. DONOVAN, 57 Market street.

P. H. HEELON, 557 and 559 Gorham St.
Boarding, Hack and Livery Stable.

JAMES H. CARMICHAEL, No. 97 Central Street,
Counsellor at Law and Notary Public

Have You Seen The

Climbing Monkey?

PRICE 25c.

Look in our Window.
Toys of all kinds in great variety.

Bartlett & Dow.

No. 216 Central Street.

PHILIP J. FARLEY, Room 11 Barristers' Hall.
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JOHN A. McQUADE & CO., Room 12, Mansur Block, Central St.,
Constable and Collecting Agency,
And Auctioneer.

JOSEPH W. LEACH, Room 12, Shedd's Block
Soloist and Teacher of Singing.

P. J. HOAR, Merrimack, Cor. Palmer,
Attorney at Law.
O'Donnell & Gilbride's Block.

BOOT'S OLD 64 CIGAR. For Sale by all Dealers,
For a Good Smoke Try One.
No. 9 Merrimack St. Henry Boot, Prop

LOWELL AGENCY FOR

FRANK JONES' ALE.

—AND THE—

Celebrated Anheuser Busch Beer.

The Trade and Families Supplied at Lowest Prices.

Orders by mail or telephone promptly attended to.

JOHN LENNON,

NO. 302 MARKET Street.

TELEPHONE—No. 38-2.

WM. E. LIVINGSTON,

DEALER IN

Coal, Wood, Lime,

CEMENT, SAND, GRAVEL,
HAIR, KAOLIN, PLASTER,
BRICKS, FERTILIZERS.

Straw, Hay Grain, Flour
&c., &c.

NO. 15 THORNDIKE STREET,

Branch office. 49 Merrimack street,—Calderwood's cigar store.

$50.00

A Fine Square Piano, just right for beginner. $8 cash and $5 a month. Stool and Cover.

GARDNER'S

Music Store,

45 PRESCOTT ST., LOWELL, MASS.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

Wholesale Prices to the Consumer. Best Minnesota Haxall Flour,

$4.00 Per Bbl.

50c. 1-8 Bbl. Sack. A printed Guarantee with every barrel or sack bought Other goods sold on a small margin but we are selling Flour just now.

F. M. BARNEY & CO.,

Wholesale and Retail Grocers,

415 MIDDLESEX ST., LOWELL, MASS.

WATSON BAKERY

Every evening at 6 o'clock Hot Tea Rolls and Cream Bread, also all kinds of Cake and Pastry. Only the best stock used in the manufacture of our goods. Parties supplied at short notice at Nos. 24 to 30 CHARLES STREET.

Peter Watson, Prop.

PETER J. BRADY,

GROCER.

448 Gorham Street.

Choice, Teas. Coffees and Spices. Try our "BIG TWELVE," brand of flour, the best in the city.

NEW LUMBER YARD.

No. 253 HILDRETH STREET.

Best Quality. Lowest Prices. Cedar Posts a Specialty.

P. V. Allen & Co.,

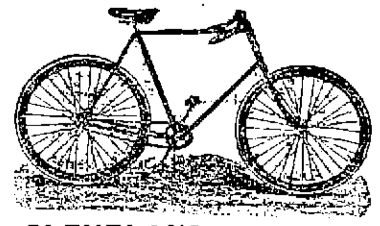

Telephone 568-5.

FISHER H. PEARSON, Room 44 P. O. Block,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

JAMES A. CAWLEY, Moore Street
COAL.

Telephone for Summer Prices. All orders promptly delivered. (Late of firm of Cawley Bros

CHARLES E. FROST, 78 Central Street
Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry,
Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo Strings, Ammunition, Fire-arms, etc. Fine Watch [illegible]

CLEVELAND WHEELS.

Callahan & Sanborn

Merrimack Square, Bridge St.

DRS. CUFF & CONSTANTINEAU

Surgeon Dentists

Rooms 5, 6, 7 8, Bon Marche Build'g,
159 Merrimack Street.

SCOTT & O'DAY,

Plumbers and Sanitary Engineers.

Steam, Gas and Water Piping.

JOBBING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO.

54 Appleton Street,

Opposite New Post Office.

Dancing - School.

Associate Hall. MR. BANTA will be at this hall every Wednesday after 3, to give Private Lessons in the Highland Fling, Hornpipe, Spanish Dance, Skip Rope. Sword Dance, Skirt Dance, Irish Reel, Jig, Clog Dance, Winging, &c., also Waltz, Schottische, Galop, Polka, any style dancing desired. $1 per lesson. Class in Ball Room Dancing meet at 8 every Wednesday Ev'g. Patrons may join this class by the lesson. 50c. per lesson

What?

The "VICTOR" Boiler is for Heating.

The "WELSBACH" Burner is for Lighting.

-THE-

H. R. Barker M'f'g Co.

THERE IS

no brand of high grade beers that smacks of better flavor, than the "Premier" or "Bavarian."

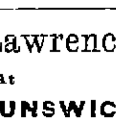

NO BETTER

stimulating and healthgiving beverage in the market than Smith's Philadelphia

ALE

for which we are sole Lowell agents.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF,

55 Middle Street.,

Parker block, Near Palmer Street.

G. W. Harrington & Bro.,

Manufacturers of the Finest Carbonated Soda Beverages in the City. The choicest line of

Lager and Stock Ales

In the city. Family Trade a Specialty. Order by Telephone 348-4.

CORNER WINTER AND DAVIS STS

Do You Go To Lawrence?

If So, Call At

THE HOTEL BRUNSWICK,

Which now has the Finest Dining Rooms in the city. They have been recently renovated. The Cuisine is Unsurpassed

Now Is the Time to Buy.

PICTURES, DIPLOMAS FRAMED,

85c. TO $1.00.

LARGE LINE OF MOULDINGS.

Our Prices Are Always One-third Off.

GEO. E. MAKER,

No. 2 John St., Marble Bank Building.

JAMES MEEK,

HAY, GRAIN AND POULTRY FOOD.

Little Stone Mill foot of Anne St.

LOWEST PRICES. TELEPHONE 2-92

Farrell & Conaton

248 DUTTON ST.,

Practical Plumbers

AND

Sanitary Engineers.

Also Steam, Gas and Water Fitters We also carry a large line of Gas Fixtures at lowest price.

JAMES MARREN,

Real Estate and Insurance Agent,

121 CENTRAL STREET.

Insurance placed in the most reliable companies.

All orders sent to P. O. Box 486 shall be promptly attended to.

DOORS,
BLINDS,
GLAZED WINDOWS.

Regular sizes in stock, odd sizes made to order. Goods first quality. Prompt delivery.

J. H. HOWARD,

COMMISSION MERCHANT.

Cor. Market & Shattuck Sts.

DO YOU WANT THE BEST?

The Richmond Range

It is the Best in the World.

AND IS WARRANTED.

ARE YOU IN NEED OF A

PARLOR - STOVE?

We can show you a fine line of Elegant Heaters Up to Date.

Peter Davey.

134 MARKET STREET - - OPPOSITE PALMER.

TELEPHONE: RESIDENCE, 458-2. STORE, 314-2.

NO - DULL - TIMES - AT

YOUNG'S

Ever Popular Bargain Store, 111 Central Street.

TRADE INCREASING EVERY WEEK. No wonder. Look at the Bargains we offer for Friday and Saturday—

25 doz Gent's Night Robes, made in first-class style of the best New England Cotton, 58 inches long, for 50 Cents Each, offered as a great bargain in other stores at 75c each.

22 doz Ladies' Night Robes, such as we have been selling at 59c each and you cannot buy the same class of goods elsewhere under $1.25. To make short work of the lot our price will be 50 Cents Each.

3 cases Ladies' Heavy Fleeced Jersey Ribbed Vests and Pants, only 25c each; also better grades 38 and 49c. each.

Ladies' All-Wool Scarlet and Camel Hair Vests and Pants, 75c each, worth $1.

A full line of Children's Merino and All wool Vests and Pants from 8c upwards.

Gent's Heavy Merino and Natural Wool Shirts and Drawers, 25, 38, 40, 45, and 49c each. Gent's All-Wool Scarlet Vests and Pants 49c each, worth 75c.

120 doz Ladies' Fast Black and Natural Wool Seamless Hose, advertised as a great bargain elsewhere at 19c.; our price 15 Cents a pair. 86 doz. Children's Fast Black Hose (double knee), 15c a pair; regular price 25c. a pair. Large Skein Best Scotch Yarn 20c. a skein. Best Spanish Yarn 15c a Skein. Best Saxony Yarn 9c. a Skein. Best Germantown Yarn 12 1-2c. a Skein. Special Bargains in stamped goods, Large Tidies, Tray Cloths, Splashers, 5c each. You can't buy the same class of goods in this city less than 10c. each, and lots of other Bargains at YOUNG'S, 111 Central Street.

TEETH

$5 TO $10 A SET.

To our patients who do not find it convenient to call during the day, please call at noontimes, or Saturday afternoons as our office is not open evenings. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

NO CHARGE FOR EXTRACTING.

Every Set warranted to be the same Teeth that other dentists ask $15 and $18 for, and every Set warranted to fit. Gold Fillings and Gold Crown work a specialty. Teeth Filled with Gold by Electricity. No Pain. Teeth extracted Without Pain by our new method. 30 years experience. DRS. J. K. BICKELL & SON, Painless Dentists, Rooms 24, 25, and 32 Runels' Building, Cor. Merrimack and Bridge Sts

A MAN
WITH HALF
AN IDEA OF WHAT
IS THE CORRECT THING,
WOULD SAY THAT OUR WALL
PAPERS ARE SURELY THE BEST, - -

A. L. Kittredge & Co., 208 CENTRAL ST.

BARGAINS. BARGAINS

—IN—

H-O-S-I-E-R-Y.

BROWN ∴ BROTHERS,

OPP. MONUMENT SQUARE.

1 Case Ladies' Fast Black Hose, 10c, regular price 12½c a pair.
49 doz. Ladies' Balbriggan Fleeced Lined Hose, 10c, down town price 20c pair
63 doz. Ladies' Fancy Striped Hose, 10c, former price 15c a pair.
90 doz. Ladies' Black All-Wool Hose, 20c, worth 25c a pair.
59 doz Ladies' Natural Wool and Oxford Grey Hose, 25c, sold elsewhere for 33c
1 case Children's Fast Black Hose, 10c, a bargain at 15c a pair.
120 doz. Children's Fine Wool Hose, 20 and 25c a pair.
2 cases Gent's Cotton Hose, 10c, 3 pairs for 25c.
1 case Gent's Seamless Hose, 12½c, cheap at 15c.
150 Gent's Wool Hose, 15c a pair.
2 cases Gent's Blue and Gray Ribbed Hose, 25c, a bargain at 35c. Don't forget to stop here before going down town.

BROWN BROS., OPPOSITE MONUMENT SQUARE.

YOU ARE SURE

To have them during the next six weeks. We refer to the customary coughs and colds which always appear with the change from summer to fall weather. Taken in time they are easily shaken off, but if allowed to run may last all winter, and end with some serious complaint like consumption. Do you remember some of the marvelous cures performed by

Ellingwood's Cough Balsam

Last winter? All we want now is to remind you of the best preparation in the world for coughs and colds, and later we shall publish testimonials from some of our well known and reliable citizens which must convince you of its value as a curer.

Price 25c., 50c., and $1 a Bottle.

DR. KELLEY. SURGEON DENTIST. 161 CENTRAL ST. Opposite the Washington House

THE LOWELL

Gas Light Company

OFFICE:

22 Shattuck Street, Corner Middle.

SEWALL G. MACK, President; JACOB ROGERS Treasurer; D. B. BARTLETT, Clerk.

Directors: Sewall G. Mack, Levi Sprague, Jacob Rogers, Alex. G. Cumnock, George S. Motley Edward M. Tucke, James Francis.

PRICE OF GAS,

With the Discount Off for Prompt Payment, is

$1.00 ONE THOUSAND FEET.

First-class Gas Cooking Stoves set up and rented at a low rate per year, piping included. COKE, broken, screened and delivered at $4.50 per chaldron, $2.25 per half chaldron, cash.

No charge made for the use of meters.

No charge made for running supply pipes from street mains to consumer's cellar.

Orders when left at office promptly attended to.

E. R. DONOVAN, Office: 85 Gorham Street
Constable and Auctioneer.

The best advertising medium in Lowell is the DAILY SUN.

THE LOWELL DAILY SUN, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1894.

No other paper in Lowell approaches THE SUN in circulation.

ABOUT THE HOUSEHOLD LORE.

BEDSTEADS AND PILLOWSLIPS OF VARIOUS COLORS.

Some New Styles of Madras Muslin—Piano Decorations—Deviled Ham—Odd Picture Frames.

Renaissance lace spreads and round bolsters covered with the same are the bed trimmings most in vogue among the wealthy folk, but there are a host of simple things which are charming and have the merit of being available as well. Splendor may be desirable, but somehow it does not appeal to every one's sense of desirableness.

In a young girl's room, completed not long since, the spread is described in the New York Herald as of finest mull, dotted here and there with tiny rosebuds. It is finished with a full frill, and with it are used pillowslips of sheer linen lawn, embroidered with flowers, like those of the mull, and drawn over pale pink silk. The whole outfit costs very little money, but is simply delightful and has just that air of dainty perfection which belongs to the perfect bed.

Another attractive spread is of fine Madras muslin, cream colored, with a figure in warm reds and browns, and is also finished with a frill. The bolster is round, but not hard, and the spread, which is of extra length, is pulled up over it as well as the bed proper. The effect is most charming, and as the cover is only laid lightly over the whole the bed seems always invitingly ready for use.

Pure white is used by many women, and just now is urged by some authorities, but unless for summer or in the lightest colored rooms it seems cold and unsatisfactory. The old fashioned Marseilles or pique cover is very far from desirable, and the lighter, daintier fabrics require such frequent change as to make them more costly than silk. White is only good when it is absolutely pure. Anything approaching a condition of soil entirely spoils its effect.

Deviled Ham.

Cut a thick slice of ham from the leanest part. Mild, slightly smoked ham is the best for this operation. Dip the slice in warm lard, so that every portion of the lean is covered. Dredge it with dry curry powder or black pepper. Broil over a clear fire, turning frequently and taking care not to cook too much. Serve with the following sauce poured over the ham: One teaspoonful of black pepper mixed with one of mustard flour. Melt an ounce of butter in a saucepan and work in the mustard. Dilute with 4 tablespoonfuls of meat stock or water; add a tablespoonful of minced gherkin or capers and a few drops of vinegar. Make this boiling hot. Add more vinegar if not acid enough. Pour the sauce on to a very hot meat dish. Lay the broil on it. None of the sauce must touch the upper surface of the broiled meat. Garnish with lemon rings and serve.

An Odd Picture Frame.

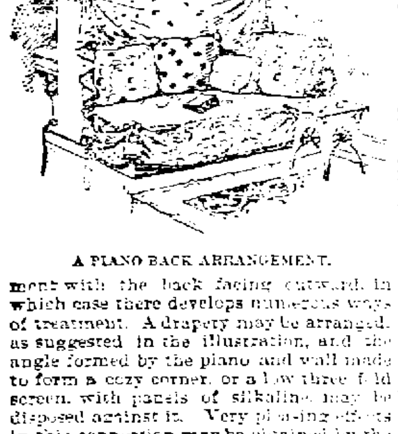

Although the following has a somewhat homely sound, Good Housekeeping says the effect will be novel and give the impression of a handsomely carved and very unique frame:

Take an old flat frame, or one nearly so, and cover it in all sorts of fantastic shapes with small oyster shells, rough side out, and then gild them about two coats. The shells should be washed thoroughly with a brush to get off all particles of dirt and two holes drilled in each. This last operation will require patience to avoid breaking. Still broken pieces will be necessary to fill in the odd chinks, as the whole should be covered. Large tacks or lath nails will hold them on firmly.

By varnishing the whole with copal varnish after gilding it can always be washed free from the dust which is bound to collect on any rough surface.

Piano Decoration.

In refurnishing a parlor it is oftimes a matter of difficulty to bring the old piano into harmony with the newer surroundings. A means suggested by The Decorator and Furnisher for conforming it to the changed conditions is to place the instrument with the back facing outward, in which case there develops numerous ways of treatment. A drapery may be arranged, as suggested in the illustration, and the angle formed by the piano and wall made to form a cozy corner, or a low three fold screen, with panels of silkaline, may be disposed against it. Very pleasing effects in this connection may be obtained by the use of growing or artificial plants of the palm variety.

A PIANO BACK ARRANGEMENT.

But when it is not possible to thus place the piano, and it is necessary to have it set in the usual manner, other methods of adornment will have to be devised. The top can be covered and the ends concealed by a drapery reaching to the floor. The space above the keyboard may be treated with a suitable textile fabric gathered on rods placed top and bottom and over this arranged in graceful folds a festoon drapery. This may be in one, two or three sections or may be a simple silken scarf artistically arranged from time to time.

Oyster and Celery Salad.

Chop sufficient oysters for the dish into dice and shred finely some good crisp celery. Now toss these two in some rich mayonnaise dressing and put it all in a glass dish. Mask it all thoroughly over with more mayonnaise and serve garnished with celery tufts. The secret of this salad is to have it made just as it is wanted, with materials that, though not iced, should yet be perfectly cold. This salad is also very good if lobster is used instead of the oysters.

Water Power Gun.

What is called a "water power machine gun" has been patented. It is described as having a number of circumferentially arranged barrels, in the rear of which is a feed wheel carrying a cartridge belt and operatively connected with a water wheel, in connection with mechanism for exploding the cartridges. There is little mechanism liable to get out of repair in the gun, which is designed to automatically fire a continuous stream of bullets. It may be operated by hand if the water supply fails.

How to Test Nutmegs.

Prick them with a pin, and if they good the oil will instantly ...

A SOLDIER'S DOOM.

Bitten by a Mad Horse, It Was Only a Question of Time.

One day at the fort a sudden cry was raised that the major's horse had gone mad, but it was not until the wild eyed and foam flecked animal had been shot as he rushed back and forth across the parade ground that we learned he had bitten Corporal Wallace on the arm when he first gained his liberty. Some said the horse had been bitten by reptile or insect and was only frenzied with pain. Others dropped their voices to a whisper as they recalled the suspicious actions of a strange dog which had been fired upon and driven away a week or two before. The teeth of the horse had torn cloth and flesh and drawn blood. He had not bitten like a horse, but snapped like a dog.

"Pooh, man, no danger, no danger!" the surgeon had said as he dressed the wound.

"It's only a scratch, and we won't talk about it," the corporal made answer to all his comrades.

We had nothing more to say, except among ourselves, but from that hour every trooper in "C" company felt that Corporal Wallace was a doomed man, just as surely doomed as if a court martial had sentenced him to death and the president had refused to interfere with the findings. You will say it was curious that we avoided him. So it was, and yet we could not but feel that he was a dead man walking about among us. We heard him speak, we saw him, in apparent good health, we listened to his songs and stories at night, and yet every man who heard and saw and listened kept repeating over and over to himself:

"The corporal was bitten by a mad horse, and sooner or later he will go mad and die."

The man sought to blind himself to the situation, but he could not. We had the feeling upon us, and we could not shake it off. Each morning we looked at him and wondered if the terrible virus would show itself before night. Each night we looked at him and wondered why he did not rush out on the broad plains in the darkness and try to run away from the specter. He was a big, brave hearted fellow, carrying the scars of half a dozen battles. He sang and whistled and was merry, and yet he did not deceive us. We knew the haunting fear and terrible thoughts which came to him at night when wrapped in his blanket and the barracks were quiet.

Days passed away, and yet men whispered when they spoke of Corporal Wallace. Weeks passed away, and yet men looked at him askance and still regarded him as walking in the shadow of death. April, May, June, and then the restless Indians broke away from the reservation, and the troops were sent out to find and drive them back. When "C" company was drawn up in line for departure there was Corporal Wallace in his proper place. Why not? There was no bigger, healthier man in the troop, nor one whose saber or carbine could be depended on to do more execution. And yet we wondered that he should go, and there were murmurs of dissatisfaction as we rode away. He was a doomed man, a dead man sitting in the saddle as if he were one of us.

Days and nights of hard riding and hunger and thirst, and we turned the Indians back. It had been a week of wild haste and constant excitement, and the troopers were bruised and sore and exhausted as we made camp after an all day's ride. We had no fuel for fires and little to eat, but there was a grand spring at which man and beast quenched their thirst. The darkness was falling and we had huddled together when some one whispered that Corporal Wallace was sitting alone by himself. Then another drew us closer together and said he had seen the corporal kneel down to drink at the spring and start back as if he had caught sight of a serpent. We whispered and wondered and peered at him through the gloom, but no man approached him. By and by he arose, stood for a moment as if undecided and then walked with faltering step to the spring. When he reached it, he turned his head away and knelt down. Then he made as if he would drink, but sprang to his feet, with a cry of horror, and rushed away into the darkness.

"It has come! The corporal is mad!" was shouted through the camp, and for a moment confusion reigned supreme. Then there came a sudden silence, broken after a few seconds by the voice of our captain making a detail to secure the man and by the blood curdling yells of the corporal as he raced away into the black night with death keeping pace at his side.

Five, ten, twenty men pursued him within the hour. He ran here and there, dodged and turned, always escaping the hands which sought to clutch him, and again and again returning to the spring to quench the awful thirst upon him, but always shrieking at the sight of the water bubbling up. For more than an hour we pursued him as if he were some wild animal we sought to capture. Then at last he broke through our lines again, circled back to the spring, and with a cry of agony which was heard all over the camp he fell down and writhed and twisted about for a moment or two and died. He had been a doomed man for weeks and months. We bent over the body and saw the look of horror on the face growing pale, the hard shut teeth, the blood and froth on his lips, and we were glad that death had come at last. M. QUAD.

How Eagles Catch Sage Hens.

A gentleman who has cruised through the Powder river valley tells an interesting tale in regard to the manner in which the eagles contrive to catch sage hens. These birds, like the grouse family, fly with great swiftness, and in a stern chase an eagle is not in it at all with one of them. In order that the eagle may dine on sage hen some hard work is necessary, and the eagle has solved the problem.

As the gentleman was driving along the side of a mountain he started a covey of sage hens, which flew away down toward the valley. Suddenly an eagle, which had been sitting on the low ground, rose up under the birds, which immediately rose high in the air, while the eagle flopped up after them. When they had risen high enough, another eagle swooped down from above. The terrified birds scattered in all directions, but the eagle singled out one, and as an eagle on the swoop goes like a shot out of a gun he soon seized his bird, and the pair flew off to a neighboring cliff to dine.—Portland Oregonian.

There Were Two Kinds of Fish.

Mr. Broker says he has changed his restaurant down town, "so he can know what he's getting." His mind got uncertain about his old place after an experience he had last Friday. Friday is "fish day" at this place, and Mr. B. likes fish when it is "just right." So he cast his eye over the bill of fare and remarked: "Lizzie, how is the boiled codfish today? If it is good, you may bring me some; but, you mind, if it isn't good I don't want it. Do you see?"

Lizzie saw and departed, and then Mr. Broker says he heard her call down the shaft of the dumb waiter in the rear, "One boiled cod, please, off the new fish!"—New York Tribune.

The famous Da Vinci regarded painting as the least of his talents. He was a physician, a surgeon, an anatomist, a mathematician, a military and civil engineer, a

SCIENTIFIC AND PROGRESSIVE.

SOME REMARKABLE PLANTS AND FLOWER GROWTHS.

Natural Curios in Various Parts of the World—How They Came About—A Type Writer for Bookkeepers.

A Canadian climber, the Physianthus albens, has received the name of "cruel plant" from its ill treatment of butterflies. It flowers in the month of August, and the butterflies, attracted by the perfume, hover round it in large numbers and push their trunks into the corollas to sip

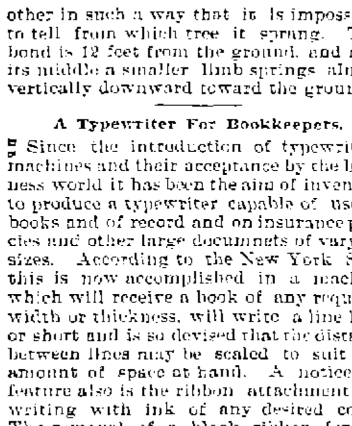

THE CRUEL PLANT.

the honey. A pair of sensitive vegetable pinchers in the heart of the flower grips the delicate proboscis, and in spite of struggles to get free the butterfly hangs suspended until it dies. Apparently the plant has nothing to gain by the death of the insect, as it is not "carnivorous," like the Venus flytrap. In fact, if the butterfly were allowed to come and go it would tend to foster the species by assisting cross fertilization. It appears, however, that the "cruel plant" came originally from Brazil, where the butterflies are much stronger and extricate their suckers from the trap. We may add that another Canadian plant, the Cnicus discolor, is charged with cruelty. The flower has a gland which secretes a viscous liquid capable of liming insects which are fond of it. Moreover, they seem to be stupefied and poisoned by it, and no reason can as yet be assigned for the deadly consequence.

A remarkable tree growth described and illustrated, as is the foregoing, by Cassell's Magazine, exists in an arch between a private park and a public road at Middleboro, Mass. It is formed of three trunks, which coalesce, and a fourth has been added for symmetry by the owner of the park, but whether the trunks are independent trees or have sprung from one root has not been ascertained. Such a curio from the hand of nature is certainly more interesting than an artificial entrance.

Another curious tree growth reported consists of two beeches, over a foot in diameter and 20 feet apart, joined like the Siamese twins by a nearly horizontal branch, which appears to have grown out of one trunk and united itself with the other in such a way that it is impossible to tell from which tree it sprung. This bond is 12 feet from the ground, and near its middle a smaller limb springs almost vertically downward toward the ground.

A LIVING ARCH.

A Typewriter For Bookkeepers.

Since the introduction of typewriting machines and their acceptance by the business world it has been the aim of inventors to produce a typewriter capable of use on books and of record and on insurance policies and other large documents of varying sizes. According to the New York Sun, this is now accomplished in a machine which will receive a book of any required width or thickness, will write a line long or short and is so devised that the distance between lines may be scaled to suit the amount of space at hand. A noticeable feature also is the ribbon attachment for writing with ink of any desired color. The removal of a black ribbon, for instance, and the substitution of a red, purple or green ribbon is accomplished with both ease and celerity.

Where several copies of a manuscript are desired there is an arrangement by which the last copy of a dozen or 15 comes out as plain as the first. Finally this book writing machine includes in its scope of utility the work done by all other typewriters in general and a single sheet of note paper seems quite as much at home between its rollers as a double entry ledger.

An Indestructible Lamp Wick.

This wick, made entirely of clay, is rendered capillary by incorporating with the clay, while it is in a plaster state, filaments of unspun vegetable fiber, which are burned out in the process of baking. The burning out of the vegetable fiber leaves capillary tubes running longitudinally through the wick, through which the oil from the lamp will be raised to the flame by capillary attraction. Owing to the perfect combustion of the wick the flame is perfectly white in character, devoid of odor and smokeless. It is claimed that an indestructible wick is thus provided which possesses all the advantageous qualities of an ordinary cotton or fiber wick, and, in addition, lasts an indefinite time without renewal or necessity of trimming or care.

The Light of the Sun.

The light of the sun, according to Mr. Tesla, is the result of vibrations in 94,000,000 miles of ether, which separate us from the center of this solar system. "It is difficult for me," he said, "to give you an idea that you will readily grasp about this question of vibration. In ordinary life our minds do not deal with the figures that come up in such investigations, but take a 5 and put after it 14 zeroes, then you will have the number of vibrations which occur in the ether every second, and which produce light." To duplicate sunlight by producing this number of vibrations here on earth by means of suitable apparatus is one of the problems which, according to an exchange, now engage Tesla's attention.

His Natural Disadvantages.

Rankin—Your trousers always bag at the knees. Why don't you keep them creased, as I do?

Fyle—Because it wouldn't do any good. My shin bone won't fit into a crease, and yours will.—Chicago Tribune.

WM. F. COURTNEY, 13 and 14 Mansur Block

WANTED MONEY

Train Wreckers Wanted Money at Any Cost.

AN AWFUL JOB PLANNED BY ROBBERS.

Confession of a Conscience Stricken Individual.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 1.—A special to The Wisconsin from Merrill says that wholesale murder and robbery were the motives of the recent train wrecking on the "Soo" road. Two men charged with the murder of the man who lost his life were given a hearing yesterday and were held for trial. One of the prisoners confessed, and it is now known what prompted the wreckers to derail the Boston limited near Heafford Junction on the night of Oct. 7.

Fireman Cottrill was killed in the wreck. Leavitt Hazelton, the man who confessed, is only 20 years old. Frank Williams, his companion, denies any knowledge of the wrecking. Hazelton says he spent a week sawing the piles and stringers of the bridge. They sought to kill everyone aboard the train and then rob the safe in the express car.

Hazelton's Story.

It was last Friday that Hazelton signified his desire to confess. His statement was taken before Ed Klutze, notary public, in the presence of Sheriff Payser, District Attorney Anderson and F. X. Helze. Hazelton said:

"About dark we set to work with the purpose of wrecking a passenger train, so we could rob the express car. We expected the wreck would be much worse than it was. We expected that the cars would be all thrown from the track, smashed up and the passengers and train crew all killed, so that we would have no one to prevent us from accomplishing our purpose. We thought mostly of the money we would get and not the loss of life.

"We began work west of the center of the bridge. We cut all the stringers across the bridge and two sets of them at the ends, and then sawed the piles or posts upon which they rested. We also cut a brace.

After a Train Passed Over

we sawed the outside post and the other brace, took the bolts out of the fishplates, the spikes next to the fishplates and removed the bolts from the fishplates at each end of the rail.

"We waited at the east end of the bridge until the westbound passenger train came and broke through the bridge. We were on the south side of the track at the east end of the bridge when the crash came. Then we walked westward to the point where the wreck was. We heard some one crying: 'Are you hurt?' The other man answered: 'A little.' Then we heard some one crying out again.

"We did not wait to hear more. A man was coming toward us, and that scared us. We walked away and went pretty near to the next town on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul track and went into a hay barn. We remained there three days and then started for Merrill."

Drew a Big Crowd.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The fierce fight which has been waged in the Tenth congressional district between M. J. McEttrick and W. S. McNary, the independent and regular Democratic nominees, culminated last night in a joint debate between the two men at Gray's hall. Fully 6000 people gathered outside the hall, and as its capacity is only 800 a great crush ensued. Several people were injured and store windows near the hall were broken in by the great pressure. The debate itself reached no satisfactory result.

A Peculiar Case.

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 1.—Clement Walls of Lubec has just had his reason restored after 45 years of idiocy. When a boy, his skull was fractured by a kick from a colt. Surgeons have just found that a bit of broken bone pressed on his brain, which being raised gave back to the organ its wonted vigor. Curiously enough, Walls' brain force seems to have been in complete suspension during his idiocy for the first thing he asked the doctors was, "Did the colt get away?"

A B. Y. P. U. Anniversary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The Baptist Young People's union of Massachusetts held an anniversary last night in the Bowdoin Square tabernacle. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Walter Calley, Boston; vice presidents, W. W. Main, Boston; H. T. Bailey, Scituate, and Rev H. S. Johnson, Pittsfield; secretary, Rev. M. F. Johnson, Middleboro, treasurer, C. P. Jameson, Boston.

Interesting Evidence.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Nov. 1.—At the Haverhill boodle trial yesterday several aldermen, it was shown, had been entertained by liquor applicants; a pool was formed, it was said, by one of the defendants, Mr. Smith of Boston, for "campaign expenses." The witnesses were told by aldermen that licenses would cost about $200.

The Y. W. C. A. Convention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Nearly all the city and college Young Women's Christian associations and Young People's societies in this state and adjoining states sent delegates to attend the eighth annual convention, which begun today. The convention is held in Harlem. Dr. Torrey of Chicago presided at the opening meeting.

Big Banks Consolidated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—Two of the oldest and largest of financial institutions of this city have consolidated. They are the Meridian National bank and Merchants' National bank. The capital stock is to be $1,000,000. The deposits of the two banks amounted to $2,800,000.

Sentenced, Though Absent.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Five anarchists, Reclus, Poste, Martin, Duprat and Pouget, were yesterday sentenced, in their absence, to 20 years' imprisonment. They were found guilty of belonging to a criminal association.

Strike Not Necessary.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The journeymen plumbers of this city today adopted the eight-hour system. The master plumbers agreed to the change, and 400 men receive the benefit without a strike.

The Tariff a Stumbling Block.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Senor Mauragua, the Spanish minister, says the resignation of the Spanish cabinet was due to differences in relation to the new tariff bill. The ministers who have resigned represent the element opposed to low duties. Premier Sagasta favors freer trade relations with the outside world.

LOTHROP & CUNNINGHAM, 182 Merrimack Street, Photographers.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Crespo's speedy flight from Venezuela is predicted.

James B. Sutherland was suffocated by gas at Boston.

Three deaths were due to an open switch at Foster, Pa.

It is rumored that Crispi contemplates a raid on Tripoli.

About 30 sheep were killed by dogs at Watertown, Mass.

The Bettendorf wheel works at Davenport, Ia., were destroyed by fire.

S. P. Love was elected assistant manager of the Wesleyan baseball team.

Flour mills in St. Louis and the Northwest may shut down during December.

The will of Henry C. Hutchins of Boston gives $30,000 for charitable purposes.

During a gale the steamer Lewiston, coal laden, went ashore about a mile east of Oak Orchard, N. Y.

Michael Jennings, found dead at Boston, is thought to have been killed by taking an overdose of pills.

George R. Sargent was sentenced to 10 days in jail for disturbing a religious meeting on Boston common.

James Sullivan, the pitcher of last season's Providence nine, has signed with the Boston League management.

Employes of the Potomska mill at New Bedford, Mass., had a hard time putting out a fire in the picker room. Considerable loose cotton was destroyed.

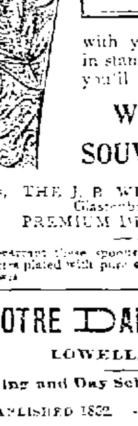

Joseph McKay of Lawrence, Mass., 60 years old, made an unsuccessful attempt at suicide last night by taking paris green. He had been drinking heavily of late.

Gorham grange at Gorham, Me., celebrated its 20th anniversary. An address was made by L. B Dennett of Portland, who instituted the grange 20 years ago.

Mark R. Leavenworth, one of the best-known Masons in Connecticut, grand senior warden of the grand lodge of Connecticut, lies at the point of death at his home in Bridgeport.

Rev. Charles E. McKinley was ordained and installed a pastor of the First Parish Congregational church at Yarmouth, Me. Rev. Mr. McKinley came from Iowa, and has just completed a course at Andover Theological seminary.

Cut Me Out

Cut out this advertisement, and send it to the makers of

IVORINE Washing Powder

with your address and 14c. in stamps, and by return mail you'll receive their beautiful WASHINGTON SOUVENIR SPOON.

Address, THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Ct. PREMIUM DEPARTMENT.

We warrant these spoons made of the best German silver, extra plated with pure silver, oxidized handles, gold plated bowls.

NOTRE DAME ACADEMY, LOWELL, MASS.

Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies

ESTABLISHED 1852. --- CHARTERED 1865.

This school continues the careful training and thorough instruction in every department for which it has hitherto been so favorably known. For particulars address: The Superior.

HEATING STOVES

$5.00, $7.00, $12.00, To $33.00.

ROBERTSON & CO. 100 CENTRAL STREET.

FLOUR! FLOUR!!

Wholesale Prices to the Consumer. Best Minnesota Haxall Flour,

$4.00 Per Bbl.

50c. 1-8 Bbl. Sack. A printed Guarantee with every barrel or sack bought. Other goods sold on a small margin but we are selling Flour just now.

F. M. BARNEY & CO., Wholesale and Retail Grocers, 415 MIDDLESEX ST., LOWELL, MASS.

WATSON BAKERY

Every evening at 5 o'clock Hot Tea Rolls and Cream Bread, also all kinds of Cake and Pastry. Only the best stock used in the manufacture of our goods. Parties supplied at short notice at Nos. 24 to 30 CHARLES STREET. Peter Watson, Prop.

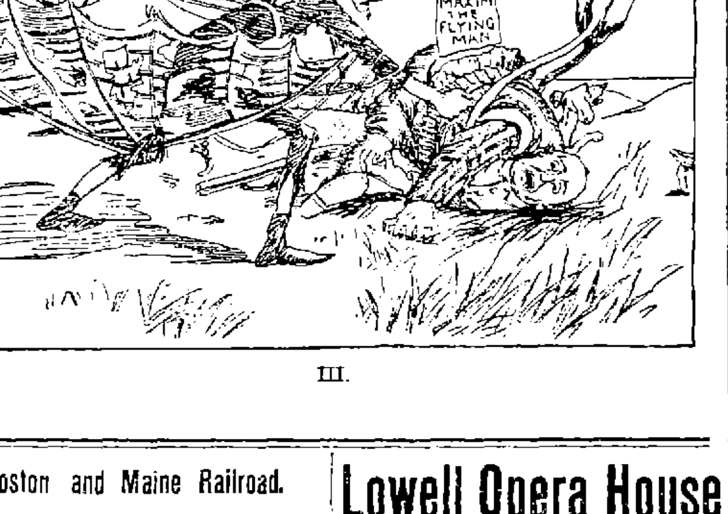

[illegible]

I.

II.

III.

Boston and Maine Railroad.

Winter Arrangement.

WESTERN DIVISION

Commencing Sept. 30, 1894.

TRAINS LEAVE CENTRAL STREET DEPOT, LOWELL.

For Boston, at 6.50, 8.15, 9.30, 10.50 a. m.; 12.05, 12.45, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 4.15, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Lawrence, 8.30, 9.30, 10.50, a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30 (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p.m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Haverhill, 8.30, 9.30 a. m.; 12.05, 2.30, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10, 6.15, 7.00, 9.30, (11.25 Wednesdays and Saturdays only) p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.20 a. m., 12.05, 5.35, 7.25 p. m.
For Salem and Lynn, 12.05, 5.10 p. m.
For Newburyport and Amesbury, 12.05, 2.30, 4.10, 6.15 p. m.
For Exeter, and Dover, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 3.25, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p.m.
For Rochester and Alton Bay, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m.
For Somersworth, N. H., Salmon Falls Saco and Portland 8.30 a.m.; 12.05, 4.10, 5.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p.m.
For Augusta, Bath, Lewiston, 8.30 a. m.; 12.05, 4.10 p. m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.
For Bangor, Belfast, Waterville, Skowhegan, Rockland, 8.30 a. m., 12.05, 5.10 p.m. SUNDAYS, 5.35 p. m.
For St. John N. B., Halifax, N. S., Montreal, and Quebec, 8.30 a. m., 5.10 p. m. (5.10 does not run Saturdays): SUNDAY, 5.35 p. m.
For Eastport and St. John's (per steamer), on Mondays and Fridays at 12.05 p. m.
For Castine, Deer Isle, Sedgwick and Bar Harbor, Jonesport and Machiasport (via steamer Frank Jones at Rockland), Tuesdays and Fridays at 5.10 p. m.

Southern Division.

On and After Sept. 30, 1894, Trains Leave Merrimack Street Depot, Lowell, as Follows:—

For Boston—5.45, 6.30, ¶6.50, *7.45, *8.30, ¶9.00, *9.40, 11.00 a. m.; 1.40, ¶3.00, 4.30, ¶5.40, p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m.
Trains leave Middlesex Street Station, Lowell, as follows:
For Boston.—5.48, 6.34, ¶6.53, §7.01, §7.18, §7.27, *7.48, *8.37, 9.03, *9.50, 11.03, 12.00 a. m., 1.43, ¶3.03, 4.02, 4.33, *5.21, ¶5.43, *6.28, §7.52 p. m. SUNDAYS, *7.18, 7.27, 8.05, *9.16 a. m.; §4.25, §6.03 p. m.
For Woburn, §7.01, 7.45, 11.00 a.m.; 1.40, 4.30, 8.46 p. m. SUNDAYS, 8.45 a. m., §4.25, 6.03 p.m.
*Express. §Northern Depot only. ¶Via Bedford.
For Lawrence — 6.30, 10.00, 2.10, 4.15, 5.50 p. m.
For Salem and Way Stations—§7.33 a. m.; 1.25, 5.50 p. m.
Time below is from Middlesex street station.
For Ayer Junction and Way Stations—7.15 a. m.; 12.05, 5.00 and 5.47 p. m. SUNDAYS 2.15 p. m.
For Amherst, Milford and Wilton—9.14 a. m.; 1.50, 3.43, 5.42 p. m. SUNDAYS 2 p. m.
For Greenfield, Peterboro', Bennington, Hillsboro' and Keene—9.14 a. m. and 3.43 p. m. SUNDAYS, to Greenfield, Antrim, Bennington and Hillsboro', 2.00 p. m.
For Nashua, Manchester and Concord 7.57, 9.14 (Nashua only), 9.45, a.m.; 12.11, 1.50, 3.43, 5.42, 6.21, 8.13, 8.43 p.m. SUNDAYS 10.00 a.m. (to Nashua only), 3 a.m., 2.00, 6.00 8.13, 8.43 p. m.
For Penacook, Franklin, Lebanon and White River Junction—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, 5.42, §8.13 p. m.
For Warner, Bradford, Sunapee, Newport, (N. H.), Claremont and Claremont Junction—1.50 p. m.
For St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville via Wells River—9.45 a.m.; †8.43 p.m.
For Montpelier, Montreal, Essex Junction, Burlington and St. Albans, via Central Vermont line—9.45 a. m.; 12.11, †8.13 p. m.
For Montreal and Quebec, via Montreal and Boston Air Line—9.45 a. m.; †8.43 p. m.
Quebec Express via White River Junction—8.13, p. m., daily except Sunday.
†Daily for Montreal.

D. J. FLANDERS, Gen. Passenger and Ticket Agent.
H. C. TAFT Gen. Ag't. Lowell.

CHARLES B. FROST, 78 Central Street. Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Musical Instruments, Violin, Guitar and Banjo

Lowell Opera House

Saturday Matinee and Evening November 3d.

Bertram's & Willard's New and Original Realistic American Comedy Drama

THE ENGINEER.,

under the direction of Johnson and Chapman.

A Great Kaleidoscope of Humane Nature.

SEE The Plumberville Band. The Fourth of July Celebration. The Great Engine Scene.

Prices, Matinee, 75, 50, 35, 25c. Evening $1, 75, 50, 25c. Seats on sale Thursday at 10 o'clock.

Monday, November 5th.

WALTER LAWRENCE AND Miss ENGEL SUMNER

Supported by a good company in AIDEN BENEDICT'S

FABIO ROMANI.

LIVING PICTURES

By the greatest ancient and modern masters, the latest craze of London and New York, and the FAMOUS

Stereopticon and Spanish Dances —BY— MISS GRACE HUNTER.

Regular prices. Seats on sale Friday.

Music Hall,

One Week, Commencing Monday, Oct. 29

R. E. DAVEY'S Realistic Melo-Dramatic Success

Enemies For Life.

By Chas. H. Flemming.

Presented by a Powerful Caste, including the Beautiful and Accomplished Actress,

Miss Joan Craven.

Notable features of this grand production: Realistic Storm Effect, Revolving Prison, Rescue in Mid-Ocean, Gypsy Camp Scene, with Beautiful Waterfall, Destruction of Camp by Lightning, Powerful Climaxes. Refined Singing and Dancing Specialties presented by a coterie of artists. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30.

M. W. MILLER, House and Fresco Painter and Paper Hanger, 65 WILLIE STREET. Wall Papers supplied at wholesale rates. Get my prices before going elsewhere.

EDWARD CAWLEY, Office, 131 Central Street. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Coal of all kinds. Also dealer in Wood, Lime, and

WANT COLUMN

Advertisements inserted under this head for ONE CENT A WORD, first insertion; subsequent insertions HALF PRICE.

TENEMENTS TO LET

TO LET—Good, pleasant, convenient tenements of 2, 3, 4, 5 rooms, at 79 Chestnut St.

TO LET—A pleasant office in THE SUN building. Inquire at SUN office.

FOR SALE.—Sound young ferrets, $3 each; new stock, 15 months old. Brocher's, 8 Chestnut street.

FOR SALE.—In Centralville, cottage house of 7 rooms, near Bridge street. Price $1200, and on easy terms. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Capable men to represent our nurseries. Write Ellwanger & Barry, Rochester, N. Y.

WANTED—Agents to take orders by sample at home or travel, expenses and good salary or commission to right party. Samples sent on application. Address with stamp Lock Box 420, New York city.

$900 AND EXPENSES PAID competent men first year, or large commission, selling by sample, staple goods to merchants. No peddling. Experience unnecessary. For sealed particulars send stamp. Household Specialty Co., 73 4th street, Cincinnati, O.

FOR SALE—Farm of 26 acres with stock, crops and tools, near village and depot, 7 miles from Lowell, nearly new building; cuts 12 tons of hay, 1½ acres wood land, 3 cows, 1 horse, 2 wagons, 175 fowls and all the farming tools that go with a farm. Price $2600; easy terms. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street, Lowell.

FOR SALE.—A bargain in a boarding house, 150 boarders, 30 roomers. This is a good chance if you want a boarding house. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

WANTED—Ladies to apply or address Room 5, 64 Central street, Lowell and find out how to make money easy.

CHILDREN'S SHOES soled and heeled 20c at Cunningham's, Bridge street, Merrimack square, and Palmer street.

FOR SALE—cottage of 6 rooms and pantry near Salem street, sewer connections, good lot of land, price $1800. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—In Cannan, N. H., farms of all kinds and all prices, from 5 acres to 600 acres, and prices from $200 to $2500. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street, Courier building.

GET YOUR SUMMER CLOTHES cleansed at the Merrimack Steam Dyeing and Cleansing house. Clothing dyed, cleansed and repaired at short notice, 17 Merrimack street, F.P. Lew, proprietor.

$75.00 PER MONTH easily earned without financial risk by reliable agents with team, at retailing our teas, coffees, standard extracts, baking powder, spices, etc., etc., packed in imported tea pots, ruby, crystal, enameled and engraved agate and glassware, etc., of extensive varieties and value. Address for illustrated circular, terms, etc., to wholesale house, N. E. Distributing Co., 78 Broad street, Boston.

FOR SALE.—In Belvidere, two-story two-tenement house, large lot of land. This place can be bought at a bargain; it is near Alder street. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A fruit, confectionery, tobacco and cigar store on one of the principal streets in this city. Excellent location, doing a large business. Best of reasons for selling. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FURNISHED AND UNFURNISHED—Rooms to let at 40 Bridge street.

FOR SALE.—In Ward 5, new cottage house of 7 rooms, large lot of land. Price $1250, $50 down, balance in rent. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A nice cottage house of 7 rooms and shed all in best of condition, gas, cemented cellar, sewer connections, concrete walks, good lot of land room for stable, situated in one of the best locations in the Highlands. Few steps from Coral street—Price $2000. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

FOR SALE.—Small farm of 8 acres, good buildings and near Lowell. Price $800. G. L. Hubbard, 17 Merrimack street.

FOR SALE—A 10-acre farm only 2 miles from this city, near school, in an excellent neighborhood, 5 acres of heavy woodland timber, cut 2 tons hay. Good cottage of 6 rooms and pantry; house in best of repair; shed connected with ell. Fine farm, a large hennery. A fine place and cheap at price, $2000. Fish & Plummer, 137 Central street.

VARIETY STORES use old papers for wrapping purposes. We sell them at this office for 5 cents a hundred.

FOR SALE.—A small farm seven miles from Lowell, one-half mile from the depot, near the school, one acre of blackberries, one quarter of an acre of strawberries, seventy-five apple trees, twenty pear trees, one and a half acres with three acres of planted. Rare bargain. For further particulars see C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street. Come quick or you will lose this chance.—200 acres of a farm, with a 20 room house; would make a fine summer boarding house. Cuts 50 tons of hay, plenty of fruit, one and a half miles from the depot, and ($1150) eleven hundred and fifty dollars will capture this place. Inquire of C. W. Pinkham, 65 Merrimack street.

Nudd The Engraver, DOES WORK FOR All the Leading Jewelers. Nothing but Artistic Work Done at NUDD'S, 64 Central St., Room 5.

F. L. RICHARDSON, Real Estate and Business Broker, —AT— 56 CENTRAL STREET.

BOARDING HOUSES in all parts of the city. Prices from $250 to $1200.

MILK ROUTE, 20 cans, fine teams. Price $650.

HOUSE TO LET in Middlesex Village for $13.

TWELVE SMALL STORES, some cigar and tobacco, others variety, grocery, and some great bargains. Before you buy call at 56 CENTRAL STREET and see our list.

DANCING AND DEPORTMENT.

Monday evening, private class.
Tuesday evening, hall for rent.
Wednesday evening, advanced class and reception 7.30 to 11.
Wednesday afternoon, ladies class 3 to 5.
Thursday evening, advanced class (season tickets only) 8 to 10.30.
Friday evening, beginners class 7.45 to 10.
Friday afternoon, young people (advanced).
Saturday afternoon, children beginners 2 to 2.30.
Saturday afternoon, children advanced 3.30 to 5.
Saturday evening, intermediates 7.45 to 10.30.
Private lessons at any time not occupied by classes. Pupils received at any time. Office open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m., every day.
Pianist, Mrs. Mary Darling; violinist, Emil Laviguenr; Mr. and Mr. Charles A. Lester, assistants; principal, D. C. Lester, G. M. D., 34 Prescott street. Take elevator.

Lowell Heating and Plumbing Co. 828-836 MIDDLESEX STREET. Steam Heating, Hot Water Heating, Plumbing and Repairs. Copper work of every description. First class work. Best material.

DR. BRETON

The eminent Specialist, will be glad to see all his former patrons and any who desire his services at 44 Central Street.

Office Hours—1 to 5 p. m. Sundays and Holidays by appointment only.

What would Lowell be without the spindle? The city is known the world over as "The Spindle City."

The Spindle Cigar

SUN WEATHER BULLETIN.

ALMANAC FOR THURSDAY, NOV. 1.

SUN RISES..... 6 13 | MOON SETS..... 6 58 PM
SUN SETS..... 4 32 | FULL SEA..... 1 30 AM
LENGTH OF DAY 10 20 | " " ..... 1 45 PM

For Maine and New Hampshire: Showers, followed by clearing weather in southern portion; high winds, shifting to westerly; colder.

For Vermont: Showers, followed by fair weather and colder; westerly winds.

For Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: Generally fair, with colder; westerly winds.

LOCAL NEWS.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr Delphir Giroux to Miss Delia Rivard, Nov. 12.

Walter Perham has been elected president of the Village Improvement association of Chelmsford Center.

The Hamilton drug store for years run by Ellingwood & Co., has been sold to Leroy M. Turner, who for a long time has been associated with Goodale & Co.

At the eighth annual convention of the Union Veterans union held at Worcester, Tuesday, Col. Brigham invited the union to hold its next convention in Lowell and the invitation was accepted.

Fred Olert, the cocaine fiend arrested in this city, and afterwards arrested in Cambridge for forging physicians' orders for drugs and narcotics, was sent to the house of correction for six months, Monday.

The regimental staff of Col. Lambert of the H. S. regiment is: Lincoln, adjutant; quartermaster, Russell; quartermaster sergeant, Hall; sergeant major, Swan; color sergeants, Caverly and Libby; drum sergeant, Puelan.

The Ariel Mandolin and Guitar club consists of Mrs. W. E. Stratton, mandolin; Miss Mollie Raynes, mandolin; Mr. Arthur Spalding, mandolin; Mr. A. S. Prescott, piano; Mr. W. P. Hovey, guitar; Mr. W. E. Stratton, guitar; Miss Lena Fletcher, piano.

Lecture by T. D. Sullivan, M. P., at Huntington hall, postponed from this evening till later in November.

Foot Ball Game Saturday.

The high school team will play the Ballardvale Athletic club at foot ball on the Fair grounds, Saturday.

Gifts to an Institute.

The Mathew Temperance institute of North Billerica has received a gift of $50 from Misses Annie and Abbie Faulkner, former residents of North Billerica.

Will Be Heard for Murder.

Before Judge Blodgett at Cambridge this afternoon, Patrick Foley, Patrick Sullivan and Cornelius Nagle were brought up for a hearing on the Duroy Foster murder case.

Will be Welcome Here.

Herr Fitz Borjes, brother of Prof. E. J. Borjes is in New York after finishing his musical education at the Frankfort Conservatory of Music. He will come to Lowell and may play the 'cello at the recital of the Orchestral society.

Lowell Man in Trouble.

William Redman of Lowell was arranged in the Lawrence police court yesterday charged with drunkenness and larceny of a coat and vest from a "dummy" in front of a clothing store on Essex street. He got 30 days for drunkenness and 5 months for larceny.

The Winners at Whist.

The whist tourney at the Highland club last night for members and ladies was a five's affair of 2½ hours in length with 15 tables. Mr. and Mrs. Abel Wheeler were winners of a silver salver and cut glass decanter, and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jones were second, prizes a silver olive fork and seal pocketbook.

The Acmes Won Again.

The Acmes defeated the Raleighs' on the Columbian alleys last evening, by the following score:

Acmes—Dodson 408, Monson 458, Carney 439, Harbon 391, Parson 447; total 2145.

Raleighs—Prairie 462, Butler 351, Collin 407, Stevens 389, Sub. 446, total 2049.

An Excellent Scottish Concert.

The Geddes family gave an exceptionally fine concert in Odd Fellows' hall last evening in aid of the Caledonian charitable fund. There were 18 Scotch selections on the program and the greatest applause greeted Miss Susie Geddes in the Highland fling and Misses Nellie and Minnie Geddes in the sailor's hornpipe.

At the conclusion of the concert the members of the club and their friends adjourned to the club rooms on Middle street where supper was served and vocal and instrumental music enjoyed.

Farewell to Rev. Mr. Davis.

The farewell reception to Rev. A. Q. Davis and his wife by the parishioners of the House of Prayer, was held in the church parlor last evening.

An informal musical entertainment was followed by a supper; which all enjoyed.

Last week Mrs. Davis was presented several beautiful oil paintings, an elegant chain and charm, and a purse of money. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will go from here to Quincy and afterwards to New York.

PRIZES WON.

Two Suburbs of Lowell Capture Honorable Mention and the Station Agents Money.

The B. & M. railroad each year awards prizes to the agents maintaining the best appearing grounds around the stations. The award has been eagerly awaited. It was made yesterday and Cliftondale got $50 in the first class.

Billerica, and Main Street, Billerica, in the fourth class, each get $15; Tewksbury, west depot, in the sixth class, gets $5.

TWO YEARS OLD

And the Anniversary Was Well Observed by a Complimentary Ball

Court Columbus, A.O.F., passed the second milestone in its existence yesterday, and the event was appropriately observed in Foresters' hall, last evening.

Five hundred tickets to a complimentary ball were issued, and the hall was crowded during the evening, the young people being greatly in the majority. The Manhattan orchestra occupied seats on the platform and dispensed sweet and lively tunes for the merry dancers.

The order contained twenty numbers and it seemed as though all the dancers remained to see it out.

Joseph Laflamme was general manager, James A. McCusker, assistant; Alderic Poissant, floor director; Louis P. Turcotte, assistant.

There was a corps of ten aids and a reception committee, with Wm. J. Savage, chairman; James Madden, secretary; and Byron McFadden, secretary. Chief Ranger Bourbonniere had general charge.

Dr. Coburn DENTIST 81 MERK ST.

A delicious smoke—Old Hundred cigar.

Wall paper at 18 Church street.

T. C. Lee, Fire Insurance, Donovan Bl'dg.

E. A. Wilson, coal dealer, is selling coal at lowest cash prices; call at 51 Merrimack street.

Patten & Co. have the finest potted and cut flowers in the city, Shedd's block, Central street.

William J. Heeland, tonsorial artist, room 1, Mansur block. Hair cutting up to date. Shaving best in the city.

A true, life-like photo is something everybody admires. Marion makes that kind. Visit his studio in Barristers' hall and have a sitting made.

McElroy' Orchestra

Commences a series of socials at Highland hall commencing Saturday, Nov. 3.

Coal Only Five Dollars a Ton.

Just the thing for a kitchen stove. Our No. 2 chestnut pleases them all. Order now.

D. W. HORNE & SON,
15 Central street.

Now Congratulate Them.

The engagement is announced of Miss Belle P. Miller to Henry C. Speed, both of this city.

The announcement is made of the engagement of Mr. James Grant Hill to Miss Flora M. Lewis, who sings in the choir of the Fifth Street Baptist church.

Played Old Time Games.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Highland Congregational church held a Halloween social in the vestry last evening. The old time games of "ducking for apples" "blowing soap bubbles" etc., were enjoyed. Light refreshments were served and Miss Irene Osgood dispensed Halloween lemonade. The social committee arranged the entertainment.

'TWAS HOLLOWE'EN.

Young America Cut up Shines in all Parts of the City.

Young America was in its glory last night and never before was Holloween more thoroughly observed in the residential districts. All over the city come tales of pranks of youngsters, but in Centralville the liveliest time occurred. By ten o'clock Officer John Fox had confiscated about 50 bean blowers, while he had been sprinting all evening to catch up with gates which seemed to be running away. The mix up of gates and blinds was something surprising. One house on Read street lost all the blinds on the street floor.

Up in Ward Five around Mt. Washington and Varney streets the boys appeared to be having a good time.

A CLEVER AD.

How an Enterprising Firm Advertises a Remedy—It Puts a Frog Pond in the Store Window.

The reason why so many people stop in front of Ellingwood's store in Merrimack square is to admire the picturesque scene in the window. In miniature a patch of country is there presented, a mountain rill, its waters purling over boulders until it forms a pond which winds in and out among the rocks and knolls. The water is spanned by little bridges, while the clear waters reflect the mossy bank and fringe of hemlock, spruce and balsam trees. The novel window show is to call attention to the firm's lozenge "Frog in the throat," a remedy for irritated throats. It also brings prominently before the public five several other excellent remedies of the firm. The work was done by George E. Lull who has received much congratulation for his skill as a landscape gardener and civil engineer.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

One in a Church Vestry and Another by a Secret Society.

The A. C. F. of the Paige street Baptist church, gave one of their delightful entertainments in the church vestry, last evening. Supper was served during the early part of the evening. The children of the A. C. F. presented to Mrs. Fletcher an hand painted placque;

The sales tables were arranged around the vestry, and were in charge of a corps of young ladies.

The entertainment was fully appreciated by the large audience. The numbers were as follows: piano and harmonica selections by Gertie Dunlap, Sewell and Enos Campbell; recitation, Bertha Bord; solos, Edith and Roy Greenleaf; girls' flower drill, participated in by Lizzie Jewett, Edna McMonagle, Bernice Jones, Gherna Hopson, Mabel Allen, Grace Hatch, Mamie McNiel; sword drill by boys in sailor costume, Roy Greenleaf, Ernest Munn, Leon Brown, Fred Norton, Lee Emerson and Arthur Rawson.

The Rathbone sisters held a delightful entertainment and fair in Pythian hall, last evening. Sales tables were arranged around the hall and were very liberally patronized.

The entertainment program included the following numbers: Piano solos, Miss Lizzie Noonan; readings, Mrs. Belle Harrington Hall; cornet solos, Gertrude Pratt; vocal solos, Jennie Burns, Howard Gallonpe, Mrs. Elizabeth Morrissey and Nellie Studley.

The following committee had charge of the entertainment: Mrs. Charles Glidden, Miss Stella Stewart, Miss Ella Lockhart, Miss Cora Stiles, Mrs. Benjamin McLane, Mrs. Frank Tinker, Mrs. M. E. Tinker, Mrs. Dexter, Mrs. Danforth, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. C. H. Young, Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Potter.

Friends of Mercier.

LEWISTON, Me., Nov. 1.—The Musical and Literary club of this city, an organization composed of the representative French-Canadian citizens of Lewiston, held a meeting last evening to take action upon the death of ex-Premier Mercier. Delegates were appointed to attend the funeral. A committee on resolutions were instructed to condemn the editorials in an evening paper against Mercier.

Evening Things Up.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The discriminating stumpage dues upon spruce logs cut in the province of Quebec and exported to the United States have been removed by the Dominion government. This action will enable Canadians to get the benefits of the free lumber provisions of the new tariff law.

Politics Don't Trouble Them.

The following intentions were recorded at the city clerk's office yesterday:

James Brennan 30, to Ellen Hurlihar 30.
William J. Heeland 23, to Jeannette G. Elvin 22.
Armin Faddin 26, to Lila M. Hope 26.
George W. Chase 21, to Margaret E. Vale (nee Ambler) 28.

Louis Alexander,

Importer and tailor, 65 Central street, is a first class practical cutter of long experience in the New York houses. Is up with the times and guarantees satisfaction. Full importations now ready.

We Feel First Rate

about our pure teas and coffees, because it is no trouble to sell the goods. We have only to get a customer to try a pound once, and when they call again, name the price and it is gone. Dickson Brothers, 68 Merrimack street.

Money loaned on endorsed notes, personal securities and second mortgages on real estate by J. B. Swift, 3 Barristers hall. Telephone 405-4.

DISASTROUS FIRE

Big Shoe Factory and Car Shops Burned.

NEIGHBORING CITIES RENDERED PROMPT ASSISTANCE.

Many Hundred Men Will be Forced Into Idleness.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Nov. 1. — The most serious fire in 15 years was experienced here yesterday. The Newburyport Car company's works, the Burley & Stevens boot and shoe factory and John P. Leary's dwelling were destroyed, while the Eagle House was so badly burned that the building is little better than a charred shell. Several other places were scorched.

The direct loss is estimated in round numbers at $200,000. Beyond this, there will be the loss of wages to several hundred employes, who, at the best, will be idle for some weeks.

The location of the fire is on the north side of Merrimac street, with the Merrimac river and its wharves in close proximity to the back of the buildings swept away by the flames.

The cause was the explosion of an oil stove used for heating purposes in the car company's office. The explosion occurred during the brief absence of Charles Brown, who was there alone. Returning to the office, he found the Floor and Woodwork Blazing Fiercely.

He gave a moment to attempt to check the spread, but, seeing it was useless, the alarm was given.

Everything about the works was favorable for a quick fire, and almost before it was realized a great wave of flame enveloped the entire shop. This building was known as the "notting-up" one, the cars being put together there. To the east was the wood-working shop; that was speedily ignited. The Burley & Stevens factory on the other side was also on fire.

Two more alarms were turned in, and help asked for from Salem, Portsmouth, N. H., and Haverhill. An engine and corps of 40 men from Salem were the first to arrive, they having a stream on in 55 minutes from the time the call was sent them. Portsmouth sent an engine and 30 men and Haverhill an engine and 30 men.

Newburyport has but three engines, but they did splendid work. Valuable assistance was rendered by the tug Uhler, recently fitted with a pump for fire use, and when the three out-of-town companies added their strength the fighting force began to make itself felt.

The Scarcity of Water

was felt badly. The city supply gave out at the outset almost, and the engine companies had to fall back on the old reservoir and river.

At the beginning the Burley & Stevens factory pump was started, and poured out a terrific volume of water, holding the fire fairly in check. But the well in connection was dry in eight minutes, and, with no way to reach the river, nothing more could be done.

The car shops burned were two-story and covered about 8000 square feet. Before the outside engines could reach the scene, the Burley & Stevens building was one furious blaze. It was over 300 feet long, about 50 wide and seven stories high. The spectacle was a grand one.

The Heat Was Intense,

the firemen having to use doors as screens in order to get anywhere near. A number of men were temporarily prostrated by smoke and heat.

Over 250 people were at work in the Burley & Stevens factory, but all got out of the building in safety.

Among the incidents of the fire was the fall of Pipeman James Delano from a ladder, breaking his collar bone. Herbert Currier had one hand badly cut by falling glass at the Eagle House. Captain Knight was severely burned in the face by flying sparks.

Burley & Stevens estimate their loss at fully $175,000; that far exceeds the insurance. Considerable new machinery and stock had recently been put in that was not insured. The company manufactured boots and shoes for both men and women.

Flotsam and Jetsam.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Nov. 1.—Captain Fisher of High Head Lifesaving station reports that within the past two days an immense quantity of wreckage, portions of a vessel's bulwarks and other parts of vessels have passed by. There is nothing by which the wreckage can be identified. Captain Fisher also states that a part of a vessel's hull drifted by, but it was too far off shore to examine. Some of the wreckage was saved by the lifesaving men.

"You're a Liar."

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Police Commissioner Sheehan was on the witness stand nearly all day yesterday in the Lexow investigation. In the closing scene Mr. Goff worked up a climax by denouncing Sheehan as a bribe-taker, grand larcenist and defaulter. "You're a liar," was the response of the baited Tammany commissioner. With that the curtain was rung down for the day.

Doings of the Berkeley Temple Gathering.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The morning session of the fourth day of the conference week at Berkeley Temple was devoted to the reading of reports and other routine work. The Open or Institutional Church League conference occupied the remainder of the day and evening.

Struck by a Train.

HINGHAM, Mass., Nov. 1. — Herbert Tinker, 29 years old, while driving across the tracks of the Consolidated road last night, was struck by a train. His wagon was demolished and several of Tinker's ribs broken, besides receiving other injuries.

Another Minister Steps Out.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—Herr Henrich von Heyden-Cadow, Prussian minister of agriculture, domains and forests, has tendered his resignation to the emperor and it has been accepted. The ex-minister will receive another state appointment.

Lost Off Wales.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The British steamer Tormes foundered off Pembroke, Wales. Fourteen of her crew were drowned. The Tormes sailed from Liverpool Sept. 22 for Barcelona.

To Test a Tax.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—The distillers of this city have taken action to test the constitutionality of that section of the new tariff law increasing the tax on whisky in bond.

Without Arbitration.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 1.—An important question of frontiers is about to be settled without the usual assistance of foreign arbitration. The plenipotentiaries of the Argentine and the Bolivian republics have signed the protocol appointing the special commissioners charged with the technical survey of the disputed frontier. They met

"UNTRUE AND CRUEL."

Mrs. Drayton's Answer to the Charges Brought by Her Husband.

TRENTON, Nov. 1.—The answer in the James Coleman Drayton divorce suit was filed late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Drayton denies the charges of marital infidelity by her husband and accuses him of having deserted her without cause. The answer is filed in her behalf by E. V. Lindabury.

MRS. DRAYTON. MR. BORROWE. MR. DRAYTON.

Mrs. Drayton, in her answer, admits her marriage to her husband in New York on Oct. 20, 1879, where they resided until 1886. Then they removed to Bernardsville, where they continued to live until Oct. 1, 1891. After that they traveled in Europe until some time early in 1892.

She denies that she left her husband while they were temporarily sojourning in London in January, 1892, but that he left her, through cruel and unjust suspicions as to her marital fidelity. Mrs. Drayton makes specific denial to each and every charge in her husband's bill charging her with adultery with Hallett A. Borrowe, and says that she was never guilty of adultery with Borrowe or any other person whatsoever, either in New York, London, Bernardsville or any other place.

The charges, she says, are wholly untrue, and a most cruel and unfounded imputation.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

President's Proclamation Sets Aside the Twenty-Ninth Day of This Month.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The president yesterday issued the following:

A PROCLAMATION.

The American people should gratefully render thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the universe, who has watched over them with kindness and fostering care during the year that has passed;

They should also with humility and faith supplicate the Father of All Mercies for continued blessings according to their needs, and they should by deeds of charity seek the favor of the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Therefore I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let our ordinary work and business be suspended and let us meet in our accustomed places of worship, and give thanks to Almighty God for our preservation as a nation, for our immunity from disease and pestilence, for the harvests that have rewarded our husbandry, for a renewal of national prosperity and for every advance in virtue and intelligence that has marked our growth as a people.

And with our thanksgiving let us pray that these blessings may be multiplied unto us, that our national conscience may be quickened to a better recognition of the power and goodness of God, and that in our national life we may clearer see and closer follow the path of righteousness.

And in our places of worship and praise, as well as in the happy reunions of kindred and friends on that day, let us invoke divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely He who bestows us comfort and plenty will look upon our relief of the destitute and our ministrations of charity of the hearts truly grateful as proof of the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States, which I have caused to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, on the first day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1894, and of the independence of the United States the 119th. GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the president: W. Q. GRESHAM, secretary of state.

The Finest Yet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The loan exhibition of ladies' portraits opened today at the Academy of Design for the benefit of the St. John's guild and the New York Orthopaedic hospital. It surpassos anything of this kind ever seen in this country. Nearly 400 portraits, exclusive of miniatures, are shown, and about as many miniatures. The works of the best modern men of all schools make it more remarkable than the London exhibition of "Fair Women," where the old pictures were most prominent.

Have Many Grievances.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—A protracted session of the executive committee of the West End Street railway employes was held last night. A large number of grievances against the road were discussed at length, and it was decided to call a mass meeting of all employes not on duty next Friday night to take a vote on a proposition to tie up the road. A general strike on the West End means the paralysis of the entire street car system of Boston and half a dozen other towns.

A Fiendish Trick.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Michael Salvator placed a dynamite cartridge under a house in which Eugene Gore and his wife were sleeping. He then fired four shots through the window, but missed his mark. The shots awakened Genova and his wife, and they reached the adjoining room just as the dynamite exploded. Part of the house and the furniture were demolished, the man and wife being badly bruised. Salvator escaped.

Was Prepared to Die.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—Ex-Premier Mercier is lying in state at his residence. Ten thousand people have viewed the body. Enormous quantities of flowers are received by the family. Mercier's last words were: "I am prepared to die, but it is a sad thing to leave my wife and children. Tell my friends that my last thoughts were for them; tell my opponents that I have forgotten all, and tell all that I worked for my country."

Seventy-Five Years Old.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—The celebration of the 75th anniversary of Christ Church cathedral began today. One of the chief features of the celebration was consecration of the "Mary E. Bobbinger Memorial chapel," adjoining the main structure. Very Rev. M. Schuyler, dean of the cathedral, who was called as rector Oct. 1, 1851, preached the anniversary sermon, and Bishop Tuttle and the clergy of the city and state participated.

Course Boats Designated.

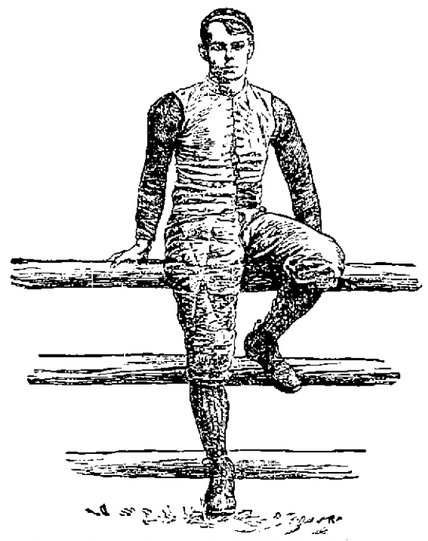

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The navy department has arranged for the speed trial of the torpedo boat Ericsson on the 5th inst., and has assigned the Delphin, Cincinnati, Nana, Fern Fortuna and Iwana to serve as course boats.

Sent to Hoffman Island.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Two deck stewards of the Lucania refused to be vaccinated, and were removed to Hoffman Island, where they will be kept for 14 days.

Insane Asylum Burned.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 1.—An asylum for the insane at Joenkoping was destroyed by fire. Fifteen inmates of the institution were burned to death.

CAPTAIN FRANK A. HINKEY OF YALE.

Captain Frank A. Hinkey, who was in control of the Yale 'Varsity Football team last year, is again in command this year. The great annual game with Harvard will be played in Springfield, Mass., on November 24. Mr. Hinkey is popularly known as "The Silent Man."

IN THE EMPIRE STATE.

EX-PRES. HARRISON PLEADS FOR MORTON'S ELECTION.

Democrats Are Vigorously Denounced by Speaker—Holloran Will Bet $20,000 on Strong and Goff.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—At the Democratic headquarters the canvass books have just been put in. It is said that the total show a list of 45,000 for the Democrats in New York and 11,000 in Kings. Governor Flower, a most astute political observer, gives Senator Hill a clear majority of 35,000 north of the Harlem. For some time, under the cover of a modest and quiet campaign, it has been known that the Democratic prospects were daily growing brighter. Now for the first time figures are given out.

John Holloran was present at the state Democracy headquarters yesterday afternoon with $20,000 to bet on the election of Strong and Goff. He exhibited the amount of money named, but although he remained there until after dark, no one appeared to take up any of his offers, which were $3000 to $4500 on Strong and Goff each, and $10,000 even on the election of both.

Harrison and Morton.

Ex-President Harrison spoke at Carnegie Music hall last evening, and it would appear that half of New York turned out to hear him. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Republican state committee to ratify the nomination of Morton and Saxton.

The hour fixed for the meeting was 8 o'clock, but a tremendous crowd began to assemble as early as 5:30.

When ex-President Harrison and Mr. Morton arrived, the audience stood up, and it was fully 10 minutes before the cheering ceased.

Soon afterwards G. W. Stevens made a short address, introducing Mr. Morton as the chairman of the meeting. When Mr. Morton stepped to the chair and prepared to speak, the audience would not let him do so until he had acknowledged their plaudits for fully 10 minutes. Mr. Morton said:

"It has been foreign to my inclinations to take part in public meetings after my own nomination to public office. I desire to be judged by the record I have made, rather than by any professions manufactured for an occasion. If I am not worthy to administer the great trust which will be committed to me, when the will of the Republican state convention is ratified by the people, nothing I can say now will relieve the situation.

"Because of this widespread hope, and in the earnest desire to advance its fulfillment, a citizen of Indiana, resolute in war and accomplished in the civil councils of the nation, has come to this metropolis to lend you the encouragement of his salutation and give you the ripe results of his observation and experience. I have the pleasure of presenting Benjamin Harrison."

Harrison's Address.

After some preliminary remarks, Mr. Harrison said:

"I cannot say very much about the last administration, and it is somewhat delicate for me to speak about the present. But men are of little consequence in the administration of our public affairs, they do not determine events.

"The important matter is the principle or policy that the respective parties represent, and of these I feel very free to speak, and I will give you my views as to the tendencies of the policies of the Republican party, which I believe to be beneficent, helpful and politic, and the tendencies of the Democratic party, which I believe to be hurtful and destructive.

"This great country of ours has such intermingling influences that no election can properly be said to be local.

"It is of consequence, and ought to be of concern to the people of the United States from St. John to Puget Sound, whether the governor of the state of New York shall be a man of clean personal life, a man who illustrates in his own life the history, the virtue of high American citizenship; whether he shall be a man who loves our free institutions, who preserves the sanctity of the ballot box and the equality of men before the law; or whether he shall be a man who consorts with those who prostitute the ballot box, degrade public office and public administration.

"It is of consequence to the whole people whether the great state of New York shall have at the head of your executive department a typical American citizen, or one who regards these things from a low standpoint, and looks only to party advantage rather than the public weal.

"I believe the candidate of the Republican party is altogether worthy of the support of his fellow-citizens, and is altogether qualified for the exercise of the high duties of governor of this great state.

"There are national questions as well involved in the city of New York; a congress is to be chosen, and these constituencies in the great city of New York are to exercise an important influence in deciding the question whether the control of the house of representatives at Washington shall be wrested from the Democratic party."

Mr. Harrison said that for 30 years the Democratic party had been an irresponsible party, but in 1893 it had been called to a position of responsibility.

The trouble with the Democratic party was that it was an incoherent party. Who could tell what it was going to do; what its position upon the tariff question was.

The ex-president discussed the recent tariff legislation and created considerable laughter by humorous allusions to the manner in which the Democratic party took up the work of revising the tariff.

He next discussed with some sarcasm the Hawaiian affair. Further on, the ex-president said the Democratic party was uninstructed and inexperienced. In concluding, he said:

"Let the greatest of the manufacturing states, by her people in this election, speak in the voice that shall be heard from ocean to ocean in condemnation of those who have brought these disasters upon the country."

Disastrous Year For Gloucester.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 1.—The whole number of Gloucester vessels lost during the year ending Oct. 31, 1894, has been 30, of a total tonnage of 2423.42 tons, representing a value of about $175,000, on which there was $157,625 insurance. The number of lives lost, including deaths on shipboard and in hospitals, during the year, has been 137, against 71 for the previous year.

Mrs. Howe Presides.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 1.—The second annual congress of the Association for the Advancement of Women met here yesterday, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe of Massachusetts presiding. The congress was given an elaborate reception at the Hotel Imperial. The body will remain in session throughout the week.

A Widow's Good Fortune.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Nov. 1. — Mrs. Frank Brush, a needy soldier's widow, with three children, has received word that she has been bequeathed $20,000 by Mrs. Eunice Duffee of Chicago, who died leaving over $1,000,000. Mrs. Duffee was an aunt of Mrs. Brush.

Not Considered Important.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Guatemala officials here do not attach importance to renewed reports of war preparations along the Mexican border. No official advices have been received, as they would be if trouble had reached a critical stage.

It Is Marsh Gas.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Nov. 1.—The report that a wonderful deposit of natural gas had been stirred up from the Connecticut river proves on chemical analysis to be nothing but marsh gas.

Contractors Get $50,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The secretary of the navy has accepted the machinery of the Maine, and authorized the payment of about $50,000 to the contractors.

LADIES WHO VALUE
A refined complexion must use Pozzoni's Powder. It produces a soft & beautiful skin.

FALL MILLINERY.
Miss Sarah Cahill.
New Store, New Goods, New Ideas, and in fact the Latest in Millinery, at the beautiful new store at
113 CORHAM STREET,
Just above the new Post Office. The display of Novelties is quite remarkable.
You are cordially invited to call. Be sure and inquire for our prices.
MISS SARAH CAHILL, 113 Corham Street.

When in Need of Real Fine
MILLINERY
Call at the New Store of
ABBIE M. SMITH
Where the most complete assortment of Novelties and Exquisite Trimmings may be found. All New Goods.
175 Merrimack St., Welles' Block.
MRS. M. E. DUDLEY, Assistant.
Fine Mourning a Specialty.

Suits to Order, - $20.00.
Pants " " - $5.00.
SHARROW & BAXANDALL
TAILORS,
93 - Gorham - Street.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE MONEY?
If so call at the
TEMPLE OF DESIGN,
—FOR YOUR—
FALL and WINTER MILLINERY,
There you will find the correct styles and newest novelties at the lowest possible prices.
14 and 16 Merrick Square, Runels' Block

McCARTIN'S BAKERY, 107 Gorham Street.
Domestic Bread, Cake and Pastry.
Orders for Wedding Cake promptly filled. Beans received for baking.

T. M. BOLTON, 130 Market Street, Gates' Block,
Saddle and Harness Maker,
Fine Repairing at the Lowest Rates

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report
Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Warning to Mariners.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The captain of the schooner Pembina, from Porto Rico, reports on Oct. 22, when in lat. 38.40 N. and long. 71.20 W., sighted a large three-masted schooner, abandoned and waterlogged. The main and mizzen masts, bowsprit and the stump of the foremast were standing. The water was too rough at the time to ascertain particulars. It is a dangerous obstruction to navigation.

Baltimore's New Music Hall.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—Baltimore's new music hall was dedicated last night in the presence of one of the largest audiences that has assembled here in many years. The Boston Symphony orchestra and the Melba Concert company provided the inaugural program.

An Ex-Mayor's Testimony.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—President Capen addressed the Municipal league last night, and after a general criticism of the expenditures of the city officials, and the condition of the government, showed that 39 of the 75 members of the city council paid a poll tax only, and suggested many reforms in municipal government. Ex-Mayor Martin, in advocating a four-year term for mayor, said: "I would not take the mayoralty if I got the vote of every citizen; a man cannot afford to, and maintain his dignity, character and integrity."

Railway Changes Hands.

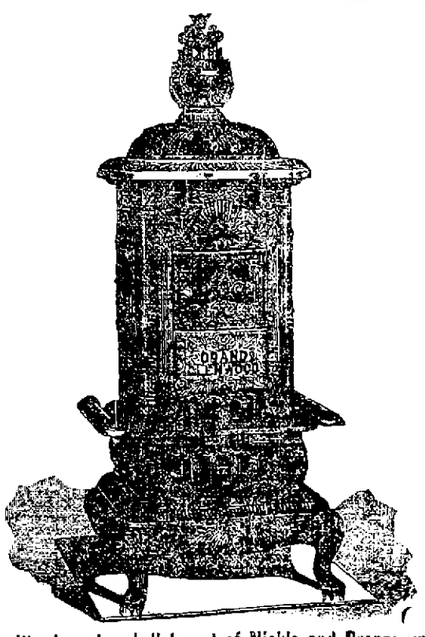

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 1.—The Kentucky railroad passed into the hands of its new owners today and was rechristened the Lexington and Eastern.

THE "DOMESTIC"
Parlor Stove is the best stove on the market. Has more practical points than any other stove made. Come and see it and you will be convinced of the truth of the above statement.
Wood Stoves, $3; Coal Stoves, $4 and upwards. And, as for Ranges, we have the best Range you ever saw for $20. Every Range warranted.
Chamber Sets, Parlor Sets' Easy Chairs, Carpets, Matting, Oil Cloth, etc.
Remember that we carry the "Electric Oil Heater," which is acknowledged to be the best Oil Heater on the market.
J. J. CAYNOR & CO.,
New Number, 35 Prescott Street.

Smiling Faces - - - - On the Sabbath
Are always the result of purchases made at the
UNION :: MARKET.
Join the Crowd and See Us Today.
WALSH'S UNION MARKET, Middlesex St, Foot of South St.

NEW HOLIDAY EDITION,
THE LAST LEAF,
By Oliver Wendell Holmes.
Illustrated by George Wharton Edwards and F. Hopkinson Smith. It is very handsomely bound, and will be a leading book for the holidays. You will want to see it.
LAWLER, Fashionable Stationer and Bookseller, 79 Merrimack and 15 John Streets. Telephone 373-4.

FURNITURE.

New goods for fall trade now in; new Carpets, new Chamber, Parlor and Dining-room Furniture. A fine stock to select from and the prices lower than ever before.
We wish to call your attention to our line of Glenwood Ranges and Parlor Stoves for which we are the agents in Lowell. The Glenwood goods are the acknowledged superior of all other makes of stoves. See our Grand Glenwood heater before you purchase. The beautiful designs, fineness of finish and simple construction, together with elegant embellishment of Nickle and Bronze, makes it the most beautiful as well as the most useful heater ever offered to the public.
Cookin Bros., NO. 66 PRESCOTT ST.

-BEST-
HAXALL FLOUR
$4 per bbl.

Choice St. Louis, -	$3.00 Per Bbl.
Bag of Haxall, - -	.55 Per Bag
Bag of St. Louis -	.40 Per Bag
Tub Lard - - -	.8 lb.
Canned Peas - - -	.7 Per Can
" Tomatoes - -	.8 Per Can
" Salmon - -	.11 Per Can
" Blue Berries -	.10 Per Can
" Clams - -	.8 Per Can
6 Boxes Sardines - -	.25

These prices guaranteed while the advertisement is displayed.
FARLEY'S :: CASH :: GROCERY,
New No. 140 Gorham St.

LOWELL
Trunk Manufactory
An elephant cannot get along without his trunk, and you will find that you will have almost as much difficulty to get along without trunk as the elephant—that is if you are rooming out, and like everything else the BEST is the CHEAPEST always, and the best in quality and lowest in price to be found is at 70-72 Middlesex St.
Old Wooden Building.
P. F. Devine, Prop.
N. B.—Repairing is a specialty with us. Work first-class, and low prices is our business motto. Old trunks taken as payment for new ones.